A "BOREHAM" VOLUME

is always an acceptable gift.

Frank Boreham has written twenty volumes, sixteen of which consist of racy and unconventional religious essays, full of good and unexpected things. He has the rare gift of penetrating to the heart of familiar texts and proverbial sayings, and every essay is an example of this genius for getting at the depths behind what we call the commonplace.

Mr. Boreham's first volume, "The Luggage of Life," was first issued fifteen years ago, but is still as popular as ever, fourteen editions having been called for.

His four volumes on great texts are unique studies of transformed lives, shaped by an arresting text.

You can get copies of his works from any bookseller, and the publishers will be pleased to send a full list.

New Light on Wesley

DR. J. S. SIMON'S STANDARD WORKS.

John Wesley and the Religious Societies.

Dr. Simon has given many years to the study of Methodist origins, and has gained a high reputation for his writings on the Evangelical Revival. Experts will be surprised at the freshness and vividness of the study, and will find that many obscure points are cleared up by this master of research.

John Wesley and the Methodist Societies.

In the present volume Dr. Simon continues the record from the formation of the first Methodist Society, with the same ample knowledge and ripe judgment. The interest of the study grows as Wesley sets out on his mission as the Evangelist of England.

John Wesley and the Advance of Methodism.

In this third volume Dr. Simon treats the eventful years between 1747 and 1756, during which the organisation of Methodism took its essential characteristics. Wesley is portrayed not with the perfervid enthusiasm of a partisan, but with the insight of a lover and the scrupulous fidelity of an historian.

John Wesley, The Master Builder.

Dr. Simon's earlier volumes have obtained wide recognition as the most complete and authoritative record of the various stages of the Evangelical Revival. His latest volume, "John Wesley, The Master Builder," covers the period from 1757 to 1772 when Methodism became firmly rooted in this country and began its triumphant progress in America. The story is profoundly interesting and no one who wishes to understand Wesley or the Methodist Church can afford to overlook it.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Q. II. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of our Foreign Missions?

A. 1. The Conference learns with much thankfulness that during the year 1926 the general response of the Wesleyan Methodist Church to the financial needs of Foreign Missions was sufficient to meet the entire cost of the growing work, and that in acknowledgment of this fact the debt remaining from the year 1925 was removed by a special gift. The continuous advance of the Gospel in Africa and Asia, and the world-wide economic changes of recent years, have caused an inevitable growth in the expenditure of the Missionary Society, but the increase of knowledge and interest amongst the members of the Home Church has hitherto led to the contribution of gifts which have met this expenditure. It is, however, greatly to be desired on the one hand that the Missionary Society should be enabled to meet more adequately the world-call which is to be heard so clearly at the present day, and on the other hand that there should be no necessity for special appeals at the end of each financial year. The Conference, therefore, whilst truly thankful for the grace of giving which marks so many congregations and individual members, earnestly appeals to all in our Churches and congregations to make a sympathetic study of the facts of the present Missionary situation, and to adopt a rule of systematic and regular contributions to the support of the preaching of the Gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth.

2. (a) The Conference directs that a cordial expression of its affection and sympathy be communicated to the missionaries who have been compelled to leave China, to those who still remain there, and through them to the Chinese Christians who are associated with the Wesleyan Methodist Church. The Conference assures all these brethren and sisters of its earnest prayers for the peace and well-being of China and for the prosperity of the work of God throughout that great land. It will support the Committee of the Missionary Society, together with the missionaries and the Church in China, in the adoption of such new methods as are designed to facilitate future co-operation in their common task of preaching the Gospel and leading men to the knowledge of God in Christ.

(b) The Conference respectfully expresses to H.M. Government its gratification that it is the declared policy of the Government to avoid armed strife with China and to put forth every effort to secure a just and amicable settlement of the present troubles. It appeals to the Government to maintain this policy and assures them that it will ever support all efforts to promote peace on earth and goodwill amongst men.

3. The Conference invites the Wesleyan Methodist Church to join with other Churches in observing November 30, 1927, as a day of special intercession on behalf of world-wide Missionary work.

4. The Annual Sermon on behalf of the British and Foreign Bible Society shall be preached at Wesley's Chapel, London, on Sunday, April 15, 1928.

5. The Rev. CHARLES W. ANDREWS, B.A., B.D., is appointed Chairman of the Officers' Meeting for the ensuing year.

6. General Treasurers: Mr. GEORGE F. BYROM and Mr. HAROLD W. PAYNE are re-appointed for the ensuing year. Mrs. NORMAN T. C. SARGANT is appointed Treasurer of the Women's Department.

7. The following are appointed the General Committee of Management for the ensuing year.

For admission in September . . .	before May 15.
For admission in January . . .	before October 15.

Parents are advised that boys should enter the School before they pass the age of ten and a half years, unless they are able to begin the study of French at their present schools.

(1) Payments will be made at Conference for the calendar year then current.

(2) Parents may begin to claim for their children when they are nine, ten, eleven, or twelve years of age on the preceding Christmas Day; but the first claim for a child who is twelve years of age on or before any Christmas Day must be made at the following Conference at the latest.

(3) Parents shall receive CONSECUTIVELY an annual payment of £12 for six years in all. This regulation shall not apply in the case of a candidate for admission to the Schools who has passed the Extrance Examination, but for whom there is not room at the next following re-opening.

X. Rural Methodism.

The Conference receives the following Report and thanks the members of the various Commissions. It gives its general approval to the Report, and refers to the Home Mission Committee the special recommendations in Section II for further and detailed consideration and report to the next Conference:

In accordance with the direction of the Conference of 1925, re-affirmed in 1926 after receiving the Committee's interim report, the Home Mission Committee has continued its investigations into the conditions, needs, and opportunity of Rural Methodism and now presents its completed report. During the two years Commissions have visited forty-three typical Circuits in various parts of the country, selected for the purpose by the District Synods as representative of Rural Methodism in the District both where it is stronger and weaker. The Commission usually consisted of one of the Home Mission Secretaries, a lay member of the Home Mission Committee, the Chairman of the District, the District Home Mission Secretary, and a lay member of the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee. In each of the selected Circuits the Commissions spent a long day, travelling at least 60–70 miles, visiting chapels according to an itinerary prepared by the superintendent. They were accompanied by the superintendent of the Circuit, one or two of his colleagues, and the Circuit stewards. In this way they have visited upwards of 300 village chapels, holding conversations with the officials and members of the Society and conducting brief services. The remarkable local interest aroused by the visit of the Commission to which the interim report referred has been even more conspicuous this year than last. However inconvenient the hour or unpropitious the weather, relatively large numbers have gathered. They entered with zest into the purposes of the Commission and showed readiness to give any information likely to be of service. Everywhere the greetings and message of the Conference were received with warm appreciation.

I.

The Commissions are impressed with the strength, vigour, and influence of Methodism in some of the Circuits visited. But in not a few it must be confessed that Methodism is not holding its own. The weak tend to become even weaker. Apart from considerable Connexional aid they cannot continue. Nearly everywhere there is a sense of strain and of a certain disillusionment as of those who are set to fight an unequal battle with inadequate and diminishing forces. Yet touching evidence abounds of the loving devotion of the members to the little village Cause and their readiness to sacrifice their time and care and money in order to maintain it. In some churches the whole burden of the work falls on one family whose members undertake the offices of steward, school teacher and organist, with an unaffected cheerfulness and a quiet zeal beyond praise. No more stalwart Christians, no more true-hearted Methodists are to be found in the land. The Conference may be assured that in hundreds of villages in the land our people prove themselves the salt of the earth and the light of the world.

Trust Property.—The chapels are for the most part free from debt, and in good repair. They show evident signs of loving attention. While the older are plain and unpretentious, many of the more recent erections are well planned and attractive in form. A few are of striking architectural beauty and are fully equipped for the demands of church life. The chief lack is suitable premises, as necessary to rural as to urban Methodism, for Sunday school work and week-night meetings. Practically every place is provided with a musical instrument, but it is not always possible to secure a player.

Sunday Schools.—About 85 per cent. of the village churches have Sunday schools. Frequently we found that more than half the children of the village attended the Methodist school. Many parents not Methodists desire the advantage of a Methodist school for their children. But such children usually leave the school at about twelve years of age and are prepared for confirmation at the parish church. Most of these remain attached to the Church of England; a few later find their way back to the Methodist chapel. But very few of the young people obtain employment in the village. The greater proportion leave the village altogether for employment in the towns. Where no Sunday school existed the chief reasons given for the lack were "no one to take charge," and "no children to come!" The absence of this nursery of the Church gravely imperils the continued existence of the Church itself.

Divine Service.—The services on the Lord's Day are conducted by local preachers and auxiliaries, whose ministrations are well received. On the whole they faithfully fulfil their appointments. More than half of the local preachers on the plans examined reside in the towns, but in most of the larger village churches there is at least one local preacher. On him falls the conduct of the service in the comparatively rare absence of the appointed preacher. If no preacher is present a prayer meeting is held, or one of the forms of prayer in the Sunday School Hymnal is used. In a few places request was made for a simple liturgy, suitable for village chapels, which might be used on such occasions. In many instances the place is only open during the week for the visit of the minister. In others there is a fortnightly meeting. We were agreeably surprised to find in how many places a Wesley Guild was established.

The Commission everywhere urged the desirability of a weekly meeting between the Sundays, for fellowship and prayer. Even in some unlikely quarters it succeeded in inducing the friends to give themselves the opportunity of such fellowship and the neighbours this proof of the Church's interest in their welfare.

The Village.—To outward seeming the village remains much as it was fifty years ago. There has been comparatively little building, and the housing scheme is not much in evidence in agricultural England. There are many areas formerly agricultural now becoming urban through the opening up of a new industry—as, for example, the new coalfield areas. But that aspect is beyond the scope of this report. In rural England the population is steadily declining through emigration to the towns and to other countries. The lessening number of children to the family noticeable in recent years accelerates the decrease. Yet village life is by no means the stagnant existence some picture. The amenities of the town are open to the remote hamlet to-day. The motor-bus is revolutionising transport and the villager can get to and from the town almost at will. The farmer and the tradesman have their car. The telephone is installed in most villages. The gramophone gives familiarity with the best artists and the best music; the wireless puts the moorland on the level with the metropolis for time and news and amusement. Clubs for men and for women with facilities for dancing and whist drives are springing up. The village girl in dress and manners emulates her sister in the town. The typical country yokel exists only on the stage. If a little slower in the uptake than his town cousin, the country man is by no means inferior in mental power and is probably more retentive of what he receives. Nowhere in England has the revolution of modern times effected a greater change than in the temper and outlook of village life.

Religious Life.—The problem of the religious life of the village, therefore, is more complex than in the last century. The unsettlement of the age is present there as in the towns ; and altered conditions may require a change of method. For good or evil territorial and ecclesiastical influence is in general less powerful than formerly. Here and there a farmer may be refused land and a tradesman or a craftsman be boycotted because he is a Methodist, but we found that on the whole our people " walk at liberty." In parishes where the Vicar is evangelical quite friendly relations often subsist. But with the spread of Anglo-Catholicism a change is once again coming over the countryside. The line of cleavage between " church " and " chapel " tends to be sharply drawn. The children are removed from our Sunday school ; and we begin to see a recrudescence of the battle fought in the last generation in the day school. But elaborate ritual does not attract the people. Rather they cease to attend services where it is practised. But they cannot bring themselves to attend Nonconformist services. Unhappily it is understood to be better not to attend public worship at all than to go to " chapel." Upon Methodism falls the chief responsibility of maintaining the evangelical witness. In a large number of villages the little Methodist chapel is the only place where it is heard. It is essential, therefore, that our services should be effectively continued, even though it involve greater labour and sacrifice than at present.

II.

There is no need, therefore, to argue the question of the necessity of maintaining rural Methodism. We take that to be a postulate. The sole question is how it may be more effectively maintained and how the hands of our workers and members in the villages may be strengthened.

Finance.—Possibly Rural Methodism is not fully aware how large is the amount of financial aid which it annually receives. On the other hand, town Methodism little realises the strain which the maintenance of the services in the country parts of the Circuit brings upon the Circuit chapel and the principal supporters and workers.

From one-third to one-half of the rural Circuits receive help from the Home Mission Fund, either by annual subsidy or by support of a lay evangelist. The total amount of such aid is upwards of £9,000 a year. Since the fixing of a miminum allowance to ministers, the Sustentation Fund has also made grants to country Circuits which amount to nearly £6,000 a year. Even then many Circuits find great and increasing difficulty in making income meet expenditure. "Special efforts" tend to become normal experience.

Usually the Circuit chapel bears the lion's share of the annual expenditure, ordinary and extraordinary. Its membership provides the greater number of local preachers, and chairmen for the various functions and meetings in the country parts of the Circuit. At Sunday worship it can never muster its full strength numerically or spiritually, as many must be absent on duty whose presence means so much to the power of the service. In many Circuits it more than provides for the maintenance of a minister, yet consents to share his services with the other churches of the Circuit. That the members continue cheerfully to bear such strain is a signal proof of their belief in our system and a remarkable illustration of the vitality of Methodism. The village churches loyally meet all their "trust" and incidental expenses, but their contributions to Quarter Board are small; in some cases, we thought, inadequate to their resources, and certainly disproportionate to their handsome support of other causes. On the other hand, save on a week-day, they rarely see their minister.

Ministerial Service.—Speaking generally, the country Circuits are ministerially under-staffed. But with a membership which tends to decline with the population there is little likelihood of their ever being able to call out an additional minister. It is of the greatest importance, therefore, that the ministers appointed should be in full vigour of life. Frequently, however, the superintendent is in advanced years, and physically unequal to the demands of the Circuit. Such an appointment is fair neither to minister nor Circuit. The Committee is strongly of opinion that the plea of the country Circuits for younger superintendents should be heeded and that senior ministers should receive appointments to Circuits where their abilities and experience would find suitable but less physically exacting employment.

The Committee would remind the Conference that since the establishment of the Sustentation Fund, travelling in a country Circuit involves little or no financial disadvantage; that the opportunity of influence it affords, especially to an itinerant ministry, compares favourably with that of town Circuits; and that with increased accommodation at the Connexional schools and the wider distribution of secondary schools, the requisite educational facilities for ministers' children are conveniently accessible. The Committee believes that it would be advantageous to Methodism, and to the well-being and increased effectiveness of the pastorate, if it was understood that every minister should have at least one term of service in a country Circuit.

The Committee calls attention to the effective auxiliary ministerial service rendered in many rural Circuits by Home Mission Lay Evangelists. As increase in the number of ministers seems financially impracticable, the Committee looks to this source for the provision of the additional service so urgently required and asks the Conference to remit this question to the Committee for further consideration as to how far and under what conditions such service is available and could be efficiently rendered.

Maintenance of Church Worship.—The proper supply of the pulpit is a matter of grave concern. The local preacher's plan is an unsafe guide to effective pulpit strength. Many of the preachers are in advanced years and many for other reasons are unable to give more than occasional help. The number who are both able and willing to render regular and frequent service is relatively small. Unhappily, few young men seem conscious of a call to take up the work. In some Circuits women on full plan are rendering welcome help. But at present there appears little ground for expecting any large accession of strength from this quarter. To the country superintendent the making of the plan is, therefore, a matter of increasing perplexity. After utilising all available preachers and exhorters, and all the supplementary help he can secure from preachers of other denominations, he frequently has from a score to a hundred services still to be supplied!

The Committee is of opinion that it would be better rather to reduce the number of services than to make inadequate or unsatisfactory provision for their conduct. Where, as in many chapels, attendance at one of the two services is small, it might be better to concentrate upon one well-attended preaching service.

Difficulty is also experienced in filling the offices of the church. In many places women are rendering efficient help, not only as leaders and Sunday school workers, but as stewards also. The fluctuations in prosperity and adversity noticeable in rural societies are most frequently due to the presence or absence, the advent or departure, of a Methodist family from the neighbourhood. Hence, even if through lack of congregation it may be necessary to close a chapel for a time, it is of great importance to retain the property in hope of new arrivals.

Working of the Circuit.—To facilitate pastoral oversight, many Circuits are now worked sectionally. The Committee is of opinion that the system is capable of further development. While according to our discipline a superintendent cannot be freed from his responsibility for the Circuit as a whole, there is much that he can properly delegate to a colleague. Much time and labour could be saved by putting him in definite charge of a given portion of the Circuit. In former days two or even three ministers were located in the Circuit town. The arrangement may be more convenient where there is but one principal town and that centrally situated.

But it is greatly to the benefit of a church to have a resident minister so far as is compatible with the efficient working of the circuit. The Committee is of opinion that ministerial residences should be planted in as many places as possible. In the many circuits to which probationers are appointed it should be understood that their place of residence may be changed from time to time as the needs of the circuit may require.

Rural Missions.—The Home Mission Committee is convinced that the policy of linking single stations and weak Circuits with a strong head to form a Rural Mission has been abundantly justified. New life and vigour have resulted from the new association, the more efficient ministerial oversight, and the enlarged outlook and wider fellowship which the members of the scattered churches enjoy. But if the area is very wide, considerations of expense and time preclude from attendance at the Quarterly Meeting just those whom the scheme was specially designed to serve. Moreover, Circuits entering into amalgamation suffer loss of highly prized representation in the District Synod. The Committee believes that these disabilities might be removed if Sectional Quarterly Meetings, at which the superintendent would preside, were held two or three times in the year, with a united gathering for the Quarterly Meeting in March, and possibly also in September. Each section should have its own duly elected steward who should be an ex-officio member of the Synod. In this way what is felt to be a real grievance—the loss of representation—would be largely removed.

Circuit Travelling.—Rail and motor-bus offer little facility for Sunday appointments, but they are of considerable help during the week. But the motor-cycle or motor-car brings distant places of the circuit within easy reach and enables the minister to compass far more work with less expenditure of energy. By a skilfully planned itinerary he may accomplish in one day a round of visitation which formerly required three days. Further, a little adjustment in the time of commencement might make possible the holding of additional week-night services. But the initial cost of the machine is prohibitive to many, and the annual cost of maintaining and running it is heavy. Considering the greatly increased service the car enables the minister to give, it seems reasonable that he should receive some allowance for running expenses from the Quarter Board. The Home Mission Committee is ready to co-operate with circuits in meeting this charge. The best arrangement would be that as in former days the Circuit provided the " preacher's horse," it should now provide the preacher's car.

Removal Expenses.—Owing to frequent ministerial changes and the heavy charge for travelling involved, rural circuits have to bear a quite disproportionate share of the total cost of removals. The amount is a serious but inevitable addition to the annual expenditure. The hardship is most seriously felt in remoter parts of the country, and especially when an uninvited minister appointed by Conference comes from a circuit a great distance away. Seeing such removal expenses are a necessary consequence of an itinerant ministry, the Committee considers that they should be borne by the Connexion as a whole and shared proportionately by the circuits. The average annual cost could be ascertained and a covering amount added to the General Assessment. From the Fund thus created payment would be made of the amount required in each case.

III.

With 80 per cent. of the population of England living in the towns, and with new townships springing up in many parts of the land where but little religious provision is made, the Conference might well give its strength to meeting the responsibility thus created. Nevertheless the Committee would press upon the Conference the urgent claims of the villages. To Methodism, to a greater extent than to any other Free Church, Providence seems to have given the care of their spiritual life. Withdrawal would involve such serious spiritual and moral loss that it cannot be contemplated. There is a true sense in which these parts need us most. If we leave them, whence will they receive the word that is able to save the soul? Hitherto the field has been abundantly fruitful. It is still white unto harvest, and must be sown and reaped even though the cost of the labour be greatly increased. Moreover, the town lives if the village stands fast in the Lord. If the stream of young life setting towards the town brings spiritual health as well as physical strength and vigour, what incalculable benefit will accrue. For the sake of the greater community it enriches as well as of the little impoverished company it leaves behind, Methodism must maintain its witness in the villages of England.

THE LONDON MISSION AND EXTENSION FUND.

Q. VIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the London Mission and Extension Fund?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1927, pp. 85–88).

2. Sites and Buildings.—The responsibilities of the London Mission and Extension Fund were never greater. The rapid growth of new housing areas in and around London, and the changed character of areas within inner London combine to give urgency to the Committee's work. In new areas sites have been secured, schemes developed, and buildings erected. The Committee has acted in co-operation with the Free Church Extension Committee and has sought to avoid all overlapping. The demands on the new London Fund have been so great that, when all have been met, not more than £27,970, apart from the annual income, will be available for grants. The problem of the Chapels in the inner area is increasingly difficult. By assisting schemes of renovation, by grants in aid of the work, and by counsel and sympathy, the Committee has sought to give old centres new life. The Evangelical witness was never more needed in both outer and inner London. By Training Schools for Open-Air Speakers the Committee has endeavoured to give impetus to open-air work, the urgent need of which is fully realised.

Work and Workers.—The London Mission, with its eleven branches and over forty centres, continues to extend. At the last Conference, Plaistow was included within the Mission, and this has been fully justified. During the year the East Branch has added "Edinburgh Castle" to its centres. This famous building, so long and honourably associated with Dr. Barnardo's work, contains a great Hall seating 3,000 people, together with other halls and premises. Proposals are before the Conference which, if approved, will add further responsibilities to the East London Mission. From end to end the London Mission is full of vitality. The redemptive and social agencies and the organisations for children and young people are more powerful than ever.

3. Sir ROBERT W. PERKS, Bart., is re-appointed General Treasurer of the Fund, the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, Deputy Treasurer, the Rev. C. ENSOR WALTERS, Secretary, and the Rev. WALTER H. ARMSTRONG, Assistant Secretary.

Q. X. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the affairs of the Auxiliary Fund?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1927, pp. 289–296).

2. The Conference greatly appreciates the generosity and the manifold services of all who have helped to keep the income up to the level of 1925, and once again commends the urgent claims of the Fund to the sympathetic consideration of all our people. It specially recognises the generous contributions of the Ministers.

3. The thanks of the Conference are given to those friends who have made special Donations, and to the Executors who have paid sundry legacies, also to those Supernumeraries and Widows of Ministers who have relinquished or returned their allowances, in whole or in part.

4. The allowance made to Supernumeraries for the next year shall be twenty-eight pounds, plus thirty-five shillings for each year of active service, and to Widows twenty-eight pounds, plus seventeen shillings and sixpence for each year of the husband's service.

5. The Conference sincerely regrets that the Senior Treasurer, Mr. John Rayner Batty, is compelled on personal grounds to retire from official connection with the Auxiliary Fund. For twenty-one years he has rendered distinguished service in this connection, first as Liverpool District Treasurer, and later as one of the General Treasurers. His interest in the Fund has been conspicuous and steadily maintained, and his service has been characterised by administrative ability and by large-hearted sympathy. The Conference records its sincere appreciation of his ability and fidelity, and will not cease to remember him with honour and affection.

In all ordinary matters of administration the above Committee shall have the fullest power of action.

The rules of the Conference as to the retirement of members of Connexional Committees shall apply to the Education Committee, but not to the Executive Sub-Committees.

5. Closing of Wesleyan Primary Schools.—In the interests of the Methodist Church and of the Education of the country (especially in rural districts), the Conference deeply deplores the giving up of any Methodist School, and would impress upon all our Managers that before any steps are taken towards transfer or surrender, they should lay the case before both the District Education Committee and the Connexional Education Committee for their counsel and assistance.

6. Grants to Primary Schools.—The judgment of the Chapel Committee or Sunday School Committee of the District Synod shall be obtained in respect of all applications for Grants and laid before the members of the Connexional Education Committee when such applications are being considered. This rule shall apply to ordinary applications, and not to those of special urgency.

10. Southlands College Chaplaincy.—The Conference approves the re-appointment of the Rev. James Critchison as Chaplain, for the Connexional year commencing September 1927.

11. Southlands College.—It having been reported to Conference that in pursuance of the consent of Conference already given the Trustees of Southlands College are disposing of the same, and that in pursuance of the Trust Deed the purchase money, after deducting therefrom the money due on mortgage on the property and all the costs and expenses of and incidental to the carrying out of the sale, will be paid to the Treasurers for the time being of the Education Committee.

Resolved, that such Committee be directed to hold such money and then to pay and apply and dispose of the same in or towards the purchase and promotion of a new College for the training of Women Teachers, upon such terms and conditions as the Education Committee may from time to time determine, which Training College shall be conveyed to Trustees to be nominated and appointed by the Education Committee and the former Trustees of the Southlands property now sold, but so that the number of Trustees shall not exceed 30, and such Trustees shall hold such new Training College upon such Trusts and with such conditions, powers and authorities as the Education Committee and such former Trustees shall decide.

12. Debenture Bonds.—The Conference directs the Board of Management (in exercise of the powers of that Board under Clause 3 of the Wesleyan Methodist Secondary Schools Trust Deed, a copy of which is set out in footnote A), to raise loans not exceeding £30,000 in all by Debenture Bonds for the purpose of capital expenditure on the improvement of existing schools and in assisting to provide a middle-class public school for girls in Yorkshire. This direction confirms any loans already raised by such Bonds (Agenda, 1927, p. 111).

13. The Conference hears with satisfaction the extensive improvements made in the buildings and otherwise of the Secondary Schools belonging to the Connexion.

14. Rydal School, Colwyn Bay.—(1) The Conference receives the Report (Agenda, 1927, p. 171).

(2) The Rydal School, Colwyn Bay, is the property of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and is administered by a Governing Body duly appointed by the Wesleyan Methodist Conference under the Scheme approved.

(3) Under the Scheme for the administration of Rydal School (as approved by the Conference of 1922), two of the six Governors appointed by the Conference retire annually. The Conference accordingly retires the Rev. John Hornabrook, who is re-appointed and appoints Mr. M. Cory Dixon, B.A.

I. The Temperance Movement.

1. The Conference receives the Report (Agenda, 1927, pp. 319–324).

2. The Conference approves the following proposals for the establishment of "THE ABSTAINERS' ROLL OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH," in place of the existing Abstainers' League, and commends this simple method for the enrolment of abstainers to Leaders' Meetings and Local Sunday School Councils throughout the Connexion:

Endeavour shall be made to include the names of all abstainers in our Church upon a Roll, to be entitled "THE ABSTAINERS' ROLL OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH." This new Church Roll of Abstainers shall replace the existing Abstainers' League. The Roll will comprise two Sections:

(1) Senior Section.—15 years of age and upwards. The Local Temperance Secretary shall be responsible for the keeping of this Section of the Roll. Each person whose name is recorded on the Senior Section of the Roll shall have given assent to the following pledge, "By the help of God I promise to abstain from all intoxicating liquors as beverages." A card of membership will be issued with a request for a minimum subscription of 1*d.* per annum. The card of membership will be renewed each year. Annual re-enrolment will not be required.

(2) Junior Section.—Under 15 years of age. This Section of the Roll shall be in charge of the Sunday School Temperance Secretary. It shall contain two divisions: (i) For Scholars above the age of 12 years; (ii) For children from birth to 12 years of age. Parents of children upon the Cradle Roll or in the Beginners' and Primary Departments, and of others up to 12 years of age, should be invited to sign an enrolment card promising that no intoxicating liquors shall be given to their children except under explicit medical advice. Where parents are unwilling to undertake this obligation children over the age of eight may take the pledge to abstain, and their names will be entered upon the Abstainers' Roll.

The names of children who are not scholars in the Sunday School, but whose parents are associated with the Church, may be enrolled under the same conditions as Sunday School scholars.

No subscription will be asked from those who are enrolled in the Junior Section. The necessary literature will be supplied free of charge by the Department to Sunday Schools in which a collection is taken on Temperance Sunday or other contribution made towards the Funds of the Department.

(3) The names of all members of the Active Service Order of the Young Methodist Temperance Movement shall be entered on the Abstainers' Roll of the Church with which they are connected; and their literature-subscription accepted in lieu of the ordinary Abstainers' Roll subscription.

(4) Both Sections of the Abstainers' Roll should be carefully revised annually, so as to furnish reliable returns of membership.

3. The Conference directs that the third Sunday in November (November 20) shall be observed as Temperance Sunday, and recommends that on that day the new method of enrolment of Total Abstainers should be inaugurated in Sunday Schools and congregations, wherever possible; and, further, that the week following should be observed as "Temperance Week," during which the appeal for personal abstinence from intoxicating liquors as beverages, and for active service in the cause of Temperance, should be made in all spheres of Church life.

4. The Conference directs the attention of His Majesty's Government to the continued growth in the number of clubs, registered for the supply of intoxicating liquors apart from the consideration and consent of any public authority, and calls upon the Government to give legislative effect to the measures, recently presented to the House of Commons, which would amend the law relating to the registration of clubs and the supply of intoxicating liquor therein.

5. The Conference learns with satisfaction that the Rev. HENRY CARTER is to attend the Congress of the World League against Alcoholism at Winona, U.S.A., in August, 1927, and desires to express earnest good wishes for the success of the visit.

II. Sunday Questions.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1927, pp. 325–7).

2. The Conference directs that, on the first Sunday after Easter the subject of the significance and sanctity of the Lord's Day shall receive special attention in our Churches and Sunday Schools.

3. The Conference, having regard to the supreme need for safeguarding the opportunities which Sunday affords for the public worship of God, appeals to the leaders of all political parties to exert their influence to prevent the calling of public assemblies for party political propaganda upon Sunday. The Conference also appeals to Methodists to refrain entirely from participation in and attendance at all such gatherings.

4. The Conference directs the Temperance and Social Welfare Committee to take into its earnest consideration the increasing facilities for Sunday excursions afforded by Railway Companies and char-a-banc proprietors, particularly with a view to safeguarding the sanctity of the Christian Sunday in villages, seaside resorts and elsewhere, against the invasion of holiday-makers.

III. International and Industrial Relationships.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1927, pp. 327–8).

2. The Conference welcomes the discussions initiated at Geneva with a view to a further limitation of naval armaments, and prays for such an outcome as shall conduce to the future peace of the world.

IV. Circuit and Local Temperance and Social Welfare Representation.

The Conference approves the following scheme for Circuit and Local Temperance and Social Welfare Representation and remits pars. 2 and 3 to the Annual Synods as provisional legislation.

1. For the more efficient administration of Temperance and Social Welfare work in our Societies and Circuits, the Conference recommends the appointment, wherever possible, of Local and Circuit Temperance and Social Welfare Committees to promote Temperance and Social Welfare activities in conjunction with the Department, constituted as follows:

The Local Committee:

(1) The Leaders' Meeting to appoint a local Temperance and Social Welfare Secretary, and wherever possible a Temperance and Social Welfare Committee representative of the youth and adult activities of the Church. The Secretary, and the Committee where appointed, shall be responsible for the Temperance and Social Welfare work in the local Church, and, acting together with the local Sunday School Temperance Secretary, shall have in charge the preparation, revision, and oversight of the Abstainers' Roll, and the furtherance of the Active Service Order of the Young Methodist Temperance Movement.

(2) The Local Sunday School Council to appoint a Sunday School Temperance and Social Welfare Secretary or Secretaries, who shall be, ex-officio, a member or members of the local Temperance and Social Welfare Committee where such Committee exists. The duties of the Sunday School Temperance Secretary shall be:

(a) To promote instruction in Christian citizenship.

(b) To secure due provision for the observance of Temperance Sunday in the Sunday School.

(c) To be responsible for the Junior Section of the Abstainers' Roll, furnishing the local Temperance Secretary and the Local Sunday School Council with such reports as may be necessary.

The Circuit Committee :

(a) A Ministerial and Lay Secretary, and not more than eight members elected by the June Quarterly Meeting, chosen where possible from among the members of the Quarterly Meeting ;

(b) The Secretary of each Local Temperance and Social Welfare Committee and one representative elected by such Committee, or by the Leaders' Meeting where such Committee does not exist ;

(c) The Committee shall have power to co-opt not more than eight additional members.

3. The Circuit Temperance and Social Welfare Secretary shall be, ex-officio, a member of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting, provided that such Secretary be a member of Society in that Circuit.

V. Income for Temperance and Social Welfare Committee.

The Conference receives the Report of the Special Committee appointed to consider the best methods of providing an adequate income for the Temperance and Social Welfare Department (Minutes, 1926, p. 139) and adopts the following Resolution :

" In view of the increasing duties and responsibilities devolving upon the Temperance and Social Welfare Department in giving effect to the directions of the Conference respecting Temperance and social work, and the urgent need for additional work, especially as regards the defence of the Christian Sunday, and in educational propaganda against gambling, the Conference strongly recommends each Circuit to make a contribution of not less than Five Pounds per annum to the funds of the Department, either by grant from the Envelope System, by retiring collections on Temperance Sunday, or by an alternative mode of contribution.

Further, the Conference, with a view to a fair distribution of responsibility in this matter as between the Circuits of each District recommends each Synod to arrange a scale of contribution, so that the contributions from the Circuits may be proportionate to their financial ability." 2. The Conference of 1926 having declared in favour of the Union of the Wesleyan, Primitive, and United Methodist Churches, on the basis of the amended Scheme of Union, and having sent it as provisional legislation to the May Synods of 1927, and the Synods having approved of the provisional legislation by a majority, the Conference confirms the legislation.

3. The following Resolution was submitted:

> "The Conference authorises the Committee to take the necessary steps to approach Parliament with a view to securing the Enabling Bill," the voting being:
> | | |
> |---|---|
> | For . . . . . | 400 |
> | Against. . . . . | 166 |

N.B.—Inasmuch as the Conference of 1925 declared that "a majority of at least 75 per cent. of the Conference present and voting in each Session in favour of the Scheme will be required before any steps are taken to secure an Enabling Act," the above Resolution cannot, for the present, be carried into effect.

4. The Conference having confirmed the Provisional Legislation in favour of the Scheme for Methodist Union declares that the Union of the three Methodist Churches is now the avowed policy of the Representative Session of the Conference. In view, however, of the divergence of opinion which still exists on the question, the Conference, while gratefully recognising the splendid service rendered by the existing Committee, instructs the Committee to consider during the year whether any method of approach to Union can be devised which may lead to greater unanimity. The Conference resolves to reconstruct the Committee so that all views may be represented.

5. The Conference receives the following statement upon the unification of Departments and Districts, the codification of Conference procedure, the interchange of pulpits and inter-communion services, and directs as follows:

(1) During the year the Committee has carried out the directions of the Conference to gather information and to prepare plans for the unification of departments. The interim report of the Committees of representatives appointed by the Departments of the three Churches stated that not only is there no real difficulty in the amalgamation of any of the Departments, but there will be a substantial gain to their work. The Conference records its conviction that the reports show that Union will greatly advance the work of the Church as a whole.

The Conference directs the Departments again to appoint representatives to Committees to complete these plans so that the United Committee may prepare a final report for the Conferences.

(2) The Committee has also gathered information and prepared plans in accordance with the directions of the Conference for the unification of Districts. The Conference directs the Committee to complete this work, and authorises the Committee to take any necessary steps to invite help in perfecting the plans.

(3) The Committee has also carried out the direction of the Conference with reference to the codification of Conference procedure, and the Conference directs that the Committee should continue its work on this subject.

(4) The Conference reaffirms its resolutions as to the interchange of pulpits and inter-communion services, and directs that, wherever possible, gatherings shall be held affording opportunities for fellowship and prayer, and authorises the Committee to assist in carrying out the arrangements. The Committee suggests that during the year these arrangements should be upon a yet more extended scale.

6. The Conference appoints the following Committee who are also its representatives to the United Committee:

Rev. W. Hodson Smith, President; Rev. W. Russell Maltby, D.D., Ex-President; Rev. Thomas Kirkup, Secretary of the Conference; and the Revs. Charles W. Andrews, B.A., B.D., Walter H. Armstrong, G. F. General Sustentation Fund.—1. The Conference receives the report of the Committee together with the Treasurer's Financial Statement for the year 1926–7 (Agenda, 1927, pp. 399–404. See Appendix IV).

2. The Conference is gratified to learn that the Minimum Allowances have been assured to all Ministers and Probationers during the year by means of this Fund, and expresses its warm appreciation of the loyal and liberal response by the Methodist people to its appeal—particularly in the Annual Collections made in November last.

3. The Conference recommends that the present scale of Minimum Stipends be maintained as follows:

(i) For all married Ministers who have travelled ten years and upwards, £250 per annum, with £20 additional for Superintendents.

(ii) For married Ministers who have travelled less than ten years, £240 per annum (except as in paragraph (iii) below).

(iii) For young married Ministers temporarily in Probationers' appointments, £240 inclusive of a Home Mission Grant of £40 in lieu of house.

(iv) For Probationers, £160.

N.B.—It must be understood that the amounts recommended are in the nature of an aim, and not a guarantee.

4. The Conference recommends that, subject to the resources of the Fund being adequate for the purpose, a supplementary Grant of four guineas per child should be made to all Ministers who are in receipt of the Minimum Stipend only, so as to realise an allowance of twelve guineas per child in all such cases.

5. The Conference directs that Collections (two) be taken in all Places of Worship throughout the Connexion on behalf of the General Sustentation Fund on Sunday, November 6th, 1927, and recommends the September Quarterly Meetings to arrange that, wherever possible, a Layman shall advocate the collection, especially in the principal chapels.

Special Finance Committee.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee (Agenda, 1927, pp. 385–391).

2. The Conference resolves:

(a) That in view of the special claims upon the Children's Fund the amount of the General Assessment for the year 1927–8 shall remain at £55,825 and shall be allotted to the Departments according to the following scale:

Ministers' Children's Fund	£29,500
Worn-out Ministers' Fund	25,075
Theological Institution Fund	1,000
Connexional Fund	250

The Conference agrees that for the year 1927–8 the amount charged upon the Districts shall be upon the basis suggested by the Quinquennial Assessment Committee and approved by the Conference (Minutes, 1926, p. 494). The extra £1,925, being the difference between £55,825 now fixed for the year and the £53,900 previously suggested, shall be apportioned pro rata on all the contributions from Districts and Departments.

3. In view of the possibility of changing economic conditions during the present Quinquennial period (1926–31) which may make possible a reduction in the amount to be raised by the General Assessment, the Conference empowers the Committee to make such adjustments during that period as from time to time may be deemed desirable.

4. The Conference approves the recommendation of the Committee in respect of the limiting of places in the future reserved for Ministers' children in the Schools and refers the proposals to the consideration of the Board of Governors in each case.

5. The Conference receives the report of the special inquiry in respect of the operations of the Envelope System of Finance throughout the Connexion and resolves to rescind all recommendations upon procedure previously made (Minutes, 1926, p. 147). The Conference approves the amended scheme now submitted and recommends it for adoption by the Churches concerned.

(For New Scheme see pp. 96–97.)

6. The Conference re-appoints the Committee with the following terms of reference:

(a) The powers of the Committee shall be confined to inquiry and consequent recommendations.

(b) The Committee shall take within its purview such matters as the Conference shall refer to it, bearing upon Finance particularly in relation to the Funds affected by the General Assessment.

2. The Conference resolves that in view of the difference of judgment between the two Sessions of the Conference in regard to the proposals for the admission of women to the Ministry, and of the wide divergence of opinion in the Representative Session, and having regard to the declaration of the Pastoral Session that the serious practical obstacles to the admission of women to our Itinerant Ministry, interposed both by our organisation and traditions, do not admit immediately of any complete solution, this Representative Session of the Conference, realising that the importance and difficulties of the subject demand for it further consideration, remits the whole question to the Committee, directing it to explore the possibility of suggesting such arrangements as shall secure larger opportunities for the exercise of the gifts of consecrated women in the service of Christ and the further development of the existing Diaconate of women in the Ministry of the Church. The Committee shall confer, if desired, with the Committee appointed by the Pastoral Session.

3. The Conference appoints the Committee:

OTHER SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

The late Rev. Amos Burnet.—The Conference records with thankfulness to Almighty God its affectionate memory of the late Rev. Amos Burnet, an Ex-President of the Conference, and one of the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society. He served the Kingdom of God both at home and abroad for forty-seven years with conspicuous fidelity and devotion. First as missionary in India, then for nine years in the city of Nottingham, and subsequently in South Africa and at the Mission House, he rendered great and enduring service as preacher, pastor, and administrator. The Conference specially recalls his distinguished services in South Africa during the critical years following the war, when his relations with the natives on the one hand and with the Government and its officials on the other, were always marked by dignity and wisdom, and sustained the honour of the Christian Ministry. To the discharge of his duties as General Secretary of the Missionary Society he brought gifts of high ability, enriched by ripe experience and sound judgment.

Retirement of Dr. F. Percy Wigfield.—The Conference, having learned that Dr. F. Percy Wigfield has during the year relinquished the position of Medical Secretary of the Missionary Society, desires to record its warm appreciation of his devoted and able services as the first doctor to accept this important post, and its regret that he feels compelled by circumstances to return to private practice. His counsel and encouragement have helped missionaries in all parts of the Foreign Field, and his advocacy of the cause of world evangelisation has been of great value to the whole of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. The Conference assures him of its warm wishes for prosperity and happiness in his return to the active work of the profession of which he is an honoured member.

Retirement of Miss Peet.—Upon receiving the announcement of the resignation of Miss Caroline H. Peet, as Head Mistress of Trinity Hall, Southport, the Conference desires to record its high appreciation of her character and services during the twenty-five years in which she has held the appointment. Miss Peet has discharged her duties with great devotion, sustained loyalty, and marked success. By her constant endeavour to combine scholastic efficiency and Methodist home life in the school where so many ministers' daughters have received their education, she has laid our Church under deep and permanent obligation.

Gift of Travelling Scholarship.—The Conference hears with much pleasure of the offer of Mr. John Finch of Thames Ditton, to provide a Travelling Scholarship of £200 per year (at first for an experimental period of three years), to be awarded annually by the Governors to a selected student of Wesley House, Cambridge. In accepting this timely and valuable gift, the Conference records its sincere appreciation of the deep and generous interest which Mr. Finch has taken in Wesley House, and its warmest thanks for this further noble contribution on behalf of future students in that branch of our Theological Institution.

The Irish Conference and Methodist Union.—The Irish Conference having requested the Yearly Conference to signify its approval of the principle of the draft Bills intended to be promoted in Ireland for the purpose of conferring powers upon the Annual Conference of the Methodist Church in Ireland, hitherto vested in the Yearly Conference, and for other purposes therein mentioned; the Conference resolves:

> That without prejudice to any of the powers, privileges and advantages vested in this Conference under the Deed Poll dated the 28th day of February, 1784, save those relating to Ireland; the Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, duly assembled in Bradford this 15th day of July, 1927, approves of the principle of the draft of the Bills intended to be promoted in Ireland for the purpose of conferring powers upon the Annual Conference of the Methodist Church in Ireland hitherto vested in the Yearly Conference, and for the other purpose mentioned in the said draft.

Methodist Union in South Africa.—The Conference learns with satisfaction that the Transvaal Synod and the South African Conference are examining the possibility of the Union of their work, and will welcome proposals to establish Methodist Union in the Dominion of South Africa.

South African Conference Provisional Legislation.—The Conference sanctions the following Provisional Legislation of the South African Conference:

(1) The President of the Women's Auxiliary shall be ex-officio a member of the Representative Session of the European Section of the Synod of the District in which she resides.

(2) The Secretary of each District Committee of the Women's Auxiliary shall be ex-officio a member of the Representative Session of the European Section of the Synod of the District in which she resides.

The Government and China.—The Conference respectfully expresses to H.M. Government its gratification that it is the declared policy of the Government to avoid armed strife with China and to put forth every effort to secure a just and amicable settlement of the present troubles. It appeals to the Government to maintain this policy and assures them that it will ever support all efforts to promote peace on earth and goodwill amongst men.

State of Historic Methodist Sanctuaries.—The Conference instructs the Home Mission Committee to inquire into the state of a selected number of our historic sanctuaries with a view:

(1) To ascertaining whether they can be made more effective in reaching the masses of the people in the immediate localities in which they are situated.

(2) To suggesting means whereby this desired end may be attained.

Allowances to Ministers' Widows.—The Conference having received the Report of the Committee of Privileges dealing with the claim of the Inland Revenue Authorities that the allowances made to Ministers' Widows were liable to payment of Estate or Succession Duty, and having heard Counsel's opinion, authorises the Committee to take such action as it considers necessary to obtain a decision in regard thereto.

Consecration Service for Women Missionaries.—The Conference approves the suggestion that an Order of Service for the setting apart of Women Missionaries should be recognised similar to that already appointed for Deaconesses ; and refers the proposal to the Missionary Committee for the preparation of such a service, and to report to the next Conference.

Envelope System of Finance : Recommendations re Procedure.—The Conference rescinds the previous recommendations upon procedure (Minutes, 1926, p. 147), approves the following amended scheme and recommends its adoption by the Churches concerned :

(1) The Conference approves the Envelope System as a method by which the local church seeks to unify all its ordinary finance and provide by the systematic gift of members and adherents adequate funds to meet current expenditure year by year.

(2) In any church where it is proposed to introduce this system of finance, the consent of the Trustees, at a Trustees' Meeting duly summoned, must be secured, and the Leaders' Meeting must also be consulted.

(3) A Finance Committee, known as the Envelope System Committee, should be appointed for that church and should consist of the following members :

(a) The Superintendent Minister, or one of his colleagues.

(b) Two Representatives elected annually by the Trustees' Meeting, the Leaders' Meeting, and the Society Meeting respectively.

N.B.—In the case of the Leaders' Meeting, one of its chosen representatives, at least, shall be a Society Steward.

(c) One representative elected by the Sunday School Council where the Sunday School is included in the " All-In " system.

(d) A Secretary and a Treasurer appointed annually by the Committee, but not necessarily from among its own members.

(4) The Conference recommends the adoption of an inclusive system, covering the collections of every Sunday in the year, together with class contributions and pew rents. In any case where special collections are excluded, this shall be by resolution of the Committee.

(5) The amounts to be allocated to the several Funds shall be determined by this Committee, except in such cases where by constitutional rights and usage they are fixed by some other authority, for instance, the amount of the Local Assessment for the Circuit Funds which is determined by the Quarterly Meeting.

(6) In the case of Collections on behalf of Connexional Funds appointed by the Conference, a sum not less than the average collections of the three previous years shall be paid in the first year of the Envelope System, and subsequently a proportionate share of the increase of the current year over the previous year shall be paid to each Connexional Fund.

(7) It is understood that the proportion of income due to Connexional Funds shall be budgeted for in the total sum required annually by each church, and that the amounts allotted will not be diminished during the course of the financial year. Any reduction which after careful inquiry is found necessary must be made only by the Committee at its Annual Meeting, and then only for the succeeding year and pro rata on all Funds involved in the Envelope System.

(8) All collections appointed for Connexional Funds shall be indicated on the Circuit Plan; an announcement concerning the Fund in question shall be publicly made, direct personal support shall be invited and an opportunity given for any special contributions.

(9) An Annual Meeting of the Committee shall be held for the presentation and adoption of the Accounts, the pro rata distribution of any surplus on the year's working of the system and for the consideration and approval of the Budget for the following year.

(10) Account Books shall be carefully kept by the Officers on behalf of the Committee and shall be audited once a year by persons appointed by the Annual Society Meeting.

(11) All moneys for the various Connexional Funds shall be promptly remitted by the Treasurer to the Superintendent Minister or by arrangement with him direct to the Circuit Treasurer of Connexional Funds.

(12) Not less than four days' notice in writing shall be given of any Meeting of the Committee.

(13) The Banking Account of the Envelope System should be in the name of the church and not of an individual.

(14) The Committee and its Officers, in consultation with the Society Stewards, are responsible for the proper taking of all Collections included in the System and for counting, booking, and administering them in harmony with the allocation aforesaid.

Having regard to the undoubted benefit of the Envelope System of finance already proved and of the desirability of a uniform method of procedure, the Conference commends the above suggestions to all churches where the System has been adopted or is contemplated in the future.

Separated Chairmen.—Pending the settlement of the Separated Chairmen question, the Conference approves of the continuance of the present financial arrangements relating to those who are already so appointed.

Board of Trustees for Connexional Funds.—The Conference hears with satisfaction that the Board of Trustees for the Wesleyan Methodist Connexional Funds (Registered) is now legally established and prepared to receive funds as Custodian Trustees.

All communications to be addressed to the Secretary to the Board, the Rev. F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., 1, Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.1.

Connexional Lay Treasurers and the Conference.—The Conference of 1925 adopted the following Resolution (Minutes, 1925, Appendix VI, p. 404):

(1) That the Standing Order which directs "that the Representative Session shall consist of 300 Ministers and 300 Laymen, one-fifth of the Lay Representatives (60) to be elected annually by the Conference, this number to include 12 Lay Treasurers of Connexional Funds" shall be amended in its last clause as follows:

> "this number to include 15 Lay Treasurers of Connexional Funds."

(2) That the Treasurers of the Women's Auxiliary, Wesley Guild, and Class Leaders' Committees be included among Lay Treasurers of Connexional Funds to be elected by the Conference.

(3) The Conference further resolves that the Resolution shall be carried into effect over a period of three years. In 1927 the Treasurer of the Women's Auxiliary became a Member of the Conference, in 1928 the Treasurer of the Wesley Guild will become a member of the Conference, in 1929 the Treasurer of the Class Leaders' Committee. For each of these and succeeding years the Conference will elect 15 Lay Representatives instead of 16 as heretofore.

Allocation Committee for Representative Session.—The following instruction is given by the Conference to the Allocation Committee which reports upon the number of Laymen from each District who may attend the next Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen:

> "That in future where the allocation on the numerical basis approximates to 50 per cent. of a claim to another seat, preference should be given to the Districts which have the relatively smaller number of Representatives elected by the Conference."

Wesley House, Cambridge: Regulations for Government and Administration.—The Conference adopts the following Regulations for the government and administration of Wesley House, Cambridge.

1. The College shall be administered by a Board of Governors to consist of the following persons, viz.:

3. Any matters of discipline involving the status of Students who are accepted Candidates for the Ministry are reserved for the appropriate Courts appointed by the Conference.

4. In regard to the nomination of Tutors and the appointment of a House Committee the procedure shall be the same as in the case of the Local Executives of the other Colleges.

5. The admission of Students to the College shall be determined by the Conference, subject to the right of the Trustees reserved by Clause 5 of the Deed of Foundation, viz. to declare that the number of Students or accepted Candidates admitted into the College on other qualifications than that of a University degree is in excess of the intentions of the Founders which were that the College should be a post-graduate College, with provision for a few exceptions. "In the event of any such declaration, no Students or accepted Candidates, other than those already admitted, shall be admitted without a degree until in the judgment of the Trustees the balance has been restored."

6. The Board shall not alter or extend the College buildings without the consent given by a resolution of the Trustees.

Students and Methodist Union.—The Conference directs that in any future referendum on the subject of Methodist Union, an opportunity shall be given to the Students in the Theological Colleges to exercise their vote.

General Sustentation Fund.—The Conference directs that annual collections (two) on behalf of the General Sustentation Fund be made in all places of worship throughout the Connexion on the first Sunday in November (the date this year is November 6). The Conference recommends the September Quarterly Meeting to arrange that, wherever possible, a layman shall advocate the collection, especially in the principal chapels.

Gifts to the Auxiliary Fund.—The Conference records its deep thankfulness for the following gifts to the Worn-Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund: The Directors of the Wesleyan Methodist Trust Assurance Co., Ltd., £5,000 for the present year, and a special gift of £2,500; The Methodist Publishing House, £1,100; Messrs. Horace Marshall & Son, Publishers of the Methodist Times, £500; Proprietors of the Methodist Recorder, £250.

Women's Department and District Foreign Missionary Committee.—The Conference recommends that of the two Women Representatives elected by the Synod to the District Foreign Missionary Committee, one, at least, shall be an Officer of the District Women's Auxiliary Council.

Cardiff and Swansea and South Wales Districts.—The Conference recognises the growing importance of "the problem of transition in language" in relation to religious work in Glamorgan and Monmouthshire, and heartily approves of the proposal of an exchange of representatives between South Wales and Cardiff and Swansea Synods, on the understanding that such representatives have no vote in the Synods which they visit.

Connexional Campaigns.—The Conference considers that it is not desirable that more than one Connexional Campaign should be organised by a Department in any one year, and directs that in future no such campaign shall be started without the previous consent of the Conference.

Q. XXIX. What Ministers have died since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, fifty-four:

(1) Amos Burnet: born August 5, 1857, at Little Steeping, near Spilsby, where his early years were spent under the influence of a godly home. On removing to Boston at the age of sixteen he at once decided for Christ and began to work in Mission Band and Open-Air Service, becoming in due time a Candidate. After three years at Richmond he was appointed, in 1881, to the Mysore District, where, till 1893, he ministered to the English congregations, civil and military, in the city of Bangalore. Compelled, for the sake of his family, to return to England, he was appointed to Nottingham, where he remained for nine years, and where his ministry was greatly blessed, its fruits remaining to this day. In 1902 he was invited by the Missionary Committee to take the oversight and general superintendency of the work in the Transvaal. In that year the South African War ended, and to gather together the scattered people, to reanimate their sorely tried faith, to initiate and carry through a far-seeing policy, a leader was needed of experience, of strong frame and brave heart, of steady judgement and great patience. To earnest evangelism he added a zeal for educational work, for church extension, and for vigilance in matters of public morals. The increase that God gave was swift and abundant. For seventeen years he was able to lead the Methodism of that vast region, and he attained a position of unusual influence in the community, having the confidence not only of his Church, but also of the leaders of commerce and of the heads of Government. Honoured and trusted by the white population, he was recognised by the Africans as a powerful friend and advocate. In 1919 he was appointed one of the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society, bringing to that office great experience and unimpaired powers. In 1924 he was President of the Conference, which happily was held in what might be almost called his own city of Nottingham. The year that followed was one of constant happy labour, and appeared to leave him still in full vigour. A few months later his health failed, and during the Conference of 1926 he was obliged to return home. He passed away on August 1, 1926, having almost reached his seventieth year and having completed forty-seven years in the Ministry. In him godliness was joined to great natural ability; strength of body was matched by a sound and well-furnished mind, and all were adorned by a gracious humility and brotherly kindness which made him deeply beloved.

(2) George Speight: born at Leeds in 1888. His father was an able and popular local preacher, and two of his brothers are in our Ministry. Early in life he gave himself to Christ and the work of the Church. His winsome personality, radiant disposition and courageous optimism drew to him both old and young, especially the young. In 1911 he was accepted for the Ministry, and after three years at Handsworth, he was appointed to the Bayswater Circuit. In 1916 he joined the Inns of Court Officers' Training Corps and passed through the terrible fire of the Great War. Owing to a wound, shell-shock and trench fever he was invalided home. He never fully recovered. He fought a brave fight against a painful affliction. His sincerity and earnestness were manifest to all. He was ever welcome in the homes of our people. His ambition both in and out of the pulpit was to win souls. He died at Morecambe, August 7, 1926, in his thirty-eighth year and the twelfth of his ministry.

(3) LEONARD SYKES: born November 26, 1878, at Dewsbury, of Methodist parents. His mother was left a widow, with four young children, when he was four years of age. From the Council School he won a Batley Grammar School scholarship, of which he sacrificed two years, that he might help to maintain his home. Converted at fifteen and preaching at sixteen and a half, he was accepted as a Candidate in 1899. After a happy year at Evesham, he entered Handsworth College. In 1903 he was appointed to the Norfolk Street Church in Sheffield. Most of his subsequent ministry was spent in great City Missions, in which he served with exceptional success. A natural gift of oratory made him a great power in pulpit or on platform. Never willing to give less than his best, he furnished his mind by wide and extensive reading. His wit and humour added to the charm of his personality. Equally remarkable were his fine qualities of heart. His brotherliness and sympathy won him friends wherever he went. He exercised a gracious influence upon young people, and was a great soul winner. His strenuous labours undoubtedly caused the premature failure of his powers. After a year spent in a vain search for health he retired to Amersham, Bucks, where three days later, on August 16, 1926, he died in the forty-eighth year of his age. His ministry, which covered twenty-four years, gladdened the hearts and enriched the minds of a multitude.

(4) JAMES GREEN: born at Bunbury, Cheshire, May 18, 1849. At an early age he accepted Christ as his Saviour, and entered upon a life of fellowship with God. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1872, and after training at Richmond was appointed to Sierra Leone, where he did excellent work. His love for Africa and its people never failed. To the last he was a keen student of everything which had a bearing upon the welfare of the people amongst whom he began his ministry. Through ill-health he was compelled to return to the Home work, in which he laboured with great fidelity and success. He was a sympathetic pastor, an able and faithful preacher, and a true friend, whose kindly disposition endeared him to all. He was a Christian gentleman and a saint of God. During the whole of his ministry he found his greatest joy in proclaiming the saving power of the Lord Jesus Christ. He passed away at Chatteris on August 21, 1926, in the seventy-seventh year of his life, and the fifty-fourth of his ministry.

(5) JAMES MORRISON: born in County Down, Ireland, January 1, 1844. His father was a man of deep piety, and in after life the son delighted to speak of early religious experiences in the home. Educated at Glasgow University, he entered the Ministry in 1867, and laboured vigorously and successfully for forty-six years. A man of strong personality and deep affection, he was greatly beloved in all his circuits. He was a forceful expository preacher, and diligently equipped himself for the pulpit. A zealous and sympathetic pastor, and capable in all departments of the work, his ministry was fruitful and gracious. There are many who thank God on every remembrance of him. In 1913 he retired to Harrogate. For thirteen years he continued to preach, and was always present at the weekly prayer meeting. He was an omnivorous reader, keeping abreast of modern knowledge, deeply interested in science, ancient and modern languages, and every branch of Biblical study. Almost to the end his freshness and enthusiasm were remarkable. For a few weeks before his death he was in great weakness, but he gave radiant witness to the strength and vitality of his Christian experience. His serene faith, deep conviction, and intense devotion were marked features of his life to the end. He passed home on August 24, 1926, in the eighty-third year of his age, and the fifty-ninth of his ministry.

(6) Isaac E. Page: born at Nottingham, January 16, 1839. He was born of the Spirit December 27, 1855. Straightway he began to commend his Saviour to others. After three years as a local preacher he entered the Ministry at the age of twenty, going direct from business to circuit work. He was fired by a great passion for souls, and many were won to Christ by his labours. He was one of the founders and editors of The King's Highway, a journal devoted to the promotion of Scriptural Holiness. He counted it a joy to take part in the Southport Convention, and to organise holiness conventions in his circuits. He was a tireless pastor, trudging miles to visit a solitary family. The beauties of God's universe fascinated him—he was deeply versed in Nature's lore. One of his outstanding qualities was an invincible optimism; his faith dared the seemingly impossible. Prayer, with him, was perpetual communion. He was a great encourager of local preachers, and for fourteen years edited the Local Preachers' Magazine. He wielded a facile and vivid pen, and in life's eventide sent out messages to cheer God's workers. He was greatly beloved by children, retaining to the last the child-heart. On August 27, 1926, at the age of eighty-seven, the wheels of life quietly stopped, and he passed to his reward in the sixty-seventh year of his ministry.

(7) Thomas G. Keeling: born December 21, 1833, was the son of Rev. John Keeling. He was educated at Woodhouse Grove. In 1857 he was accepted for the Ministry, and sent direct to the Maidstone Circuit. After twenty-three years in the active work his health failed, and he became a Supernumerary. During the years of his retirement he sought opportunities of service, preaching and visiting as his health permitted. He took great interest in the life and work of young men—especially young preachers—cheering and encouraging them by sympathy and help. His chief delight was to minister to the sick and aged. Daily studying the Greek Testament, and reading deeply in devotional theology, he lived on a high plane of Christian experience, and enjoyed constant fellowship with his Lord. For the last ten years of his life he was almost blind, but always patient and gracious. Humble, brotherly and saintly, he glorified God, and, on September 2, 1926, he fell on sleep in the ninety-third year of his life and the seventieth of his ministry.

(8) Thomas Baine: born at Stalybridge, July 5, 1837. His boyhood was spent in Sheffield, where the family was closely identified with the Norfolk Street Circuit, and where he received that religious training which led to his conversion at the age of fifteen. Work in the Sunday School immediately followed and, in 1858, he was accepted as a Candidate, and spent two years at Richmond College. For one year he laboured in Barbados, and nine years in British Guiana. He returned to England in 1870, and for thirty-eight years exercised a fruitful ministry. Becoming a Supernumerary in 1908, he had pastoral oversight at the church at South Farnborough for eleven years. At the age of eighty-two failing strength compelled him to resign this appointment, much to the regret of the circuit. To within ten days of his death he continued to visit and to take an active interest in the men of the Royal Air Force, in whose neighbourhood he lived, and amongst whom he was to be seen each morning when weather conditions permitted. At the memorial service, held in the Church on a Saturday afternoon, every "declared Wesleyan" in the detachment attended voluntarily. The last few years of his life were marked by much domestic affliction, but in this—as in the whole of his long life—he found that the grace of God, which he had preached so faithfully to others, was sufficient for his own need. Trusting in Jesus Christ as his personal Saviour, he passed home on September 15, 1926, in his ninetieth year.

(9) Charles H. Gough: born at Congleton in 1841, entered the Ministry in 1863. He was associated in his early days with the Anglican Church, but having been persuaded by a companion to attend a Methodist Class Meeting, he was so greatly impressed that he resolved to become a member. He began to preach at the age of twenty, and two years later was accepted for the Ministry. Much to his regret, owing to the shortage of men he was sent direct to circuit work at St. Ives, Huntingdon. For forty-three years he rendered devoted service to his Church, chiefly in the Midlands and the North. He was an earnest preacher. His sermons were practical, impressive, and enriched by his careful study of English literature. He was very attentive to his preparation for the week-night services and the class meetings, which were well attended and much appreciated. As an administrator he combined a wide outlook with careful attention to details. Becoming a Supernumerary in 1906, he resided for four years in the Clapton Circuit. In 1910 he removed to Littlehampton, where for sixteen years he rendered effective service. He retained his interest in the work of our Church to the end, and passed home in peace on September 16, 1926, in his eighty-sixth year.

(10) Nicholas W. Thomlinson: born at Witton Park, County Durham, February 27, 1854. He was trained at Headingley, and spent about thirty-five years of his ministry in the West Riding of Yorkshire, serving his Church and his fellow-men with steadfast devotion. His ministry for the most part was exercised amongst the industrial classes. For these and for the poor he had great sympathy and love. The pastoral and missionary spirit was strong within him. His preaching was persuasive, thoughtful and practical—the result of wide reading and careful preparation. From first to last he was an ardent student and an untiring seeker after the truth. In his circuit work he showed tact and skill in handling difficult situations. He possessed an unusual power of application and industry. His life was a benediction to his colleagues, whose success gave him the utmost delight and pleasure. His kindness and generosity were unbounded; his sympathies, intellectual and practical, were warm and wide; his integrity was absolute. Unselfish service and friendship were his delight. He had a humble and tranquil mind, and enjoyed the serenity of a perfect Christian home. The closing years of his life were spent in great happiness and contentment, and he died on October 11, 1926, as he lived, with a calm and cheerful confidence in God.

(11) GEORGE H. APPLEBY: born at Hayle in Cornwall in 1850. He was a son of the late Rev. William Appleby. After leaving Kingswood School he entered a bank, where he formed business habits which were of much use to him in his ministry. At the age of seventeen he preached his first sermon; and after three years at Headingley College, was appointed in 1872 to Dursley. He closed his active ministry at Shepton Mallet in 1915, spending his remaining years in Weston-super-Mare. As a Superintendent Minister he gave diligent attention to the business and administration of his circuits. He was a loving and devoted pastor, who lavished his sympathy and tenderness on the sick, the infirm and the bereaved. As a preacher he was animated, faithful and evangelical; and he kept his mind fresh by select reading. The young people of his churches were won by his bright and genial disposition. After a somewhat protracted affliction, he died, as he had lived, in the faith of Christ, his Lord, at Weston-super-Mare, October 26, 1926.

(12) T. CHRISTMAS ANWYL: born in London, August 1, 1882. As a youth in a railway office his influence for good was both definite and strong. In the Prince of Wales Road Circuit he was a cheerful and willing worker. Accepted as a Candidate in 1905, he spent a year in the Towcester Circuit, and then entered Richmond College. Missionary enthusiasm, quiet plodding and kindness of disposition were the outstanding features of his life. He offered for West Africa in 1908, and for eight years laboured there with zeal and devotion. Invalided home in 1916 he served for four years each in the Wrexham and Chester Circuits, moving to Bolton in 1924, where after a brief illness he died on October 27, 1926. He was painstaking and systematic in all his work, a most diligent pastor and a faithful preacher. His enthusiasm for missions never waned. His early death is a distinct loss to the Church, and an irreparable one to his wife and family.

(13) J. DELANEY RUSSELL: born in Liverpool, July 5, 1878. His parents were High Anglicans, and the early training he received never ceased to influence his thought. His conversion took place in early manhood and, although his proposal to join the Wesleyan Methodist Church met with opposition, he persisted in his convictions, and after his acceptance as a Candidate he proceeded to Handsworth and Richmond Colleges for training. He was richly imbued with the missionary spirit, and went forth with enthusiasm to Western Africa to engage in what he hoped would be his lifework. After ten years of strenuous toil, during which he rendered valuable service on the Board of Education for the Gold Coast Colony, and compiled a Fanti-English dictionary, he returned to the Home work. He remained at heart a missionary to the end, and by his frequent and effective advocacy made a great contribution to the cause he loved. He was a man of charming personality, a racy and effective preacher who possessed the gift of winning his way into the hearts of young people, and will ever be affectionately remembered in his Circuits. He was seized with illness on October 28, 1926, at the Manchester railway station, and never regaining consciousness passed into his Heavenly Father's presence in the forty-ninth year of his age and the twenty-second of his ministry.

(14) JOHN EVANS (C): born at Llanegryn in Merionethshire in 1842. Blessed with a religious home and a good education, he devoted himself at an early age to the service of Christ. He began his circuit life in 1867, spent thirty-eight years in active work, and then became a Supernumerary. As a preacher he was practical and at times very powerful. Genial and kind-hearted he was a diligent and faithful pastor. He served his Church faithfully and continued to preach until his strength failed. He showed a keen interest in the Christian cause, and in the work of his own Church to the end. His kindly spirit ripened with the passing of the years, and made him a comforter and an encourager to many. He passed away suddenly but peacefully on November 13, 1926, in the eighty-fourth year of his age.

(15) OWEN J. LETCHER, D.S.O.: born June 10, 1866, at Swansea. He was educated at Queen's College, Taunton, and Wycliffe College, Stonehouse. After ten years in business life, which proved an excellent training for his future career, he was accepted as a Candidate and entered Richmond College in 1894. In 1915 he became a Chaplain and served the Expeditionary Force in France with great distinction. Not only was he a born leader of men, friendly and sympathetic, but he possessed great administrative talents. In 1917 he was appointed Deputy Assistant Principal Chaplain with the First Army Corps, and in 1918 was given the rank of Colonel and made Assistant Principal Chaplain at Rouen. He was three times mentioned in despatches, and received the D.S.O. for his work at the Battle of Cambrai. He possessed in full measure the qualities which go to the making of a good Chaplain—courageous, athletic, level-headed, with a keen sense of humour and a sound judgement. He was a wise man of the world and, withal, a real saint. He never obtruded his religion, yet every mess he lived in had a high tone—things unclean and mean hid themselves in his presence. He had a great gift for winning the confidence of men—they turned instinctively to him in their need, and none turned in vain. The tribute of G.H.Q. was, "There is no better Chaplain in France." At the Conference of 1919 he was appointed to the Superintendency of the Southampton Circuit, to inaugurate the scheme for a Central Hall; the success of this effort gave Methodism a commanding position in the town. He was one of Nature's gentlemen, his kindly manner won all hearts, and by no means the least of his charms was that ready wit and humour which saved so many difficult situations, and made him so delightful a companion to young and old. He was a manly Christian, with a kind heart, quick human sympathies. Little children loved him. Big-hearted, broad-minded, his constant purpose was to hold his people to the high challenges of Christ, to soul-culture and sacrificial service. He had great influence with those who were outside our churches. His sense of duty was rooted in devotion. His was the gentle strength given to those who wait on God and know Him in Jesus. After a short illness he died on November 22, 1926, in the sixty-first year of his age and the thirtieth of his ministry.

(16) GEORGE WRIGHT, B.A.: born at Ripon, February 22, 1864. At the age of sixteen he gave himself to God at a revival service. Trained at Headingley, he began his circuit work in 1892, and for thirty-four years exercised an honoured and gracious ministry. Gifted with great intellectual powers, his versatility and knowledge were matched by his extreme modesty, sincere humility, unfailing courtesy, and gentleness of demeanour. He was a wise counsellor, whose judgements were always weighty, impartial, and dispassionate. Many a doubting soul has been helped by his clear reasoning and robust faith. Many a circuit must recall his able leadership and statesmanlike sweep of thought and vision. In the pulpit he was a great expositor, bringing all the powers of his splendidly equipped mind to bear on the passage or doctrine in hand. He was a diligent pastor, tender and sympathetic, and a lover of little children. With his own son a prisoner of war in Germany, and for a time reported missing, he gave himself the more completely to comfort the anxious and bereaved. He had just entered with great hopefulness upon his ministry in Spennymoor when the end came. With a smile on his face he passed peacefully away on November 26, 1926, and was buried with honour in his native town of Ripon.

(17) ALBERT E. RAW, O.B.E.: born at Alford, May 24, 1862. He was educated at Kingswood, and as a boy gave his heart to the Saviour. In obedience to a clear call he offered for the work of the Ministry. After three years at Didsbury, he was appointed to Williton. The first eighteen years of his ministry were spent in circuit work. By his industry, his pulpit attainments, his pastoral gifts, his unvarying kindness and friendliness, his wide and deep sympathies, and his readiness to serve, his Ministry was made a blessing to many. It was, however, in army work, to which he devoted more than twenty years, that he found his true vocation. His first military appointment was to Shorncliffe Camp. There his robust type of manly Christianity appealed to the soldiers, who found him a wise counsellor and a true friend, and responded to his spiritual appeal and leadership. During the War his services on Salisbury Plain were invaluable. He constantly volunteered for service abroad, but in view of the importance of his work in the great training camps, he was kept on Salisbury Plain, and did not secure his heart's desire for active service until nearly the close of the War, when he was sent to France. On his return home he was appointed officiating chaplain to the London garrison, a post which he held with honour until his death on November 26, 1926. Throughout his career his great business ability was recognised. At Shorncliffe he carried to a successful issue the scheme for the erection of a Soldiers' Home. In the army he was selected for administrative work, and held the responsible position of Assistant Principal Chaplain, being mentioned in Despatches and receiving the O.B.E. His services as a member of the Royal Navy, Army, and Air Force Board were most valuable. He worked indefatigably in the interests of Kingswood School, and particularly in connection with the recent erection of the Memorial Chapel. Not only as an honoured minister, but as a true and loving friend, he lives in the thankful memory of those who knew him.

(18) THOMAS JENKIN: born at Stithians, in the Gwennap Circuit, November 5, 1844, and died at Redruth, November, 30, 1926. He was the youngest of three brothers, all of whom entered the Wesleyan Ministry, and became Chairmen of Districts. He began to preach at the age of eighteen, and was accepted as a Candidate in 1868, going first to Richmond College, and then to Headingley. His ministry was long and varied, sometimes in busy centres of industrial life, sometimes in rural areas, but always successful. He had a forceful style of preaching, thoroughly convincing, and therefore eminently successful. He had a very charming and gentle personality, to which little children could always make their appeal. He retired in 1908, and lived at Bournemouth for ten years. In 1919 he settled in Redruth, where, as long as mental and physical strength allowed, he preached regularly with great acceptance, and rendered much loving service.

(19) CHARLES BRYANT: born near Weston-super-Mare, December 18, 1847; died at Hither Green, London, December 4, 1926. Very early in life he was brought under definitely religious influences, and while still a youth was initiated in Christian service, becoming a local preacher at the age of eighteen. In 1874 he entered the Ministry, and was sent into immediate circuit work. For forty-six years he rendered faithful and effective service in town and country circuits. Throughout his life he was unswervingly loyal to the central truths of the Gospel, and with evangelical passion and power proclaimed the saving grace of Christ, winning many to God. Business acumen and shrewd understanding of human nature made him a strong and wise administrator. He was a diligent and sympathetic pastor, a genial colleague and a constant friend, who gladly gave to his Church the whole-hearted service of his life. On his retirement in 1920 he continued to preach as opportunity offered, until increasing weakness and suffering made this no longer possible. On December 4, 1926, he entered into the joy of his Lord in the seventy-ninth year of his age and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(20) RICHARD SMITH: born at Burscough, near Southport, March 25, 1855. At seventeen years of age he became a local preacher, and in 1874 was accepted as a Candidate and sent to Richmond College. In 1876 he was appointed to Antigua, and for seven years exercised an effective and popular ministry in the West Indies—the memory of which still lives. Returning to England in 1883, he "travelled" for thirty-six years, leaving each circuit in a better condition than he found it. He was much beloved, and had the confidence of the people. He had a blithe spirit, a sense of humour, a large and tolerant charity, a wonderful gift of tender and understanding sympathy, and as a friend was "true as steel." He delighted in reading the best literature and kept himself abreast of current thought. His sermons were characterised by originality and clearness of thought, persuasiveness, and beauty of illustration and diction. As a Superintendent he was capable, tactful, patient and courageous; and as a colleague frank, brotherly, loyal and sympathetic. In 1919 he retired from the active work, and settled at Ealing, where for seven years he had pastoral charge of Pitshanger Church, and was beloved and trusted by all. A few months before his death he removed to Kew Gardens, where on December 5 he was taken ill, and in the early hours of the following morning passed to his eternal reward in the seventy-second year of his life and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(21) FREDERICK CHURCH: born at Northampton, February 15, 1857. He was accepted as a Candidate at twenty-one years of age, and trained at Headingley and Handsworth. For thirty-nine years he faithfully discharged his ministry. In 1918 he was elected into the Legal Hundred. His genial and devoted work among the men of the Seamen's Mission and for the soldiers at Kingston was greatly valued, and supplied him with some of his most gratifying memories. He filled the period of his Supernumeraryship, from 1921 to 1926, with activities which would have taxed the strength and ability of a much younger man, and under the blessing of God saw the revival of the almost lapsed cause at Kingston Hill. He was honoured everywhere as a man of God, whose one purpose was the establishment of the Kingdom. An overseer of the poor, a faithful pastor, President of the Free Church Council, an earnest preacher and an affectionate and loyal colleague, his death affected all sections of the community. Up to the very end his ministry was remarkable alike for his enthusiasm and wise foresight. Like a reaper working far into the afternoon, he was taken from the very midst of his standing corn on December 9, 1926.

(22) C. SEYMOUR CHAMPNESS: born in 1870 at Burley-in-Wharfedale, where his father, Thomas Champness, was then minister. Converted in early life, he went out to China, as a Joyful News Evangelist, at the end of 1892. He delighted in ministering to working people, and did good service amongst the young men in the Wuchang Government Cotton Mill, many of whom he persuaded to attend our services. At the cessation of Joyful News work in China, he joined the Methodist Episcopal Mission, in the Fukien Province, and did ministerial work there for some years. His Primer of the Foochow Dialect has greatly helped many young missionaries in learning Chinese. After three strenuous years, he returned to his own mission, and was appointed to the Hunan District, and to the important city of Yiyang. Here his best missionary work was done. He built the largest chapel in the district, and saw it well-filled by earnest worshippers; he established flourishing Boys' Schools, and he and his devoted wife laid the foundation of the Girls' Boarding School, and a Bible School for Chinese Women. When he was compelled to leave China, through serious sickness, in 1921, he left behind him one of the most prosperous circuits in the district. Returning to the Home work, though he never recovered from his sickness, he made full proof of his ministry. He spent the last few days of his life in the Charing Cross Hospital, and there he was still about his Master's business, teaching choruses to the patients, and commending his religion to patients and nurses alike by his cheerfulness and patience. Thence he was translated—on December 14, 1926—in the fifty-seventh year of his life and the thirty-fourth of his missionary service—though only his twentieth as an ordained minister.

(23) ROBERT ODERY: born at Derby, May 13, 1844. Brought to God in early life, he offered himself as a Candidate and, after a brief term at Didsbury, was sent into the active work in 1868. For fifty-eight years he faithfully and diligently toiled for the Church he loved, and left the impress of his kindly and gracious personality upon every circuit in which he served. On becoming a Supernumerary in 1910, he settled at Pitshanger, in the Ealing and Acton Circuit, where some of his best work was done. He there created a Church where previously there was none, and founded a Sunday School, of which for years he was the sole superintendent. Large-hearted, versatile and enterprising, he combined the preaching of the Gospel with much useful public work, serving on the Board of Guardians, and on hospital committees, thus coming into constant and helpful contact with the poor and suffering, to whom he was ever a friend. Loved and respected for his high character and genial humour, constantly reading and thinking, full of interest in what was passing around him, he was a toiler to the end. He literally ceased at once to work and live, passing away in his sleep on December 14, 1926, in his eighty-third year, after fifty-eight years in the Ministry.

(24) C. Hale Hocken: born December 9, 1846, at Wall, Cornwall. A Methodist of the fourth generation, he greatly treasured the thought that his ancestors co-operated with John Wesley in establishing Methodism in Cornwall. He entered Richmond College in 1869, and in 1872 was appointed to the Mysore District. He gave twenty-one years to the evangelisation of India, and for the greater part of that period lived in Mysore City, his work being principally in the vernacular. He lived among the people, gaining an intimate knowledge of their language, religion and social customs. The older generation of Indian Christians throughout Mysore still recall with gratitude his brave championship of their rights, and his noble efforts for their uplifting. Returning to England in 1893 he was appointed to the Cardiff, Wesley, Circuit. Here, as in all his subsequent circuits, he was still the missionary. He displayed a rare efficiency both in the pulpit and in the pastorate. He was a born administrator. He retired in 1914, but on war breaking out he became Chaplain to the troops in training at Gateshead. This appointment he held during the whole period of the War, and into it he threw himself with the ardour of youth. In 1919 he removed to the Redland Circuit, Bristol. He had a forceful personality, a well-equipped mind and a genial and gracious spirit. His strong sympathies, his wise counsel and his spiritual leadership endeared him to all. He entered into life eternal on December 15, 1926, in the eighty-second year of his age and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

(25) R. Môn Hughes: born at Llaniestyn, Anglesey, February 10, 1860. He was brought up at Llangoed in the same county, where his parents were zealous workers in our Church. He began to preach at an early age, and immediately secured great influence. After a period in Didsbury College he began to "travel" in our North Wales Circuits in 1888. He spent nineteen years in three circuits, and did good service as Secretary of the Welsh Bookroom Committee. In 1923 he was elected President of the Welsh Assembly. He was a man of sterling character, a forceful preacher, a careful pastor, a capable administrator. The power of his ministry was at times overwhelming. There was in him a remarkable combination of strength and tenderness. As a friend and brother he was greatly beloved. After a serious illness he was compelled to become a Supernumerary in 1925, when he went to reside at Bangor. There he passed away December 29, 1926, in the sixty-sixth year of his age and the thirty-eighth of his ministry.

(26) ROBERT H. GUSH: born at Budleigh Salterton, October 15, 1871. Born into a godly home, at an early age he found in Jesus his Saviour and Lord. His youth was bright and enthusiastic. He entered Richmond in 1896 and in 1898 began his ministry on the Gold Coast. His gracious service was marked by much illness and many sorrows. Loved and trusted by the people, his courageous spirit was an inspiration to his colleagues. Two years on the Gold Coast, followed by two years in Sierra Leone, wore down his reserves of strength, and made necessary a term at home. After a year, he returned to the work he loved most, and for four years was a pioneer in Sierra Leone. His ministry was marked by a winning and radiant spirit, which was contagious. Four years as a Chaplain to the Forces ripened and enriched his knowledge of men and his power to serve. He was loyal to truth as it is revealed, had a deep reverence for the Word of God, wonderful power in public prayer, and glowing love for his Lord. He died in the twenty-ninth year of his ministry, on New Year's Day, 1927, a few hours after he had conducted the Watch Night Service.

(27) SIDNEY MEES: born in 1847 at Mells, in the Frome Circuit. All his life he attributed much to the Christian influence of his home, and as a boy he definitely gave himself to Jesus Christ. At seventeen he became a local preacher, and after a few years spent in educational pursuits he was accepted as a Candidate in 1868. After training at Headingley he entered upon a strenuous ministerial career of thirty-six years. Retiring from the active work in 1907, he spent the last seventeen years of his life in the Wallasey Circuit. As long as he was able he loved to preach, and his services were in great demand; when no longer able to occupy the pulpit, he still maintained a quiet ministry in the visitation of his friends. A man of vigorous and sturdy mind, he was a lifelong lover of good books. Naturally a student, he gave the utmost care to sermon preparation, and as a preacher he excelled. Always beneath his somewhat keen and critical manner there was a rich vein of sympathy and tenderness. He passed peacefully into the presence of his Lord, whose favour he had so long enjoyed, on January 9, 1927, in the seventy-ninth year of his age.

(28) JOHN CARTWRIGHT: born near Shrewsbury, April 6, 1855. His parents were devoted Methodists. Converted at an early age, he threw himself zealously into the Master's work. He was trained at Didsbury, and in 1880 was appointed to Oakham. As a preacher he was intensely spiritual and evangelical. A deeply sympathetic pastor, he gave unceasing attention to the sick, the sorrowing and the bereaved. He was greatly beloved by both old and young, upon whom his character made a deep and lasting impression. He carried the radiance of his Master wherever he went. His last eleven years were spent at Whitstable as a Supernumerary, where he utilised every opportunity for preaching the Gospel, and ceased not to labour in pastoral and in circuit work. He fell asleep in Jesus on January 27, 1927.

(29) STEPHEN G. SCOTT: born at King's Lynn, September 27, 1838. He passed to the Church Triumphant on February 1, 1927, after a successful active ministry of forty-eight years, followed by fourteen years as a Supernumerary. His parents were earnest members of our Church. Early in life he yielded himself to Christ and His service. After a period of training at Richmond he was appointed to Doncaster in 1865, where he soon won the confidence and love of his people, as he did in all his following circuits. He was a diligent pastor, kind and sympathetic, and a wise administrator, above all an earnest evangelical expositor. His interest in young men was of special value, and many were attracted to our Church and its work through his instrumentality. He read widely and wisely, and to the end his mind was fully alert to the burning topics of the day. The later years of his life were spent at Heacham in the Hunstanton Circuit, where, in addition to preaching regularly, he was a Class Leader and Morning Superintendent of the Sunday School—surely a unique position for a minister in his eighty-first year. After four days' illness he passed peacefully away.

(30) ARTHUR SHIPHAM: born November 20, 1854, at Retford, where his father, the Rev. John Shipham, was then stationed. He was at Kingswood School for seven years, and there received the impulse that determined his subsequent career. With characteristic precision he recorded that he "found peace at ten o'clock on the evening of September 21, 1868." He was then a boy of thirteen, and from that time onward he felt that he was surely called to be a preacher of the Gospel. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1874, and after a year at Richmond he was sent out to Ceylon. For thirteen years he made full proof of his ministry in the Colombo District. He returned to England in 1888, and gave thirty-one strenuous years to circuit work. Eight years ago he became a Supernumerary, and spent his retirement in Southport. His modesty and sincerity won for him everywhere the affection and confidence of our people. Every demand that the Church made upon him was met with a loyal and loving response. As preacher, pastor and administrator, he was always found faithful. And he did not labour in vain. By his unobtrusive yet fervent devotion he led many to whom he ministered into the joy and peace of a real experience of God. He was a lifelong student of theology, and until ill-health prevented him he was ever seeking to help young local preachers to equip themselves for their work. He suffered much in his last months, but did not fear death's challenge, for he knew that it could not separate him from the love of God. He died in that assurance on February 9, 1927, in the seventy-third year of his age and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(31) WILLIAM J. HOLFORD: born at Garndiffaith, Mon., August 2, 1873. From twelve years of age till twenty-five, he worked in the South Wales coal mines. After his conversion at nineteen, he exercised a wonderful influence over his fellow-workmen, winning many for Christ. When the call came to the Ministry, he set himself, with rare determination and eminent success, to overcome his early lack of educational advantages. He was trained at Richmond. Most of his ministry was spent in the Birmingham and Shrewsbury District, where he will be long remembered as a loyal friend, a strenuous worker, a devoted servant of his Church, and a passionately earnest preacher. His tender-hearted sympathy enriched all his pastoral work. Following a nervous breakdown in 1907, his life, till the end, was a fight against ill-health. In spite of this, he did his work faithfully, bearing his sufferings nobly, meeting life with a smile, never sparing himself, thinking constantly of others. He returned to the Aston Park Circuit for a second term, and there, on February 11, 1927, he entered into rest, in the twenty-sixth year of his ministry.

(32) FREDERICK E. CHING: born at Holsworthy in 1879. At ten years of age he responded eagerly to the call of Christ, and at sixteen was taken by his father, himself a popular local preacher, to preach in a village chapel. At seventeen he was a fully accredited local preacher, and at twenty-one was accepted as a Candidate. After a year in the Bridport Circuit, he was sent to Handsworth, and from 1904 till the time of his death, he served Methodism with great acceptance. A man of brilliant gifts, he spent his strength ungrudgingly. He was an eloquent and powerful preacher, and as a pastor won the hearts of the people by his generous kindness and tender sympathy. He read widely and wisely, and made good use of his reading in his sermons and speeches. A loyal and sympathetic colleague, he was greatly loved by his brethren. He radiated cheerfulness, even when suffering personally, or when he was greatly troubled by illness and bereavement in his own home. His lovable personality won him hosts of friends in all parts of the country, to whom his startlingly sudden death on February 15, 1927, was a great shock. At the very zenith of his strength, in his forty-eighth year, he passed to the other life for which he had so faithfully prepared himself in this.

(33) RICHARD LLOYD JONES: born April 29, 1850, at Ruthin in Denbighshire. He was brought up in a Christian home, and was endowed with fine gifts, both of body and mind. He began his ministry in 1872. He read widely, thought deeply, and was possessed by very strong convictions. He had a natural bent for theology, and became prominent as a staunch defender of Methodist doctrine. As a preacher he was always thoughtful and evangelical, and delivered his message with much fervour. He wrote several valuable books, and contributed largely to our periodicals. As a pastor he was kind and sympathetic. He served his own Church well in all departments. In 1905 he was chosen President of the Welsh Assembly, and in 1913 was elected to the Legal Hundred. After serving his Church with exceptional ability and faithfulness for forty-four years, he retired from active work in 1916. He was eager to serve His Master to the end, and preached very effectively on the Sunday before his death. He passed away in perfect peace at his home on February 16, 1927, in the seventy-sixth year of his age.

(34) T. LAWRY WITHINGTON: born at Newbury on October 13, 1848. He was a son of the Manse, and an old Kingswood boy. The influence of his mother was the greatest force in his early life, and of her he often spoke with gratitude and reverence. From Jersey, where he served as a schoolmaster, the Church called him to the Ministry. He obeyed with much misgiving, sometimes almost hoping that he might be rejected. But a singularly successful ministry, commenced in 1873, after three years at Didsbury, proved the call of the Church to have been inspired of God. As a scholar he was as much at home in the original tongues of the Bible as in the English versions. He carried on independent translation and research work to the end. His general knowledge was remarkably wide and accurate, and always made of practical service. Such were his gifts of exposition that he has been described as the man who made the Bible live. In all his circuits he is remembered by his remarkable ability in expounding the Word of God. His gifts were never paraded. Disclaiming the title of preacher, he referred to himself as the man who loved to talk about the Bible. He performed his pastoral work with scrupulous care, and his sympathetic nature found full expression in dealing with the sick and the sorrowing. He was a wise and careful administrator of our discipline. In every way he gave of his best, and the term "faithful" describes his whole ministry. For more than twelve years he lived in retirement at Carbis Bay, enduring much suffering with great patience, yet pursuing his studies and placing his scholarship at the disposal of all who cared to seek it. He passed home on February 17, 1927. Almost his last words, spoken after he had said "Good-bye" to his friends were, "This is triumph."

(35) Cornelius Wood: born at Stalybridge in 1843. His youth was spent in Sheffield, where he was brought under Methodist influences by a member of the Bible Class at Bridgehouses, whose invitation to the class, given on the street, led to his attendance at our services, his conversion and the beginnings of his Christian activity. On leaving Didsbury in 1868 he fulfilled a faithful, zealous and evangelical ministry for twenty years. His course was then interrupted by illness. But, after three years, he was able to resume the full work; and he continued in it with effective devotion until 1912. His pastoral work gained much from his lovable personality. In his seventieth year he became an "Active Supernumerary" in the Redditch Circuit, and laboured on with ardour and with grace until the stressful years of the War were past. Even then, although unable to preach so often, he maintained to the last his work as a Class Leader and his sympathetic visiting. His Christian character ripened into a lovely and venerable saintliness. By what he was, as well as by what he said and did, he honoured the Saviour he loved and the Church he had served so long. He passed away in his sleep on February 17, 1927, in the eighty-fifth year of his age and the sixtieth of his ministry.

(36) Robert F. Cape: born at Selby in Yorkshire, July 16, 1837. His early associations were with the Congregationalists, but his conversion took place in the Wesleyan Church, and he at once joined a Society Class. He entered the Ministry in 1860. In all his circuits he soon won his way to the hearts of the people, and was much beloved. Preaching was a great joy to him, and he invariably sought to make people realise the bright and happy side of the Christian life. His sermons were marked by variety and breadth of thought, and a passion of appeal that carried conviction to his hearers. He was a keen student, a lover of good books, and fully in touch with men and affairs. His strong personality, genial manner and deep spirituality formed a happy combination of gifts, which enabled him to exercise a wide and lasting influence for good in many ways. As a pastor he excelled, and in many of his circuits he carried out important schemes of development. Retiring from the active work in 1898, he still continued to preach with great acceptance. In 1903 he settled at Newport (Mon.), and as long as his strength permitted he rendered service of the highest value. To visit him in the closing months of his life was to see how Christian faith can triumph over physical weariness, and how the grace of God can prove itself sufficient. He quietly sank to rest on February 21, 1927, in the ninetieth year of his age, and the sixty-seventh of his ministry.

(37) THOMAS BARR: born in Glasgow, October 15, 1847. The gracious influences of a Christian home and the ministry of an Evangelical Church combined to secure his early decision for Christ. The advantages of a good education, the latter part of which was received at Wesley College in Sheffield, were turned to good account when, at the age of twenty-one, he was accepted for our Ministry. After a year as tutor at Woodhouse Grove School he entered on circuit work, to which he gave himself with untiring devotion for thirty-eight years. He combined to a rare degree the interests of the student, the fervour of an evangelical preacher and the ceaseless labour of a diligent pastor. As a well-informed and capable teacher he was popular among the young, while his deep sympathy and unfailing tact with the sick and the needy made him a great blessing in their homes, where he was a constant visitor. A man of deep spirituality, abounding in faith and love, he won the affection of his people in every circuit, and fulfilled an honourable ministry among us with exemplary loyalty to Christ and the Methodist Church. The loss of his wife, followed by that of an only son in the War, touched his later years with sorrow, but not with gloom. His experience was enriched, and his life became more beautiful as he walked with God toward the eternal home. A happy eventide, spent among relatives and friends in Sheffield, reached a peaceful close on March 3, 1927, at the age of seventy-nine.

(38) STANLEY W. M. INGERSENT: born in Exeter, August 9, 1880. The influences of a Methodist home led him to an early decision for Christ, and he began to preach in his seventeenth year. Having been accepted for our Ministry in 1901, he spent a year in the Leominster Circuit, then went to Richmond. He entered upon his public work in 1904, with high purposes and hopes. His ministry was much appreciated, especially by the most thoughtful people, in all his circuits. He did not believe in offering unto the Lord what had cost him nothing, and prepared for the pulpit with the utmost care. He was methodical in all his work, had great organising ability, was most diligent in his pastoral oversight, and perfectly reliable in the discharge of all the varied duties connected with his work as a Christian Minister. He was a man of sound judgement, free from all ostentation, and a loyal colleague, greatly beloved by his brethren. He died at Staveley, in the Chesterfield Circuit, on March 5, 1927, in the twenty-fourth year of his ministry, at the age of forty-six.

(39) ROBERT S. MAYNARD: born October 10, 1850, at Hunmanby, in the Filey Circuit. He began to preach at the age of fourteen, and in 1875 entered the Ministry. His ancestors were amongst the French aristocracy driven out of their native land by religious persecution. His Methodist connections dated back to Wesley's day, and he yielded to none in his affection for the Church of his forefathers and of his own choice. He was an ardent and intelligent champion of the temperance cause. He was a great reader, and a keen and independent thinker, with a vein of humour, but he never lost his love of that passionate evangelistic preaching which had made him a great winner of souls. He had a gift in directing men, especially young men, to Christ, and in guiding them to a strong and intelligent faith. After considerable suffering, borne with a wonderful cheerfulness and great patience, he died at Falmouth on March 10, 1927, and was buried at Breage.

(40) GEORGE E. GRAHAM: born at Stalybridge, April 7, 1885. His parents removed to Bacup, where he was converted, and began to preach at an early age. For twelve years he served as a Minister of the Methodist Church of Canada with much success. In 1924 he was transferred to the British Conference, and in 1926 was appointed to Leeds (Hunslet), having pastoral charge of Waterloo Road. He gave himself to this difficult charge with inspiring devotion, and had the joy of witnessing considerable progress. The end of his life came with startling suddenness on March 31, 1927, in his forty-second year. He had an attractive personality, with a gift of drawing young men into Christian fellowship. He was a painstaking pastor, whose tender sympathy made him a welcome and helpful friend.

(41) G. GILBERT MUIR: born at Liverpool, March 5, 1867. His parents were members of the Presbyterian Church, but as a youth he was attracted by the warmth of Methodism, and in 1888 was accepted as a Candidate, and entered Didsbury College. He soon gave evidence that he was richly endowed with those gifts which make for a successful ministry, and by diligent cultivation of them he obtained a high position amongst the preachers of his day. His early success at Hastings and New Cross gave evidence that he was capable of great things, his aggressive evangelism leading to remarkable triumphs. His greatest work was done in Bradford, with which city his name will always be associated. His fourteen years' superintendency of the Bradford Mission and his presidency of the Eastbrook Brotherhood constitute a brilliant page in the history of Methodism there. His zeal for Christ knew no bounds, and his labours for the extension of His Kingdom were tireless. In the pulpit and on the platform he revelled in the exposition of the Word of God; his fine imagination, his dramatic gifts, his sense of humour were all utilised to bring sinners to the Saviour. He preached Christ and Him crucified in season and out of season, and was glad to spend and be spent for the souls of men. In the more intimate associations of his ministry he revealed a tenderness and a strong human sympathy which will never be forgotten by those who shared his triumphs, and these qualities made him also a means of great blessing to those who were afflicted or distressed. Eager, courageous and sincere, his ministry was fragrant and beautiful as well as strong. After his years of strenuous toil in Bradford, he removed to Brighton, where after a year illness overtook him. After much suffering patiently borne, he "fell asleep" in the early hours of Palm Sunday, April 10, 1927, in the thirty-sixth year of his ministry.

(42) EZEKIEL BURTON: born in 1833, the youngest of ten children, whose father died in early life. He was converted under the Rev. John S. Workman, entered Didsbury College, and commenced his ministry in 1861. Whatever he found to do he did with his might. He built new chapels at Mold, Hednesford and Tamworth, and effected important improvements and cleared off burdensome debts at other places. He was ably supported by his wife, whose sweet dignity and devotion to their large family were the admiration of all. He most conscientiously administered Methodist doctrine and discipline. He had much organising ability, persuasive power and buoyant humour. As a preacher he was original and natural, drawing upon his own observation and experience, and illustrating his subjects from his keen study of human nature and wide travel. He was particularly alive to beauty in scenery, poetry and oratory. He retired in 1891, but remained a robust truth-seeker, a lively critic and a confident Christian. He died on May 3, 1927, at the age of ninety-three.

(43) SAMUEL FOGG: born at Tong Fold, Bolton, October 29, 1843. His parents were earnest Methodists, and in his early youth he was led to dedicate himself to God. The thoroughness of his conversion soon became manifest by the whole-hearted manner in which he threw himself into all kinds of Christian work. Men saw the seal of God upon him, and in 1868 he answered the Church's call to enter its Ministry, in which he fulfilled a course of fifty-nine years. He loved preaching, and for this he made most diligent preparation. His delivery was fluent and forceful, and in every circuit he did the work of a true Evangelist. He was a lover of books, who kept himself well abreast of present-day thought and literature. As a pastor he was much beloved, and in every circuit his memory was cherished for his frank and kindly character, his faithfulness and worth. After a short but painful illness, borne with heroic endurance and complete submission and trust, on May 7, 1927, he exchanged mortality for life at Northenden in the eighty-third year of his age.

(44) JAMES R. SHARPLEY: born in London, July 21, 1851. He was converted in the United States, but returning home after a short stay, became a local preacher in the Lambeth Circuit, was accepted as a Candidate in 1871, and, after training at Headingley, was sent to Pateley Bridge. For forty-six years he exercised a ministry that was eminently fruitful. His thoughtful and earnest preaching—chiefly of an expository character—was blessed both to the edification of believers and the conversion of the unsaved. He was diligent in pastoral work, and his charm of disposition made him everywhere welcome. His administrative gifts were of a high order, and were of great service to his circuits. His wide reading enabled him to influence beneficially the young people of his congregations. By his colleagues he was greatly beloved. After retiring from the active work he went to live in Belfast, where he passed peacefully to his reward on May 7, 1927, in the seventy-sixth year of his age and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(45) ZADOK ROBINSON: born at Thornton, near Bradford, June 25, 1836. He was converted as a boy, and from that early consecration he never swerved. His faith in God and his love for the Saviour were the deepest features of his life and character; and the strongest conviction of his soul was the abiding presence and guidance of the Holy Ghost. As a young man he heard the call to service and answered it, entering the Ministry in 1860. At Richmond he came under the influence of Dr. W. F. Moulton, for whom he retained a deep reverence and love, and formed a lifelong friendship with W. L. Watkinson, a fellow student. The first twenty years of his ministry were spent in South Africa, chiefly in native work. Those happy crowded years he always looked back upon as the most fruitful of his ministry. To the end of his days the Mission-field held his love and interest, and to one who sought his advice he was heard to say, "If I had a dozen lives I would give them all to Foreign Missions." He returned to England in 1880, and spent twenty-six years in the active work, chiefly in the North of England. He was a man of wide sympathies and deep culture, but a vigorous fighter in the cause of truth and righteousness. To the end of a long life he maintained his intellectual vitality and his attractive power, particularly to young people. He died at Grange-over-Sands on May 9, 1927, in the ninety-first year of his age and the sixty-seventh of his ministry.

(46) ROBERT STEVENSON: born July 11, 1851. He received his training at Didsbury College, and in 1880 was appointed to Ventnor. Thirty-seven years were spent in the active work, nineteen of which he spent in Lancashire. In 1916 he retired, but rendered service in several circuits as a Supernumerary. He was loyal to all the Church's interests, and devoted to Wesleyan doctrines. As a preacher he was helpful and interesting, earnest and evangelical. In the various circuits where he travelled, his work was greatly appreciated. He was a diligent worker, a capable administrator and a faithful pastor, who brought help and comfort to the homes of the people among whom he laboured. He was sympathetic, kind and generous, and worked to the best of his ability almost to the last. He passed quietly to his rest at Burslem on Sunday, May 15, 1927.

(47) ERNEST OGDEN: born at Liverpool, February 29, 1864. He was educated in England and in Germany. He passed the Intermediate Arts examination at London University, and was trained for the Ministry at Headingley. He desired to be a foreign missionary, but was designated for home service. He preferred wide country circuits, and never complained of weather or of distance. Naturally quiet and reserved, he was often under-estimated by those who had no opportunity to discover the cultured mind and kindly spirit concealed by an apparently nonchalant manner. He was a sound and thoughtful preacher whose words brought help to many, especially to the bereaved and perplexed. He was conscientious in the observance of our discipline and never spared himself. Nearly two years ago he overstrained his heart, and though he resumed his work was unable to withstand an attack of influenza last spring, and passed away on May 24, 1927, in the thirty-ninth year of his ministry, at the age of sixty-three.

(48) WALTER H. GREGORY: born at Exeter, October 9, 1853. He owed much to the influence of a godly parentage. In 1875 he was accepted as a Candidate, and entered Didsbury, being ordained in 1881. For forty-three years he gave himself to his vocation with a zeal that made the smallest detail significant. The sincere and forceful simplicity with which he delivered the Gospel message was the characteristic note of his sermons. He excelled in pastoral visitation, and is remembered to this day in the homes of the people with deep affection. He was a man of many gifts. He had a passionate love for old Methodist literature, and an expert knowledge of Wesley's writings and hymns. After a laborious ministry, spent largely in the North of England, he was appointed to Dover in 1911. Sittingbourne claimed him for six busy years of the War period, and then in 1920 he retired to Dover as a Supernumerary, where many friends welcomed him. The last years of his life were spent amid increasing pain and weariness, but the end came peacefully, and he passed to his reward on May 25, 1927.

(49) WESLEY J. EVANS: born in an honoured Methodist family at Birmingham in 1853, and brought up at Walsall. He owed much to the influence of a godly mother, a woman of much devotion, sagacity and charm. Being accepted for the Ministry, he spent the year 1877 in a circuit, and then took the full course at Didsbury. Owing to persistent ill-health he became a Supernumerary in 1887. For forty years he resided in the Walsall (Wesley) and Wednesbury Circuits, visiting the sick and preaching as his strength allowed. He held fast to Biblical truth in the spirit of early Methodism; the "old paths" were for him the "good way." He lived in the spirit of prayer. God gave him his desire to pass speedily from service below to service above; for he preached at Darlaston on May 29, and on June 1, 1927, "was not, for God took him."

(50) T. FEATHERSTONE WATSON: born at Bishop Auckland, May 10, 1863. He was educated in our day school and at Borough Collegiate School, Rotherham. Accepted as a Candidate, he was trained at Richmond, and in 1890 was appointed to the Transvaal, where for ten years he exercised a faithful and fruitful ministry. He returned to England in 1900, and spent twenty-one years in the Home work. He was a quiet, earnest, sensible man, a thoughtful preacher, a loyal colleague, and a helpful pastor; a man "found faithful" on every side of his work. In 1921 he became a Supernumerary, and spent his last years in New Zealand, where he died on June 3, 1927.

(51) JOHN JOYNSON: born at Red Street, a small mining village in Staffordshire, in 1886. The child of devout parents he early became conscious of the love of his Saviour, and while still in his early teens began to preach. A sermon by the Rev. Alexander Maclaren led him to offer himself as a Candidate in 1908. After a year at Swindon as a non-collegiate he went to Didsbury, where he proved himself a diligent and successful student. At Attleborough he found his life partner, who later nursed him devotedly through a period of supernumeraryship. At the Conference of 1926 he was appointed to Spilsby, but was soon stricken down again, and after a lingering illness "slept in Jesus" at Tivetshall on June 21, 1927. He had a fascinating personality, an alert mind, a gift of clear and incisive utterance. His interests were varied, and his sermons were enriched with the fruits of wide reading. The sparkle and humour of his speech made his pulpit ministrations attractive to many, while his private conversation was a delight to his friends. He had the courage of his convictions, and could champion an unpopular cause. His long suffering never dimmed his faith. Almost his last words were that God had always been perfect in His dealings with him.

(52) S. HENRY HALLAM: born at Sheffield, March 5, 1855. His father was a local preacher in the Carver Street Circuit, Sheffield, from which Circuit he himself was accepted as a Candidate in 1875. After a year on the President's List, he entered Headingley College in 1876. His ideals of service were such as to call forth the best that was in him, and this he gave to the uttermost. His gracious ministry, his high-toned character, his wise administration and pastoral oversight, endeared him to colleagues and people alike. Preaching was his passion; his heart was ever near the Cross of Jesus; and his love of the best in books, in men, and in life as a whole, added greatly to the attractiveness of his sermons, which were rich in spiritual power and fruitful in result. His ready sympathy and kindness of heart, his loyalty to his brethren, and especially his home-influence, revealed a Christian life of much charm and strength. After forty-five years of service he retired in 1923, and peacefully passed to the Homeland on July 1, 1927, at the residence of his son, at Bexhill-on-Sea, in the seventy-third year of his age and the forty-ninth of his ministry.

(53) JOHN W. HARTLEY: who was born at Snaith on September 15, 1853. Deeply convinced of his call to the Ministry, he was accepted as a Candidate in 1875, and after training at Didsbury went out to do garrison work in Malta in 1877. He was appointed to Newbury in 1879, and for thirty-three years fulfilled a faithful and loving ministry until the state of his health led to his retirement in 1909. He was an expository and practical preacher. His retiring nature made him prefer quiet forms of service, but in administrative work he was careful and efficient, and won the esteem of all by his unobtrusive goodness. A pleasant vein of humour was joined to a Puritan sense of duty and of the seriousness of life. Those who knew him most intimately esteemed him most highly. Fidelity was one of his outstanding qualities. On July 7, 1927, at Weston-super-Mare he passed suddenly into the presence of the Lord whom he so long loved and served.

(54) CHARLES J. CUMBERWORTH: born at Newark, Notts, December 29, 1880. As a boy he left that district, with his parents, to reside in Manchester. From childhood a Methodist atmosphere pervaded his home life. His conversion was not characterised by any sudden crisis, but he seemed to grow into the kingdom of God. He was educated at the Manchester Grammar School and Owen's College. Upon leaving school he became a pupil teacher and won a Queen's Scholarship. After a time the desire of his earlier years to be a minister became a conviction and a "call." He was accepted as a Candidate and sent to Richmond. He loved the work of preaching and possessed outstanding gifts that contributed to his effectiveness in the pulpit. He had the pen of a ready writer, as well as the tongue of a ready speaker. By his association with groups of men outside the Churches he wielded a great influence amongst business and professional men who never heard him preach. In these relationships he never lost sight of the fact that he was a Christian minister. He took a deep interest in the young life of the Church. All this he continued to do until his strength was exhausted. His patience and his courage in affliction were wonderful. After two years of grievous suffering he passed peacefully to his rest, trusting in Jesus, on July 8, 1927, in the forty-seventh year of his life and the twenty-third of his ministry.

2. In Ireland, twelve:

(1) JOHN GOOD: born at Curragh, near Bandon, December 18, 1843. He owed much to the influence of godly parents and a Christian home. Early in life, in a Sunday School, he gave himself to the service of God. In due course he became a Candidate, and in 1864 was appointed to his first circuit. Throughout the succeeding years he laboured, in season and out of season, for the extension of the Kingdom of God. He seemed to live for one thing only, to bring sinners to Jesus Christ. He availed himself of every opportunity. He spoke to wayfarers on the highway as well as to members of his congregations, to the farm lad who cared for his horse and to the maid who waited at table about spiritual things. When he returned to his old home he used to visit all classes and creeds to make known to them the unsearchable riches of Christ. He was a man of prayer. The eternal world was very real and very near to him. Often on his way to his appointments he would turn aside into some sheltered nook and there pour forth his soul in prayer and praise. There was a freedom and joyousness about him that was contagious. He had a great love for the brotherhood, and all confidences were sacred with him. A saving sense of humour often helped him when he had specially difficult tasks to perform. As a preacher he was direct and practical, ever emphasising the fundamental truths of the Gospel. When he became a Supernumerary, he went to reside in the United States of America; but he did not remain idle. He is said to have been the first to obtain a permit from the mayor to preach in the streets of New York. Policemen were sent to protect him; but while he thanked them, he assured them that their presence was not necessary, and that God would be with him. His confidence was verified, for he was never molested while engaged in this holy toil. He fell asleep in Jesus at his home in Florida on June 10, 1926, in the eighty-third year of his age and the sixty-second of his ministry.

(2) JAMES BRADSHAW: born at The Maze, Hillsborough, December 17, 1840. Early in life he entered upon a business career in Belfast, and while there came to the knowledge of God and the enjoyment of the love of Christ. Soon after, he was led to identify himself with Methodism, and began to take an active part in Christian service. In 1863 he was accepted as a Candidate by the Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Conference. As a pastor he was ever amongst his people, rejoicing in their joys and sharing their sorrows; many found in him a friend in time of need. He loved little children, and wherever he went the boys and girls welcomed him. As a preacher his style was expository, pre-eminently lucid and forceful. He was an omnivorous reader, and retained his passion for books almost to the very end. Everything he read was criticised, weighed and judged, and he accepted only that of which his judgment approved. When convinced that a cause was right, it received the devotion of his mind and heart. At the Conference of 1905 he retired from the active work, but was ever ready to assist his brethren by preaching or lecturing. During the closing months of his life his strong character was sweetened and mellowed, as if God were gently preparing him for the home-call. On August 5, 1926, that call came, and he entered into rest in the eighty-sixth year of his age and the sixty-fourth of his ministry.

(3) ROBERT M. KER: born at Newtownbutler, December 15, 1872. A son of the late Rev. Robert Ker, he owed much to the gracious saintliness of his parents. Whilst a boy at the Methodist College, he contracted a serious illness, and for months his life was despaired of. It was while listening to his mother praying in an adjacent room for his recovery that he was led to seek Christ as his Saviour. Soon the conviction, that the life so unexpectedly given back must be wholly devoted to the service of Christ, deepened into certainty; and when his strength was restored he began to prepare himself for the Christian Ministry. Accepted in 1894, he was sent as a supply to Clonakilty, where his work was greatly esteemed. In 1895 he became a student at the Methodist College, and in the following year was appointed to Donacloney, in the Moira Circuit. Two years later he found the real sphere of his life's work in the Belfast Central Mission. At once he gave indications of the possession of those gifts which in subsequent years made him such a power in the service of God and man. In 1904, at a very early age, he succeeded the Rev. R. Crawford Johnson, D.D., as the Superintendent of the Mission, and thereafter, with consummate skill and rare devotion, he developed and guided its work. He was Secretary of the Methodist Church in Ireland from 1922 till 1926, when, by an almost unanimous vote, he was elected Vice-President. He was wise in counsel and prudent in action. With gifts of heart as marked as those of mind, he was tender and sympathetic in his relations with his fellows, and especially with baffled and sinful men. He was at his best when dealing with hearts crushed by sorrow. Solicitous for all in need, the care of the destitute and orphan children was his chief delight. As a preacher he was intensely evangelical. The characteristic notes of his preaching were an insistence on the sufficiency of Jesus Christ to meet all life's problems, a sympathetic understanding of men's difficulties, and a wistful, tender appeal. He became seriously ill after a Presidential visit to Cork. A week later this brave soldier and valiant leader passed into the immediate presence of his King on October 27, 1926, in the fifty-fourth year of his age and the thirty-second of his ministry.

(4) William Crawford, M.A.: born in Dublin, April 17, 1843. He belonged to a home in which high principles, literary culture and Methodist loyalty were united with sincere godliness. He was educated at the old Wesleyan Connexional School, and later at Dublin University, of which he was a scholar and a distinguished graduate. At a series of services conducted in the Centenary Church by the late Bishop William Taylor, of California, he yielded himself to the service of Christ, and was received in 1869 into the Ministry. As a preacher and pastor he won the affection of his congregations in an unusual measure. His genial friendliness, unflagging zeal, engaging frankness and humble devotion to the Lord Jesus Christ made him a successful Methodist preacher. In 1893 he was set apart to initiate the work of the Dublin Central Mission, and in that difficult sphere showed himself a true friend of the homeless, the sick and the needy. In open-air work, which he continued to carry on until within a few months of his death, he had a peculiar facility in gaining the ear and the heart of his fellow-countrymen. In 1898 he was appointed Principal of Wesley College, Dublin, where for eleven years gratifying and substantial progress was made under his principalship. His influence on the students was notable. For a few years he went back to circuit work, but failing health compelled him to become a Supernumerary in 1916. He passed the eventide of his life amongst his friends in the St. Stephen's Green Circuit, preaching when he had strength, and enjoying the affection and respect of all who knew him. He was twice Vice-President of the Conference. He will be remembered as a man of intellectual energy, of independent character, of dauntless courage, and of simple, unaffected piety. His devotion to his Saviour gave him a deep and living interest in his native land, and everything that made for the good of Ireland called forth his enthusiasm. After a short period of illness death came gently to him on December 14, 1926, in the eighty-fourth year of his age and the fifty-eighth of his ministry.

(5) Henry H. MacMahon: born at "The Rawe," co. Fermanagh, November 12, 1852. Nurtured under spiritual influences, he early surrendered himself without reserve to the claims of Jesus Christ. During a remarkable revival on the Brookeborough and Fivemiletown Circuit he began work for the Master, and soon heard and responded to the call to preach His Gospel. He entered the Ministry of the Primitive Wesleyan Methodists in 1876. For fifty years in country, town and city he laboured abundantly, with painstaking fidelity and success. In all his circuits he won and retained the confidence and affection of the people. As a preacher he was expository, practical and helpful. As a pastor he was pre-eminently useful. Having been called to drink deeply and often of sorrow's cup, he was to those in trouble a true son of consolation. He loved little children. He was wise in counsel and tactful in dealing with difficult problems and people. Every interest committed to his charge was safe. He was a man of prayer. His faith, though sorely tested, was not found to waver. Doubts he sometimes had regarding himself; God's love and wisdom he never questioned. He was a great lover of his brethren, whose fellowship he enjoyed to the full. For seven and a half years as a Supernumerary he was in charge of our work in Skerries, where he laboured with the same interest and fidelity which had characterised his previous ministry. He preached for the last time at Drogheda on December 12, 1926. The week following he became ill, and passed peacefully to the Father's home on January 11, 1927, in the seventy-fifth year of his age and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(6) Hugh Moore: born at Drumclamph, in the Castlederg Circuit, May 15, 1839, and died at his son's residence in Greystones, co. Wicklow, February 15, 1927, having passed his eighty-seventh birthday. His religious ancestry dated back to the days of John Wesley, who preached in his great-grandfather's garden. He came of a stalwart stock, both his father and mother being almost centenarians. When he was a young man of about twenty-five his definite religious life began. His conversion was the fruit of special services, but it actually took place as he knelt by the wayside, at midnight, under the silent stars. He gave himself at once to the Master's service, and was subsequently appointed a local preacher. In 1866 his long ministry of more than sixty years began. His work throughout was in parts of the field needing patient and strenuous labour, which he gave ungrudgingly, and in several places he was privileged to gather precious harvest sheaves. He was a man of exceeding humility, gentleness and sympathy. The devotion of his spirit was evident to all. Those who knew him best loved him most. Fourteen years of his long supernumeraryship were given to the care of the church in Rathdrum.

Then he spent four or five years of well-earned rest in Greystones. In the end he went quietly and gladly home to meet his Master, whom he had long loved and well served, in the sixty-first year of his ministry.

(7) THOMAS MORAN: born at Maryborough, April 15, 1858. The eldest son of the Rev. Thomas Moran (A), he in early years yielded to the gracious influences which had been about him from his birth, and made choice of Jesus as his Saviour and King. Educated at the old Connexional School, Dublin, he entered the Royal College of Surgeons, Ireland. Soon, however, there came to him the inward call to separate himself to the Gospel of Christ. In obedience to it he offered himself, was accepted as a Candidate, and entered the Methodist College, Belfast. From its beginning his ministry was characterised by great devotion, tireless energy, quiet persistence and marked fidelity in every detail; whilst the transparent simplicity of his character and the geniality and kindliness of his disposition won for him everywhere abiding friendships. Tactful in all his dealings, he exercised, sometimes in very unlikely places, a remarkable influence, and not infrequently accomplished that which others had deemed impossible. It was a peculiar joy to him to minister to the lambs of the flock. Zealously he sought to win them for Jesus, and with untiring ingenuity endeavoured to train them in Christian service. In the Ministry and amongst the local preachers are those who, in the days of their youth, were, through his efforts, won for Christ. When appointed Chaplain at the Curragh Camp in 1889 he found his life's work, that with which his name will ever stand associated. By successive Commanders-in-Chief of the Army in Ireland he was thanked for all that he did for the soldiers. For the last twenty-five years of his life he was the Wesleyan Chaplain to the Naval and Military Forces in Queenstown and at Berehaven. During that period thousands of men came under his influence. He served them with a love and devotion which have not often been equalled. Nor should it be forgotten that he was the first Free Church Minister to obtain the right to hold Parade Services on the vessels of the Royal Navy. He passed to the Church Triumphant on February 15, 1927, in the sixty-ninth year of his age and the forty-seventh of his ministry.

(8) THOMAS WALMSLEY: born in Tulnaglug, near Irvinestown, co. Fermanagh, January 28, 1863. His was a spiritual heritage: both his grandparents and parents were active in the Lord's work. He was led to decide for Christ in Kesh, at special services conducted by the late Rev. John Johnston; and almost immediately after he became a class leader and local preacher. His efforts to do good were greatly appreciated in his home circuit. In 1888 he entered the Methodist College, Belfast, as a student. He made the most of this opportunity, thoroughness in study going hand in hand with deepening piety. Thence he went forth, in 1891, to almost thirty-six years of a rich and fruitful ministry. One high and enduring passion constrained him—love of Christ and of those for whom He died. To serve his Lord and to win souls, he toiled with unfailing zest. As a preacher he was well equipped, and maintained his studies until the end. He combined a loving and gentle spirit with strength of purpose. Tact and courage were found in him in no small degree. He brought many to Christ, and led a large number of young men to become local preachers. All that failing strength permitted he attempted to do until on February 23, 1927, he calmly fell asleep in Jesus in the sixty-fifth year of his age and the thirty-sixth of his ministry.

(9) PIERCE MARTIN: born in Killorglin, co. Kerry, December 31, 1851. In Tralee, when seventeen years of age, and under the influence of the late Rev. John S. Bassett, he was brought into the Kingdom of God. In the year 1873 he entered the Ministry of the Irish Methodist Church. His quiet effectiveness, unswerving fidelity, refined, unsullied demeanour, tender pastoral care, and helpful administration of the Bread of Life proved that he walked closely with God. He was in turn Foreign Missionary Secretary, Foreign Missionary Treasurer, and in 1915 Vice-President of the Conference. His people and even those who only met him in the street loved him, and never in any act or hour was he unworthy of that love. In him there was the rare distinction, not of one outstanding gift obscuring others, but of beautifully balanced gifts, in gracious equipoise all matured and harmonised, in his saintly character. Deep personal sorrows did not cloud his spirit. He brought a strange tenderness to bereaved households. He sat where they sat, and in his company the sad of heart soon found themselves thinking of God. In the whole circle of his activities the same sweet influence was diffused, and by the beauty and lovableness of his Christlike character he made it easy for men to believe in God. Never was the Christian fruitage of his life more lavishly bestowed than when he became a Supernumerary. The years of his retirement were rich in the upgathered love of his friends, richer still in his outpoured thought and prayer and devotion for any stricken home and every phase of his Master's service. Our Church mourns him widely, but rejoices in every remembrance of his name. After months of distressing infirmity, in a moment "he was not, for God took him." His deliverance came on April 22, 1927, in the seventy-sixth year of his age and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(10) WILLIAM J. YOUNG: born at Castlederg, May 22, 1875. He was blessed with a godly parentage, and from early youth surrounded with religious influences. Brought up under such conditions, he was enabled to take a definite stand on the side of Christ while in his early teens. It was an easy progression from this stage of his experience to that of a wholehearted surrender to the service of the Master, and when called to devote himself to the work of the Christian Ministry he was not disobedient. He was accepted as a Candidate by the Conference in 1901, and was received as a preacher on trial in the following year. For twenty-five years he toiled unremittingly, and wherever he went he created fragrant memories. At the Conference of 1925 he went to Newtownbutler, where he soon made his influence felt. He was a good preacher, an untiring pastor, a wise administrator, and a sincere friend. In the early days of 1927 his health began to fail; but his activity did not abate, and, disregarding medical cautions, he literally wore himself out in trying to "serve the present age." He was one of those unobtrusive, quiet workers who build into the Kingdom of God gold and silver and precious stones. The end came suddenly on April 23, 1927, when he passed into "the joy of the Lord" in the fifty-second year of his age and the twenty-fifth of his ministry.

(11) Charles A. Cronhelm, B.A.: born at Sandymount, co. Dublin, December 30, 1863. Very early in life he gave himself to Jesus. He was educated at the old Connexional School and graduated at Trinity College, Dublin. Under the influence of his father, a Dublin solicitor and a local preacher, he decided to offer himself for the work of the Ministry. In 1887 he was sent to the Carlow Circuit, and for thirty-three years rendered devoted and earnest service. He was a diligent pastor, faithful and candid in speech, kindly and quiet in manner, and withal of a most guileless disposition: all these qualities endeared him to the people to whom he ministered. Many have borne testimony to his power and influence in the pulpit. Wherever he went he was trusted and respected. Another marked feature of his life was his friendliness towards people of other creeds; his own kindliness and lovableness called forth their affection. Owing to failing health, he became a Supernumerary in 1920, but this did not lessen his interest in the work of God. He was always delighted to hear of the many activities of our Church, and rejoiced in its successes. After a long illness he passed peacefully away at Dumfries, on May 22, 1927, in the sixty-fourth year of his age and the fortieth of his ministry.

(12) William S. Carey, B.A.: born in Belturbet, August 15, 1857. A child of the manse, while yet a lad at school he began to seek the Kingdom of Heaven. He was educated at the Methodist College and at the Queen's University, Belfast, where he graduated. He held the Pakenham Scholarship at the Queen's College, Belfast. Accepted as a Candidate in 1879, he began his long career of gracious, ministerial service, which extended over forty-eight years. He was a diligent student of the best literature. His sermons were marked by true culture, and were delivered with a grace of diction that won its way to the hearts of his hearers. In every circuit he made hosts of friends, uplifting the men and women, whose lives he touched, not only by his spoken words but by the silent eloquence of his character and also by the unceasing diligence of his pastoral care. At the Conference of 1925 he was appointed to Monaghan, where he gave of his very best and ripest in the Master's service. The end came on May 27, 1927, as he was sitting by his fireside reading. Almost in a moment the hand of God touched him, and he passed within the veil, in the seventieth year of his age and the forty-eighth of his ministry.

3. In our Foreign Missions, eleven:

(1) Thomas R. Picot: born in Alderney, June 5, 1847. At an early age he was brought to Christ, and became an earnest Christian worker. At sixteen he began to preach, and was received as a Candidate before he was twenty-one. In 1868, after a year's training at Richmond College, he responded to an urgent appeal for volunteers for the Gold Coast, and for thirteen years he laboured there with marked success. Soon after his arrival, the Chairman of the District died, and he filled the position until he left West Africa. In 1881 he became Chairman of the Hayti District, which post he held for thirty-eight years, so that his service as Chairman of Missionary Districts covered an unbroken period of fifty years. His interest in the people of Hayti was deep, and his work there will long be remembered. Possessing considerable means, he laboured for years without salary, and his large-hearted generosity relieved many financial burdens and cheered many hearts. His preaching, both in French and English, was evangelical and full of fervour. Many souls were led to Christ by his ministry. Retiring from active service in 1919, he spent his eventide in Jamaica, where he continued to preach until two weeks before his death in Kingston on October 1, 1926, in the eightieth year of his age and the fifty-eighth of his ministry.

(2) MARTIN L. PORTUPHY: born in 1874. He was a native of Big Addah, in the River Volta district of the Gold Coast. He was educated at the Accra Wesleyan School, and early in life dedicated himself to Christian service. As a teacher-catechist and afterwards as a minister he exerted a great influence for good over the people with whom he lived. He possessed many sterling qualities which made his labours effective and abiding. Conscientious work, unflinching discipline, earnest preaching, and faithfulness in all pastoral duties were the gifts by which he is chiefly remembered. His last years were spent in the Dodowah Circuit, where, amid the esteem and affection of his people, he answered his Master's call on October 3, 1926, after sixteen years of loyal and devoted ministry.

(3) RASAMOY BISWAS: who was pre-eminently an evangelist, and in town or village an enthusiastic preacher of Jesus Christ. He had considerable gifts as a preacher and open-air speaker, but was best known as a singer and writer of hymns. To him and his father, the late Rev. Nipal Chandra Biswas, the whole Christian Church in Bengal owes a debt for the work they have done in providing her with hymns for Church worship and religious songs for evangelistic purposes. He was probably most at home at the head of a band of young men, leading through the crowded streets of Calcutta a procession singing his own compositions, and in this way preaching Jesus to his fellow-countrymen. He spent the greater part of his ministry in Calcutta, and worked with enthusiasm and considerable success in the difficult task of keeping together a scattered community and building it up as an independent and self-supporting Church. He had a personality which was especially attractive to youth, and he was not only successful in training the sons of Christian parents as useful members of the Church, but also in helping several non-Christian young men to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. As years passed, he developed a fuller and riper Christian experience, and our loss is a heavy one. He passed home on October 16, 1926, in the twentieth year of his ministry.

(4) ARTHUR KIRBY: born in Leicester, July 16, 1863, and converted in early youth. He was trained at Didsbury, and in 1888 was appointed to the Leeward Islands. His sermons were enriched by wide and careful reading, and his attractive personality endeared him in an unusual way to those among whom he laboured. Ten years in the Leeward Islands, where his fame as preacher and pastor still lingers, were followed by four terms in Lancashire circuits. In 1912, at the request of the Missionary Committee, he became Superintendent of the Coke Circuit, Kingston, Jamaica. He was greatly loved by the people of the West Indies. His sermons, like his ministry, kept their freshness and charm to the end. He lived a buoyant life to the last hour, exchanging it quickly and quietly, at the Master's call, on October 31, 1926, in the thirty-ninth year of his ministry.

(5) HENRY J. NORRIS: born in Belfast, in 1868, of Church of Ireland and Presbyterian stock. As a young man he joined the Imperial Army, and was sent with his regiment to the Cape of Good Hope. In Cape Town he was soundly converted during an open-air service, and at once began to witness for Christ. After obtaining his discharge from the Army, he entered into business, and at Durban joined the Wesleyan Methodist Church. Before long he was busily engaged as a local preacher in both Native and European work, and proved himself a successful winner of souls. Later he joined the Staff of the Transvaal and Swaziland District, and after serving for two or three years as a lay helper, was accepted for work in that District in 1907. He was a man of simple and fervent piety. As a preacher he was evangelical and expository. His really wonderful knowledge of the Bible stood him in good stead both in the pulpit and Bible-class work. As a preacher in the open air he excelled. His ready wit, his incorrigible cheerfulness, above all, his genuine sympathy, made him a welcome visitor in the homes of our people, and opened the way for much useful service amongst the young. The last few years of his life were marked by personal suffering and tragic sorrow, but he maintained throughout a strong faith in God and a truly Christian fortitude. He entered into rest on December 3, 1926.

(6) LEUNG CHAK SHANG: born of non-Christian parents near Fatshan, about sixty-eight years ago. He and his twin brother, also one of our ministers, were converted at Canton through the preaching of the Gospel. The brothers entered into a compact to pray for their father and mother every day, and more than twenty years subsequently both parents were baptised. After being employed as a local preacher at Fatshan, he was ordained in 1910, and served in both the Fatshan Circuits and also in the Sunwui and Tanshuihow Circuit. The prayers of this humble and godly man have had much to do with the consolidation and extension of our work in the great city of Fatshan. He was a loyal colleague, a devoted pastor, and one of the humblest of men. Service for others was his life. He fell asleep in our hospital at Fatshan on January 9, 1927.

(7) GILBERT G. WARREN: born at Exeter, February 20, 1861; died at Ch'ang Sha, January 16, 1927. He grew up under the holy influences of a good Methodist home. After three profitable years at Didsbury he volunteered for China, joining David Hill in Wuchang in 1886. His whole manhood was given for the Chinese. Strong in opinion and speech, full of determination, utterly unsparing of self, he was a man of mark, alike among English and Chinese. In 1907, when Hunan, formerly the focus of anti-Christian hate, was formed into a Methodist District, he was chosen to be its first Chairman. Tramping many hundreds of miles to evangelise its area, he set the mark of his impetuous and breezy personality upon its development. In time he influenced some of the leading gentry of the province to become Christians. His fearless honesty and frankness forced high mandarins to walk warily lest they should encounter his rebuke. Of recent years no one in Central China carried more weight with Chinese or foreigners than he. A great reader and thinker, he was theologically powerful, and abreast of modern thought. Whether in great missionary gatherings or in Chinese pulpits, his sermons were eagerly listened to. His last years were spent in training the rising ministry, inspiring them with his own broad and intense evangelism. When he came home in 1924 he was under a violent tropical disease. He refused to give way, spent himself in much missionary advocacy, was elected into the Legal Hundred, and stubbornly went back to China at all costs. He went on fighting the disease, taught students from his bed, and finally died at the very moment when his city was being seized by the invading Cantonese Army. His body lies claiming the land for the Saviour whom he loved with his whole heart.

(8) George Golightly: born at Weardale, January 30, 1855. Removing to Crook, he became a Sunday School teacher and local preacher, and in 1878 was accepted as a Candidate. After three years at Richmond he was appointed to the Mowbray Circuit in the Cape District, and then laboured for many years in Stellenbosch. He threw himself whole-heartedly into the work, commenced to study the Dutch language, and acquired that interest in, and affection for, the coloured people which he never lost. He was greatly beloved and esteemed. He had a gentle and lovable disposition, and his nature was entirely free from any trace of smallness, meanness, and unworthy ambition. He sought no rewards or honours; but when, by the vote of his brethren, he was elected to high office, he discharged his duties with courage, fidelity and courtesy. He was an active temperance worker, and diligent in his endeavour to rescue the coloured people from the evils of strong drink. Beneath a quiet exterior he possessed independence of judgment and strength of conviction to an exceptional extent. He was a loyal Methodist, a faithful exponent of the distinctive message of our Church, wise in administration, sympathetic and helpful in the discharge of his duties as a pastor. His spiritual life was earnest and sincere, his piety calm and deep. He was called to pass through heavy domestic sorrows, but throughout all he manifested a spirit of beautiful resignation and an unwavering confidence in the wisdom and goodness of God. During a year's leave of absence in England Christ's call came to him at Barnard Castle, where, on January 12, 1927, he passed away in the seventy-third year of his life and the forty-seventh of his ministry, leaving behind him the memory of a noble, unselfish, and devoted life.

(9) Asirvatham Paramanandam: born in Tinnevelly in 1872. The son of a minister of the Church Missionary Society, he owed much to the great Church founded in South India by that Mission. He was appointed a teacher in the Wesleyan Secondary School in the Civil and Military Station at Bangalore, and from this and the Girls' Schools of the Mission he continued to reap fruit of grace to the end of his life. Answering both the inward and outward call to the Ministry, he was accepted in 1910; and after a year's training was appointed to the Tamil Circuit, in which he had served so greatly as a layman. Under his care it developed into one of the most important of the self-supporting circuits in South India. He was deeply loved and trusted by all its members, and the impress of his unfaltering faith and evangelistic fervour has been stamped upon the lives of hundreds to whom he ministered. His character was marked by a rare charm and gentleness of spirit, by glowing zeal, and by alert and practical wisdom. Hindus and Muhammadans, as well as Christians, sought his counsel and comfort in trouble. He had intimate knowledge of those committed to his care, a trust he reverently kept to the end. It was commonly remarked of him that he exemplified the "heavenly gladness" which his name implied. His face shone with inner light. He was never so happy or so inspired as when preaching the Word, whether in the pulpit or by the wayside. The breath of his life was prayer. There was no matter, however small, which he trusted to his own energy or wisdom; he laid it all before his Master, and followed His leading. Soon after the District and Provincial Synods, serious symptoms developed, and he was taken to hospital. In his last sleep he was heard to murmur: "The pure in heart shall see God," and on March 1, 1927, in quiet assurance he went to his Master.

(10) Mui Man-Ping: born near Mong Fu Kong, South China, about sixty-five years ago. His father was one of the first members of our North River Church; a man of strong character, who gathered round him a small band of young men, whom he taught to study the Scriptures and preach the Gospel. Amongst this group of "early disciples" Man-Ping was outstanding in ability and enthusiasm for preaching. After a brief training in the Theological School at Canton he returned to the North River as a Catechist, and in 1899 he was ordained. His whole ministry was spent amongst his own people, whom he sought earnestly to win for Christ. A loyal and lovable colleague, a fervent and often impressive preacher, he helped to lay the foundations and build up the Chinese Church in the Shiuchow Circuit. He suffered much hardship for the Gospel's sake, and in perils oft steadfastly carried on the work. The last years of his ministry were darkened by many sorrows, which he bore with grace and courage until he entered into rest March 7, 1927.

(11) John Allsopp: born at Beeston, March 19, 1837, and brought up at Castle Donington. At the age of sixteen he began a business career at Newark-on-Trent, where he was converted and entered upon Sunday School work. Trained at Richmond, he was one of six men who volunteered to go to Fiji, but was appointed in 1861 to labour amongst the native tribes of Natal. With the exception of five years among the Pondomisi, all his missionary labours were given to the Zulu people, and the whole of his ministerial life of nearly sixty-six years was spent in the Natal District. His interest in the welfare of the native people was intense. He understood them, and they felt he was their friend, and sought his help and counsel to the last. He preached in the Zulu language, and at one time published a small Zulu Grammar. His ministry was an energetic one, and by his mediation on behalf of Faku's widows their lives were saved when, according to Pondo custom, they would otherwise have been killed at the time of that chief's death. He rendered loyal service at Edendale during the Zulu War of 1879, and formed Mission Stations at Izopo and Cato Ridge. On his visits to England he frequently lectured on behalf of missionary work. He was an earnest Methodist preacher, exact and careful as to details, methodical in all his ways. As a Supernumerary he zealously carried on missionary work at Cato Ridge. His last twenty-six years were spent in Durban, where, after a brief illness, he entered into the life eternal on April 17, 1927, in the ninety-first year of his age and the sixty-sixth of his ministry.

(2) Under the scheme for the Re-organisation of Probationers' Studies adopted by the Conference of 1921, the functions of the Connexional Board of Examiners previously appointed are fulfilled by the Panel of Directors of Studies and the Board of Correspondence-Tutors.

The scheme in detail is re-printed below.

3. Revised General Regulations:

(1) The subjects for study in each of the first three years of Probation shall be four in number, viz.:—(A) New Testament, (B) Old Testament, (C) Theology, in the third year especially Methodist Doctrine and Polity, and (D) Church History, or Philosophy, or the Study of Social Problems. In the fourth year the subjects shall be three in number, viz.:—(A), (B), and (C), omitting (D).

N.B.—The subject under (D) shall be chosen by the General Secretaries, in consultation with the College Tutors, and shall be consecutive during the years of Probation. All Probationers shall be required to include in their studies the prescribed subjects in the Old and New Testament. All Probationers who have passed through the Institution shall take these subjects in Hebrew and Greek respectively, unless they are exempted on the authority of the College Staff. Application for such exemption must be made at the beginning of the Connexional Year.

(2) In these subjects, in place of the system of independent study with a final examination, each Probationer shall study under the guidance of a Tutor in each subject, who shall direct his work and test it at suitable intervals,

(3) The report of the Connexional Committee to the May Synods shall be based on the reports of the Tutors in the various subjects, care being taken to secure an adequate estimate both of the amount and quality of the work.

(4) The scheme shall be worked out as follows:

I.—A small panel of Directors of Studies shall be appointed, to consist of four groups, with three members for each (one for each of the four subjects of study). The heads of groups dealing with subjects (A) (B), and (C), shall be Tutors at the Theological Institution, and the Tutors shall be expected to take this duty in rotation. For each of the subjects under (D) a Tutor at the Institution shall be asked to serve continuously from year to year, with two Assessors.

Their duty shall be to prepare a series of four study-papers before September in subjects (A) to (C), and of three study-papers before Easter in subjects under (D), and to forward to the General Secretaries.

II.—A large Panel of Correspondence-Tutors shall be appointed, whose work will be:

(a) To receive the study-papers from the General Secretaries, and to despatch a study-paper to each Probationer in subjects (A) to (C) at intervals of about six weeks, commencing in September. In the case of subjects under (D), the three study-papers shall be distributed between Easter and Conference, during the first three years of Probation only.

(b) To receive the work of each Probationer at the end of each period of six weeks, examine and mark it, register the mark, and return to the Probationer with suitable guidance.

(c) To return their reports to the General Secretaries as soon as possible after March 31, or, in the case of subjects under (D), after June 30.

III.—In this connection the work of the General Secretaries will be:

(a) To receive the study-papers from the Directors of Studies, and despatch them to the Correspondence-Tutors.

(b) To receive the reports from the Correspondence-Tutors in April (or for subjects under (D) in June), and to present them to the General Committee, which will report to the Synods as at present.

(c) To receive the recommendations of the Synods and present them to the General Committee.

IV.—The system here outlined shall apply to all Probationers except in cases where, in the judgment of the Secretaries (in consultation with the College Tutors), the older method of an annual examination without tutorial guidance may appear preferable in one or more subjects.

The arrangements for the selection of examiners for Probationers who take advantage of section IV shall be at the discretion of the General Secretaries. The date for the Examination under this Section is March 30, 1928.

(5) The marks of all study courses shall be returned in percentages and not in grades. The result for each Probationer shall be determined according to his average percentage in the whole study course in each subject. An average of 80 per cent. or over shall entitle to First Class Honours, one of 65 per cent. or over to Second Class Honours, while an average of under 35 per cent. shall involve failure in the whole course.

An Honours List shall be prepared each year, showing the names of Probationers who have attained Honours in the ordinary study courses, and also of those who have taken special subjects and have obtained an honours mark in the examination.

(6) The September Synod of each District shall appoint a District Secretary, and an examination shall be held under his supervision for Probationers taking advantage of paragraph IV above, care being taken in selecting a place of examination to reduce as far as possible the travelling expenses involved.

Every Probationer may claim third-class railway fare to and from the place of Examination. These and other expenses of the Examination, with the exception of local expenses, shall be defrayed from the Connexional Fund and the Theological Institution Fund.

(7) Students who are called out of College into the Home work during the Connexional year shall not take the Probationers' Studies, but shall be examined in subjects fixed by their College staff, and the results shall be reported to the Discipline Committee.

(8) Probationers who have not been to the Institution shall be assigned to Study Groups according to their attainments at the discretion of the General Secretaries. Those who have not previously studied Greek shall be expected to begin the study of New Testament Greek grammar, with a few verses of translation. The Secretaries shall have power to exempt from this for sufficient cause, substituting two English Biblical subjects. The marks obtained shall be reported to the Allocation Committee. From these Probationers a fourth (D) subject will not be required.

(9) The General Secretaries shall send to the May Synod a detailed report of each Probationer's work for the year. This shall show the subjects taken, the marks obtained in each, and the place in Honours, if any, together with any observations made by the Examiners or by the General Secretaries. The District Secretary shall receive these reports and present them to the Synod, and subsequently transmit to the General Secretaries the Synod's resolutions upon them.

(10) The General Secretaries shall prepare a report to the Conference. This shall contain a brief account of the year's work, with reports on all cases of failure from whatsoever cause.

(11) A Probationer who is prevented by illness or other imperative cause from sending in his answer-paper to his tutor or tutors at the appointed time shall send, at the time, a medical report to Rev. J. Grange Radford, B.D., who will inform the tutors; this medical report should indicate the length of time during which the Probationer is to be exempted from his studies. Should a Probationer, taking advantage of paragraph IV. above, be compelled to be absent from his examination, he shall communicate with his Chairman, and send to the General Secretaries a detailed statement of the work done in preparation for it, together with a full medical report; and the General Secretaries shall report their judgment to the Synod.

(12) Should any Probationer have been prevented from completing the year's work more than once during his probation, on account of health, the General Secretaries shall send to the Designation Committee, after the May Synod, a full report of the case, with a medical statement, and the Designation Committee shall report to the Conference on the question of his ordination.

(13) In the case of every Candidate for Ordination, a record of the whole of his studies during probation shall be prepared by the General Secretaries, and sent to the Synod, showing the average percentage each year, and place, if any, in Honours, together with general comments on the record as a whole. Should this record be deemed by the Secretaries unsatisfactory, they may recommend to the Synod that the candidate's ordination should either be deferred or made conditional upon his passing certain examinations before Conference. The number and character of such examinations shall be determined by the Synod upon the Secretaries' recommendation.

(14) When part of any candidate's probation has been spent upon the Foreign Field, the report to the Synod shall include a report supplied by the Missionary Secretaries as to his work while abroad.

(15) A report on English Probationers on Foreign Stations in their fourth year shall be presented to the Probationers' Oversight Committee by the Missionary Secretaries.

(16) Book List.—The Probationers' Oversight and Examination Committee is instructed to prepare, and, at the beginning of the Connexional Year, to send to each Probationer, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Probationers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the Scriptural Doctrine of the Church. The General Secretaries shall send to each Probationer, early in April, a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XXXVIII. What are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Candidates for the Ministry?

A. 1. For the GENERAL REGULATIONS see Summary, pp. 189–214.

Preliminary Examination.

2. The two papers of the Preliminary Examination shall be set and marked by Examiners nominated yearly by the Sub-Committee of Studies of the Theological Institution. The Examiners for this year are the Revs. H. Maldwyn Hughes, M.A., D.D., Conrad A. Skinner, M.A., W. Harold Beales, B.A., and Frederick C. Gill. Two Examiners shall be appointed for paper (a) and two for paper (b). The questions shall be submitted in proof to three Ministers appointed year by year by the Conference. The following are appointed for this year: Revs. James R. Batey, Arthur Myers, and George B. Robson.

The answers shall be written in the presence of the Superintendents of the Circuits by which the Candidates are recommended, or of one or more other Ministers. This Examination shall be held on Wednesday and Thursday, April 4 and 5, 1928.

N.B.—(1) Candidates who have passed an examination qualifying for admission to any British University, or an equivalent Examination, are exempt from the Preliminary Literary Examination.

(2) Superintendents should send at once to Rev. A. E. Sharpley, B.A., B.D., Glenwood, Ringstead Road, Sutton, Surrey, the full names and exact addresses of Candidates recommended by the Quarterly Meeting.

Sermons.

3. Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synod for the hearing of each Candidate by three Ministers of the District, other than those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; such Ministers shall suggest a mark and immediately forward their Report to the Rev. W. Percy Hutton, B.A., Wesley Manse, New Road, Willenhall, Staffs.

July Committee.

4. (i) The Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry who have passed the District Synods shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury, respectively. This Examination shall be held in the week following Sunday, July 8, 1928.

(ii) The Minister appointed by the Welsh Assembly shall be a Member of the Northern Section.

(iii) The Revs. Arthur E. Sharpley, B.A., B.D., and W. Percy Hutton, B.A., General Secretary of the Theological Institution, are re-appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

(iv) All communications relating to Candidates must be addressed to the Rev. Arthur E. Sharpley, B.A., B.D., Glenwood, Ringstead Road, Sutton, Surrey.

(v) The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution and the Rev. J. Wesley Hart are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary for the Didsbury Branch and the Rev. John W. Colwell to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

Educational Standard for Candidates.

The attention of Superintendents and prospective Candidates for the Ministry is called to the fact that ordinarily the Conference does not accept Candidates who do not reach a definite educational standard. The examination to test the Candidates' ability to reach this standard shall be the Literary Paper set at the July Committee. A "pass" representing 50 per cent. of the total marks possible will ordinarily be required.

The Conference is strongly of opinion that the prescribed standard is a modest and reasonable requirement from men who offer themselves for the Christian Ministry, and considers it inadvisable to lower the standard. Recognising, however, that cases arise of Candidates whose failure to meet the required educational standard is more than counter-balanced by remarkable gifts in other directions, the Conference resolves that the above regulation shall not be so applied as to prevent either the acceptance of such Candidates or their being sent to the Theological Institution.

The Literary paper shall consist of:

(1) An Essay (20 marks).

It is recommended that not more than half an hour should be spent on this subject.

(2) Fifteen other questions of which any eight, but eight only may be taken (10 marks each).

(a) Five on English Literature (set books).
(b) Three on English Grammar and Analysis.
(c) Three on English History (a set period).
(d) Four on Arithmetic.

On this paper 50 per cent. shall be required.

Candidates who have a good secondary education, but have not matriculated, shall, before their Oral Examination, be interviewed as to the use they have made of their educational opportunities, and a report of the interview shall be presented to the July Committee.

Set Books for 1928:

(a) English Literature: Shakespeare's Tempest, and Bacon's Essays (Everyman's Library).
(c) English History: J. R. Green: A Short History of the English People, Chapters 6 and 7, "The New Monarchy and the Revolution."

For 1929:

(a) English Literature: Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice, and Lamb's Essays of Elia (1st Series).

(c) English History: J. R. Green: Chapter 10 and Epilogue, in enlarged edition.

N B.—(1) Candidates who have passed an intermediate examination for a degree at a British University, or who, within a period of five years before their candidature, have matriculated, or passed an examination recognised as exempting from matriculation at any British University, shall be exempted from the July Literary Examination (Minutes, 1921, p. 258).

(2) The attention of all Candidates is called to the largely increased facilities for matriculating or passing some equivalent examination, and they are strongly urged to avail themselves of these opportunities before making their offer.

Designation Committee.—1. The Conference appoints a Committee, consisting of the President and Secretary of the Conference; one Secretary of the Oversight of Probationers Committee; five Ministers chosen by the Home Mission, the Foreign Missionary, and the Theological Institution Committees, respectively; one Minister by the staff of each College from among themselves; one by the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly; together with the following seven Ministers chosen by the Conference: Revs. Robert Bond, J. (Summary, pp. 229–30.)

Methodism and Freemasonry.—1. The Conference receives the report of the Special Committee (Minutes, 1926, p. 325).

2. The Conference adopts the following resolutions and directs that they be printed in the Minutes:

> (1) While the Conference has full confidence in the loyalty of the Ministers who are connected with the craft of Freemasonry, as in that of all the Ministerial Brotherhood, to the doctrines which give to our Lord Jesus Christ His place as the Divine and only Saviour of the world, and which furnish to His Church the motive for the proclamation of His Gospel to all mankind, it recognises that Freemasonry, in its ritual and official language, is of a purely Theistic nature, asserting simply the creative activity of God as the Architect of the Universe, and the moral obligations of honesty and kindliness on its members; that the distinctive faith of Christianity can find no expression in its formulæ, and that the Christian message of salvation, through faith in Christ, as the basis alike for home and for foreign evangelisation, is wholly incompatible with the claims which have often been put forward by Freemasons, both in writing and in speech.

(2) In view of these considerations, and also of the fact that there does appear to be a possible danger to the Brotherhood of the Ministry from membership in another and very close brotherhood, with aims and convictions of a very different nature, the Conference, while making no pronouncement as to the propriety of the connection of our Ministers with Freemasonry, urges upon all Ministers who may see fit to become members of the Masonic body, or of other religious but non-Christian organisations, to devote special care to maintaining the faith once delivered to the saints.

3. The Conference discharges the Committee.

4. The Conference also receives the Report of the Committee on Methodist Law, held over from last year (Pastoral Agenda, 1926, pp. 169–70; Daily Record, 1927, pp. 60–2), and adopts it in the following form:

Terms of Reference: "To consider whether the holding of Masonic Services on our Trust Premises is in harmony with the provisions of the Model Deed."

(1) The Conference adopts the following Statement of the legal position and directs that it be printed in the Minutes:

A. As to a CHAPEL settled on the Trusts of the Model Deed, the Deed provides:

(i) That the Trustees must permit and suffer the Chapel, with its appurtenances, to be used, occupied, and enjoyed, as and for a Place of Religious Worship, by a Congregation of Protestants, of the people called Methodists, in the Connexion established by John Wesley, and for public and other Meetings and Services held according to the General Rules and Usage of the people called Methodists.

(ii) Then, as to the persons who are to be permitted to preach in the Chapel and to "perform the usual acts of Religious Worship therein," the Deed goes on to say that they must be as follows:

(1) Persons duly appointed by the Conference;

(2) Persons duly permitted or appointed (according to the General Rules and Usage of the People called Methodists) by the Superintendent Preacher, for the time being, of the Circuit in which the Chapel is situated, and

(3) Persons duly appointed " by any authority lawfully constituted by the Conference," or under or by virtue of the Trust Deed, to fill up a vacancy or vacancies at any time occasioned by the death, removal, or suspension of a Preacher or Preachers in or during any interval between the sittings of the Conference.

(4) It is of great importance to note that the clause in the Deed which indicates the Persons who are to be permitted " to preach and perform the usual acts of Religious Worship " in the Chapel ends with the words : " and in no case any other person or persons whomsoever."

(iii) As to the times " and manner of the various services and ordinances of Religious Worship which are to be observed and performed in the Chapel," the Deed provides that " they shall be regulated according to the General Rules and Usage of the people called Methodists," and that they must be in conformity with such Rules and Usage.

(iv) Further the Deed provides that no Person or Persons shall be permitted to preach God's Holy Word, or to perform any of the usual acts of Religious Worship in the Chapel or Premises, who shall maintain, promulgate, or teach any Doctrine or Practice contrary to what is contained in Wesley's " Notes on the New Testament " and his first four volumes of " Sermons."

B. The question referred by the Conference concerns not only Chapels but Trust premises settled on the Model Deed. In case a SCHOOLROOM should be erected on the Chapel Site, the School has to be conducted " under such Government, Orders, and Regulations as the Conference have directed or appointed, or shall from time to time direct or appoint " ; and also, subject always to the above proviso contained in the Deed respecting Doctrine.

(2) The Conference re-affirms STANDING ORDER No. 205 (Minutes, 1927, p. 368) : " The Conference resolves that our Trust premises shall not be let for any public religious meeting unless the Superintendent of the Circuit concerned be able to accept general responsibility for the teaching which shall be given " (Summary, p. 64).

(3) The Conference is of opinion that the holding of Masonic Services upon Methodist premises is highly inexpedient, but directs that whenever requests are received for Masonic Services to be held on Methodist Property, the following safeguards must be complied with :

(i) The consent of the Superintendent who shall be responsible for the Programme of Service, which must be submitted to him.

(ii) Such Service must be of a truly Christian character; must not be used for the advocacy of Freemasonry; and in Prayers and Hymns there must not be, by deletion or otherwise, a denial of the name of Christ as Saviour and Lord.

(4) Wherever a Masonic Lodge desires to rent our Premises for the holding of its private meetings, STANDING ORDERS Nos. 203 and 206, touching the holding of meetings of other organisations must be observed, viz: (a) "Where there is no other public building available for the purpose"; (b) "Provided that the use of the property for our Church purposes be not interfered with, and that a suitable rent be paid to the Trustees"; and (c) "care being taken to avoid any action which would render the Trust Property liable to rates." (See Minutes, 1927, pp. 366–8, and Summary, pp. 63–7.)

Methodist Union.—1. The Conference receives the Report (Pastoral Agenda, 1927, pp. 81–9).

2. The Conference of 1926 having declared in favour of the Union of the Wesleyan, Primitive, and United Methodist Churches, on the basis of the amended Scheme of Union, and having sent it as provisional legislation to the May Synods of 1927, and the Synods having approved of the provisional legislation by a majority, the Conference confirms the legislation.

3. In view of the decision of the Representative Session with reference to the approach to Parliament for the Enabling Bill, the Conference in its Pastoral Session reserves its judgment until the next Conference.

4. The Conference having confirmed the Provisional Legislation in favour of the Scheme for Methodist Union declares that the Union of the three Methodist Churches is now the avowed policy of the Pastoral Session of the Conference. In view, however, of the divergence of opinion which still exists on the question, the Conference, while gratefully recognising the splendid service rendered by the existing Committee, instructs the Committee to consider during the year whether any method of approach to Union can be devised which may lead to greater unanimity. The Conference resolves to reconstruct the Committee so that all views may be represented.

In view of the fact that there are those who have not yet voted for Union, the Conference authorises the Committee to take such steps as it may deem wise to confer with them.

5. The Conference adopts the various suggestions in their pastoral aspects upon the unification of Departments and Districts, the codification of Conference procedure, the interchange of pulpits, and inter-communion services contained in the Report (Agenda, 1927, p. 83).

6. The following is the Committee, viz.: The Ministerial Members of the Representative Committee, together with the Revs. Wesley

T. Bosward, J. Arundel Chapman, M.A., B.D., Thomas Heppell, A. Gordon James, Joshua Holmes, Rowland Major, Howard Watkin-Jones, M.A., B.D., Herbert B. Workman, M.A., D.D.

The Rev. E. ALDOM FRENCH is the Convener.

Revision of "Liverpool Minutes." (Minutes, 1924, pp. 299–30; 1925, pp. 275–6; 1926, p. 326.)

1. The Conference receives the Report upon the Liverpool Minutes (Pastoral Agenda, pp. 93–104), including the suggested Alternative Service (see Appendix V), together with the Reports of the Pastoral Session of the May Synods.

2. The Conference adopts the Report in the following form:

(1) The Conference desires to emphasise the great importance of the Conversation on the Work of God in the Pastoral Session of the Synod. The Synod provides a most valuable opportunity to the united Pastorate of the District for consultation on those matters which concern the spiritual efficiency of our Church and the progress of the Kingdom of God. This opportunity should be fully used, even if it means the devoting of a second day for the Pastoral Session, in order to secure unhampered attention to our supreme business.

(2) The Chairman of the District may introduce the Conversation on the Work of God by an appropriate Address instead of the reading of either the Liverpool Minutes or the use of the alternative Service.

(3) After several attempts have been made to revise the Liverpool Minutes, the Conference resolves that this historic Document (dealing with the details of our Pastoral duties and reminding us of the spirit in which our Fathers gave themselves to their great work) shall be retained in its present Abbreviated Form in our Summary of Law and Discipline, and that it should still be read in the Circuit Ministers' Meetings in September.

(4) Subject to revision, the Conference adopts the RESPONSIVE SERVICE OF PRAISE AND PRAYER as a fitting Introduction to the Conversation on the Work of God, it being understood that according to Recommendation (2) above, its use be made optional. (See Appendix V.)

(5) The Conference revises STANDING ORDER No. 137 as follows:

> READING OF THE LIVERPOOL MINUTES.—These Resolutions in the Abbreviated Form, with the introductory Statement prefixed to them, shall be read at the Ministers' Meetings in September.
> Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry concerning the due observance of this Requisition (see Summary, p. 266), and adds a new STANDING ORDER (No. 100) in the Section "Synods," entitled CONVERSATION ON THE WORK OF GOD, embodying Resolutions (1), (2), and (4) above.

3. The Conference receives the Report upon the question of the greater usefulness of the Pastoral Address (Pastoral Agenda, pp. 104–6), and refers it back to the following Committee for further consideration during the year:

The PRESIDENT, the EX-PRESIDENT, and the SECRETARY of the Conference; Revs. K. Harley Boyns, John Elsworth, R. Newton Flew, M.A., B.D., R. Douglas Moore, Dr. John G. Tasker, and F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.

Women and the Ministry.—1. The Conference adopts the following resolution:

> In view of the declaration of the Pastoral Session of the last Conference (Minutes, 1926, p. 472) that the serious practical obstacles to the admission of women to our Itinerant Ministry, interposed both by our organisation and traditions, do not admit immediately of any complete solution, and realising that the importance and difficulties of the subject demand for it further consideration, this Conference remits the whole question to a Committee, directing it to explore the possibility of suggesting such arrangements as shall secure larger opportunities for the exercise of the gifts of consecrated women in the service of Christ, and the further development of the existing Diaconate of women in the Ministry of the Church. Such Committee shall confer, if desired, with the Committee appointed by the Representative Session.

2. The Conference appoints the following Committee: The Ministerial Members of the Committee on Women's Work appointed by the Representative Session, together with Revs. R. Moffat Gautrey, G. E. Hickman Johnson, John H. Litten, William F. Lofthouse, M.A., D.D., George W. Thorn, John P. Veall.

Rev. James Critchison is the Convener.

Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—The following are appointed the Committee for the ensuing year (see Standing Order 25): Revs.

W. HODSON SMITH, President of the Conference; W. RUSSELL MALTBY, D.D., Ex-President; Dr. J. Alfred Sharp, Book Steward; John Telford, B.A., Editor; G. Beesley Austin, Dr. W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., Joseph Dixon, William H. Hart, Marshall Hartley.

Rev. JOHN TELFORD, B.A., is the Convener, to whom Obituaries should be sent immediately after approval by the Synod.

SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

Retirement of the Rev. S. George Tope.—In granting the request of the Rev. S. George Tope to become a Supernumerary, the Conference expresses its devout thankfulness to Almighty God for his work and witness in China through the long period of forty-six years. He was amongst the pioneer missionaries of our Church, enduring hardship and confronting danger, and from those early days down to the present time he has increasingly won the confidence and love of the people to whom his life has been given. The Conference counts itself honoured to have him in its brotherhood, and prays that he may be spared for years of happy and useful retirement.

South African Conference Provisional Legislation.—The Conference sanctions the PROVISIONAL LEGISLATION OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE as submitted to the Representative Session (see Minutes, p. 95).

Sunday Trading.—The Conference greatly deplores the increase of Sunday trading in all parts of the country, believing that the needless continuance of trading on Sundays has a demoralising influence upon the minds of children and young people, tends to the secularisation of the Lord's Day, is an unfair restriction of the liberty and leisure of shop assistants and other employees, and is inequitable to the general body of traders. The Conference earnestly requests the Government to promote without delay legislation which will substantially restrict the volume of Sunday trading.

Convener of Memorials Committee.—1. The Rev. JAMES R. IRVING is appointed Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions for the Conference of 1928, and as such is an ex-officio member of the Pastoral Session of that Conference.

2. The Convener is instructed to divide the District Suggestions into two lists, according to their Subjects: (1) For the Representative Session, and (2) for the Pastoral Session, of the Conference; and to submit the lists to the President before they are entered in the Agenda; (3) The Memorials from Circuits shall be printed and circulated throughout the Conference.

3. The Secretary of the Conference shall furnish the Convener with a List of all matters referred for consideration to the several Departmental Committees; and the Convener shall obtain the several decisions of the said Committees thereupon, and present them to the following Conference.

Convener of Scrutineers.—The Rev. J. Henry Maddock is appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for all offices, at the Conference of 1928; and as such is an ex-officio member of the Pastoral Session of that Conference.

Conference Precentor.—The Rev. Howard Watkin-Jones, M.A., B.D., is appointed to act as Precentor at the Conference of 1928, and as such is an ex-officio member of the Pastoral Session of that Conference.

Assistant Secretaries.—The Conference re-appoints the Rev. Robert Bond (Assistant Secretary), the Rev. Edwin Finch (Record Secretary, who as such is an ex-officio member of the Conference), and the Revs. John Telford, B.A., and Thomas H. Barratt, B.A. (Letter-writers).

Journal Secretaries.—The Conference re-appoints the Rev. J. Oliver Hornabrook, O.B.E., as Journal Secretary, and the Rev. Walter J. Morgan as Assistant Journal Secretary, who are thereby ex-officio members of the Conference.

The Pastoral Address.—The following Committee is appointed to prepare the Pastoral Address for the Conference of 1928: Revs. Frederick Platt, M.A., D.D., Albert E. Salmon, T. Horrobin Kirkman.

Nominations for Election into the Legal Conference to fill vacancies caused by death, or absence for two years without dispensation. (See Minutes, 1923, p. 293.) The following Ministers are nominated: Revs. Arthur Rudman, Eric S. Waterhouse, M.A., D.D., J. Arundel Chapman, M.A., B.D., Harold B. Rattenbury, B.A., Frank Cox, Edgar C. Barton, R. Moffat Gautrey, James R. Irving.

Extended Ministerial Appointments.—The Conference adopts the following resolutions in respect of future procedure:

(a) That the Resolution of the Conference of 1923 (Min., 1923, p. 277) declaring that "it will be necessary in future to scrutinise these proposals much more carefully and that only in exceptional cases can extended appointments be considered" be re-affirmed.

(b) That whilst in no way interfering with the usual official invitation given in March, Circuit Stewards shall in future notify after the September Quarterly Meeting their intention to give an invitation for an extended term, and shall be requested to forward any such proposal in writing to their Representative on the Stationing Committee.

(c) That the Stationing Committee be required to meet in the month of October to examine each application and to make a recommendation, in an advisory capacity to the Circuits and Ministers concerned (Minutes, 1925, p. 281).

Reports of Candidates' Sermons.—The Conference instructs all Ministers appointed to hear the Trial Sermons of Candidates for the Ministry that the Reports be much briefer and that they should be written or typed on foolscap.

Dispensations to Probationers.—1. In granting Dispensations upon the recommendation of the Stationing Committee to certain Probationers to administer the Sacraments, the Conference directs that a "Form of Dispensation" signed by the President shall be supplied year by year to each Probationer to whom a Dispensation is given.

2. The Conference remits the whole question again to the Stationing Committee with a view to the adoption of some general principles for guidance in respect of these applications in the future (Daily Record, 1927, p. 69).

The Relation of Children to the Church—Junior Membership.—The Conference adopts the following addendum to the Regulations upon the Relation of Children to the Church (Summary, p. 26, par 4):

> Where it seems advisable to the Minister and the Leaders' Meeting concerned, the Classes so formed may be Junior Classes, their Members being counted accordingly as Junior Members. It is specially recommended that this course should be followed in connection with the Devotional Section of the Junior Wesley Guild. (Agenda, 1924, p. 324; Daily Record, p. 29.)

Re-appointment of Ministers to Former Circuits.—The Conference resolves that the Standing Order, which requires that the term during which a Minister must be absent from a Circuit before he can be re-appointed shall be three years, be suspended in all cases of Extended Appointments made at the present Conference (Daily Record, 1927, p. 66).

Candidates at Universities.—The Conference resolves that in future all requests from accepted Candidates, for permission to reside in Circuits in order to continue their studies at a University, shall be submitted to the Designation Committee at its June Meeting, and that provisional sanction be obtained from that Committee for such arrangements.

South Wales Coalfields—Interchange of Ministers.—Upon the recommendation of the South Wales Coalfields Commission (Agenda, 1926, p. 81), the Conference directs:

(1) That the English and Welsh Ministers stationed at Tredegar and Brynmawr respectively shall change with each other on one Sunday in every quarter.

(2) That, wherever possible, bi-lingual Ministers shall be appointed to the English Circuits in Wales.

Ministers' Contributions to the Worn-Out Ministers' Fund.—A. The Conference endorses the following statement:

The Conference of 1918 passed the following Resolution:

The Conference notes with much satisfaction that the Ministers in a period of great stress have subscribed the full amount (£2,527) that the Pastoral Session promised on their behalf.

The Conference adopts the following scale of contributions based on the stipends of Ministers:

Stipends of over £400 to contribute £4 4s.
" " £360 to £400 to contribute £3 3s.
" " £320 to £359 " " £2 2s.
" " £280 to £319 " " £1 15s.
" " £240 to £279 " " £1 10s.
" " £200 to £239 " " £1 5s.
" less than £200 to contribute 15s.

The Conference directs that Superintendents of Circuits collect the contributions of their colleagues, and forward them to the Secretary of the Connexional Funds Office.

From this Resolution it is clear that the contributions of the Ministers were of a purely voluntary character. The reference in the Minutes to the proportion which every Minister was expected to contribute was not intended to impose a levy, but to suggest a fair distribution of the amount promised by the Ministers. The direction that the Superintendents should collect the contributions of their colleagues and forward them to the Secretary of the Connexional Funds Office was simply a convenient arrangement for carrying out the Resolution at which the Ministers had already arrived, viz. to contribute £2,527 a year to help the Fund in a time of special need.

The Conference therefore declares that the contribution is altogether voluntary and is in no sense a compulsory assessment.

B. The Conference is grateful to the brethren who, by their voluntary efforts, have contributed £3,391 to the Fund during the past year. It is satisfied that it will be sufficient if the total so raised in the coming year reaches £3,050, and approves the following as an apportionment which will meet the case:

The scale of contributions approved by the Conference for the coming year is as follows:

Stipends of over £400 to contribute £3 15*s.*
,, ,, £360 to £400 to contribute £2 15*s.*
,, ,, £280 to £319 ,, ,, £1 11*s.* 6*d.*
,, ,, £240 to £279 ,, ,, £1 7*s.*
,, ,, £200 to £239 ,, ,, £1 2*s.* 6*d.*

The Conference requests Superintendents of Circuits to receive the subscriptions of their colleagues, and remit them to the Rev. WILLIAM H. HART, Connexional Funds Office, 1, Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.1, not later than December 1 in each year.

SECTION V.

STANDING ORDERS.

I. THE CONNEXION.

1. Title of the Connexion.—(1) Having regard to the terms used in our Trust Deeds and other Legal Documents, it is not possible for the Conference to alter the title of the Connexion as it appears on the front page of the Minutes of Conference. The Conference declares, however, that the title hitherto used is not, and never has been, inconsistent with the assertion for "the People called Methodists" of a true and proper position as a Church, with all the authorities, privileges, and responsibilities belonging to the New Testament Church; and in this view of our principles and of the facts of the case, the Conference, so far from discouraging, distinctly approves of the general and popular use of the term, "The Wesleyan Methodist Church." (Summary,* p. 3.)

(2) The Conference directs, particularly in all official documents, that our full and correct title of Wesleyan Methodist shall be used. (Summary, p. 3.)

2. Nomination Committee.—(1) The Nomination Committee shall consist of five ministers and five Laymen, in addition to the President and Secretary of the Conference, with two Secretaries (Ministerial and Lay); and shall meet twice in the year—in May, and immediately before the Conference. Some Representative of each Department shall be present at both these meetings, by arrangement of the Committee of such Department.

(2) The Nominations for the ensuing Conference shall be made by the several Connexional Committees not later than April (with the exception of the Local Preachers', Class Leaders', Auxiliary Fund, Connexional Fund, Ministers' Children, Theological Institution, and the Wesley Deaconess Institute Committees, together with the Wesley Guild Central Council, which shall report not later than July 2); and the Secretaries shall send to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, a full fortnight before its first meeting, at least twenty-five printed lists of members so nominated, on which there shall be a record of the attendances of the members during the past year. The names of new members shall be printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment shall be distinguished by an asterisk.

(3) One-fifth of the Ministers and of the Laymen on each Connexional Committee shall retire annually, and shall not be eligible for re-election, except by a two-thirds majority of those present. The vote shall be taken by ballot after all nominations have been placed before the Committee, first on those who have been proposed for re-nomination, and afterwards on those newly nominated.

(4) The Secretaries of the Nomination Committee shall compile a register of the names of such persons nominated or re-nominated, with a list of all the Connexional Committees on which it is proposed they should serve, and send a copy to each member of the Nomination Committee seven days before its first meeting.

(5) These names shall be considered by the Nomination Committee, which shall have power to make any suggestions it thinks fit in regard to them. While it is inadvisable to lay down any hard-and-fast limit, it is, as a general rule, undesirable that any person should be nominated for appointment on another Connexional Committee who is already a member of four such Committees.

(6) The Suggestions of the Nomination Committee shall be sent to the Secretaries of the Departments concerned, for consideration by their several Committees, and the decision of these Committees in each case shall be reported to the second Meeting of the Nomination Committee, which shall make such changes as appear desirable and report to the Conference.

(7) Members of Connexional Committees elected by the Synods, other than Chairmen of Districts, shall not be elected for more than three years in succession, except by a two-thirds majority of those present, the vote to be taken by ballot. These elections shall take place at the May Synod, and the names shall be forwarded at once to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee.

(8) The following are the Committees within the scope of the Nomination Committee, Sub-Committees and Committees purely local being excluded:

Foreign Missions.
" " (Women's Department).
Ministers' Children.
Chapel Affairs.
Home Mission.
Connexional Fund.
Auxiliary Fund.
Theological Institution.
Education.
Sunday School Department.
Wesley Guild.
National Children's Home and Orphanage.
Necessitous Local Preachers.
Local Preachers.
Class Leaders.
Wesley Deaconess Institute.
Temperance and Social Welfare Department.
Women's Work.

(Summary, pp. 427–8.)

3. Lists of Committees to Appear in the Conference Agenda.—All Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall, as far as possible, be printed in the Agenda for the Conference; the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a two-thirds majority by ballot being distinguished by an asterisk; care being taken to give the Christian name and address of each Layman. (Summary, p. 429.)

4. New Members of Connexional Committees.—The Secretaries of Departments shall inform all new members, Ministerial and Lay, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees. (Summary, p. 429.)

5. Postal Addresses of Lay Members of Connexional Committees.—A complete list of the Lay members of each Connexional Committee, with their postal addresses, shall be handed to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in the Minutes. (Summary, p. 429.)

6. Custody of Connexional Documents.—In addition to the Journals and Daily Records of the Conference, the Reports of Committees meeting during the Conference, and the Resolutions of Conference thereon, and the Minutes of the several District Synods, which are kept at the Conference Office, the following Documents shall also be preserved: (1) The printed Agenda of the Conference; (2) The Minutes of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions for the current and preceding years, with the Documents laid before that Committee, and the Resolutions of the Conference thereon; the Memorials and Suggestions to be kept for two years only and then to be destroyed; (3) Any legal opinion obtained by the direction of the Conference; (4) A Record of all Legacies left to Connexional Funds; with any other Documents which the Conference may hereafter direct to be preserved. (Summary, pp. 413–14.)

1. THE CONFERENCE.

7. Conference Towns.—Subject to local convenience, the rotation of Conferences shall be as follows: London, Burslem, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Manchester, Camborne, Sheffield, Bristol, Nottingham, London, York, Lincoln, Bradford, Cardiff, Liverpool, Plymouth, Leeds, Birmingham, Hull, Middlesbrough. (Summary, p. 404.)

8.—Conference Tribune and Platform.—The Conference directs that a small Rostrum or Tribune shall be placed, when necessary, in front of the Platform, from which those who desire to address the Conference may speak. The Conference also directs that the Platform be brought within as small a compass as possible. (Summary, p. 407.)

9. Questions in Representative Session.—The Conference having approved of a system of Questions and Answers similar to that adopted in the House of Commons, by which Members of the Representative Session may submit Questions to be answered in Conference without debate (Minutes, 1918, p. 84), the Conference adopts the following as its method of procedure:

1. Any Member of the Conference has the right to address a Question to any Treasurer or Secretary of a Department or Connexional Committee, being also a Member of the Conference, about the affairs with which he is officially connected, or upon any matter of administration for which his Committee shall be responsible. The proper object of such a Question is to obtain information on a matter of fact within the special cognisance of that Representative of Department or Committee. The rules and practice of the Conference shall limit the right to ask questions so as to confine them to this object.

2. Notice of such Question must be given in writing to the Secretary of the Conference before the 16th day of June. The Secretary of the Conference shall be the judge of the propriety or admissibility of a Question, and disallow any question when, in his opinion, it is an abuse of the right of questioning. For instance, a Question may be disallowed on the ground of unreasonable length, impropriety of expression, or the like.

3. The Secretary of the Conference shall at once transmit the Question to the person concerned, so that he may have time to prepare his answer and return it not later than the 30th day of June to the Secretary of the Conference.

4. These questions and answers shall be printed under the direction of the Assistant Secretary of the Conference, who is responsible for the publication of the Agenda, and the Questionnaire shall be forwarded with the Agenda to each member of the Conference.

5. The Secretary of the Conference shall present the Questionnaire as the first order of the day on the first morning of the Conference. He shall call the numbers of the Questions in turn as printed. A period of three-quarters of an hour shall be set apart for this business.

6. During that period supplementary questions for elucidation may be asked within limits to be determined by the President, but no debate shall be allowed to arise therefrom.

7. The right to ask Questions shall be governed by the following Rules:

(1) A Question must not publish any name or statement not strictly necessary to make the question intelligible.

(2) If a Question contains a statement, the member asking it shall make himself responsible for the accuracy of the statement.

(3) A Question must not contain any argument, inference, imputation, epithet, or ironical expression.

(4) A Question must not be asked about proceedings in a Committee which have not been placed before the Conference by a Report from the Committee.

(5) A Question must not ask for an expression of opinion, or for the solution of an abstract legal question, or of a hypothetical proposition.

(6) A Question fully answered must not be asked again. (Summary, pp. 418–19.)

10. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may, from year to year, assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, complete and print, not later than June 24 in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal Chapels during the Sessions of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, send to every person whom they have appointed to preach in those Chapels a copy of the Conference Plan.

Every Minister so appointed is responsible to the Conference for the fulfilment of his appointment. (Summary, p. 406.)

11. Election of Lay Representatives by the Conference itself.—The Conference directs that in future the Lists of Districts from which no Representatives have been elected by the Conference for the preceding three years shall be printed upon the Conference Voting Paper as well as read from the platform. (Summary, p. 403.)

12. Vacancies among Connexional Lay Treasurers and the Lay Members Elected by the Conference itself.—(1) If any Treasurer of a Connexional Fund be unable to attend the Conference, the Committee of the Fund in question shall, at its last meeting previous to the Conference, elect one of its Lay Members to represent the Fund at that Conference, in the place of the Treasurer.

(2) In the event of one or more of the Forty-six Laymen elected by previous Conferences being unable to attend the Conference, he or they shall inform the President at least one week before the date fixed for the commencement of the Representative Session. The President shall furnish the information to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, and the Committee shall nominate a person or persons to fill the vacancies thus created; such nominations being submitted to the Conference at the commencement of the Representative Session, which shall be requested to elect the person or persons so nominated.

(3) In the event of the death or unavoidable absence of a Connexional Treasurer for whom no substitute has been appointed by the Committee in question, nominations shall be made in the same way.

(4) In the event of a vacancy arising by appointment to a Connexional Treasurership, or by death, nominations shall be made in the same way; and the person elected shall, as regards retirement and re-election, be subject to the rules applying to the person whose place he takes. (Summary, p. 403.)

13. Representation of Women's Auxiliary in Conference (now designated The Women's Department of the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society).—Inasmuch as the Committee of the Women's Auxiliary of the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society is hereafter to be appointed by the Conference, provision shall be made for the presentation of its Annual Report to the Conference by a member of the Auxiliary, elected for this purpose by the Committee of the Auxiliary, who shall be included in the number of those allocated to the Representative Session.

The Conference resolves that it be an instruction to the Allocation Committee that the reduction of one in the number of Representatives, as arranged for in the above Resolution, should be made in turn from the larger Districts only. (Summary, p. 397.)

14. Daily Sessions of the Conference.—With a view to facilitating the despatch of business, there shall be two Sessions daily, and if necessary an Evening Session on each day of the Representative week. (Summary, p. 415.)

15. Open Session of Conference.—(1) An Open Session for the reception of Representatives from other Conferences shall be held on the Monday afternoon of the Representative Session.

(2) Arrangements shall be made to secure that Representatives from the General Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church South, the United Church of Canada, and the Australasian Methodist Church shall, if possible, be so appointed that every year one Representative from one of the above-mentioned Conferences shall be present and be heard.

(3) A Representative from the French Conference, and one from the South African Conference, shall be heard on alternate years; a Representative from the Irish Conference every year, and one from the Conference of New Zealand when appointed.

(4) Representatives appointed by this Conference to other Conferences shall be heard at the Conference following their return home.

(5) Other accredited Visitors, including those from the Annual Conferences of America and Australasia, shall be introduced to the Conference, but no provision can be made for them to address it.

(6) The Conference appoints a Correspondent whose duty it shall be, under the direction of the Secretary of the Conference, to see that the various Conferences are advised as to the years when Representatives are looked for, that the names of those appointed are duly known, that our own Conference Arrangements Committees are advised as to the hospitality and appointments on the Conference Plan, and that Representatives are clearly informed as to the date of the Open Session and of any pulpit appointment, and are personally welcomed on their arrival. (Summary, pp. 409–10.)

16. Deputations to Conference from Other Churches.—These Deputations shall be received on the Monday morning of the Representative Session. (Summary, p. 407.)

17. Conference Sacramental Service.—The Conference Sacramental Service shall be held on the second morning of the Representative Session [Friday], in a Chapel other than the Conference Chapel, in lieu of the ordinary devotional exercises, and shall be followed by a Conversation on the State of the Work of God. (Summary, p. 517.)

18. Scrutineers of Votes.—(1) At each Conference, in the Pastoral Session, a Convener of Scrutineers shall be appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for the offices of President and Secretary, at the succeeding Conference; and such Convener shall be an ex-officio member of the Pastoral and Representative Sessions of the Conference for which he is elected.

(2) The Committee of Scrutineers, annually appointed, shall consist of not less than twenty, and shall make all arrangements for the collecting and counting of votes. (Summary, pp. 514–15.)

19. Elections to the Legal Conference.—(1) All vacancies in the Legal Conference caused by death, or by absence for two consecutive years without a dispensation, shall be declared at the first meeting of the Conference in its REPRESENTATIVE SESSION, and such vacancies shall be filled by election by the Legal Conference only, from a list of eight names of Ministers nominated by the Pastoral Session of the previous Conference.

(2) The declaration of vacancies caused by Superannuation shall be deferred until the first meeting of the Conference in its PASTORAL SESSION, and such vacancies shall then be filled by Election by the Legal Conference after separate nomination by the Conference for each vacancy.

(3) In regard to these vacancies it shall be an honourable understanding that any Minister elected into the Legal "Hundred" from the time at which these regulations come into force shall, on becoming a Supernumerary, resign his position in the "Hundred," and the Legal Conference shall formally declare by a separate vote that

(a) certain Ministers, having been Supernumeraries for two years, and not having been Presidents of the Conference,

(b) and certain other Ministers having resigned their position in the "Hundred" on becoming Supernumeraries, now cease to be members of the Legal Conference, and that their places have to be filled.

(4) All Ministers in Full Connexion permitted to attend the Conference, and being present in its Pastoral Session, shall have the right of nominating, by ballot, any Preacher whose name has been proposed to the Conference on that occasion for admission into the number of the Legal "Hundred"; and the Legal "Hundred" shall be requested in such cases to elect the person so nominated as a member of the Legal Conference. No person shall be so elected who has not travelled at least one year in Full Connexion.

(5) Immediately the vacancies have been filled a further vote shall take place by ballot, from the remaining names of those openly proposed, to form the List of eight names to be sent forward to the next Conference. The names of those thus openly proposed, but not chosen to fill immediate vacancies, shall be read to the Conference. It shall still be open to the Conference to propose additional names. Each Minister in Full Connexion present at the Conference shall be entitled to vote for eight of these proposed persons and no more. One vote only shall be given to one name. The eight names receiving the highest number of votes shall be those sent forward, in the order of the number of votes received.

(6) Should the Conference, during its sittings, expel any Member of the Legal "Hundred," another Minister to supply his place shall be immediately elected, after nomination in the usual form. (Summary, pp. 382–3.)

20. Nomination of the President and Secretary of the Conference.—In the nomination of the President of the Conference the Minister nominated shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second, and, if necessary, a third ballot shall be taken on the names on the list which have the largest number of votes.

This shall also apply to the nomination of the Secretary of the Conference. (Summary, pp. 384–5.)

21. Election of Chairmen of Districts.—In the appointment of Chairmen, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast, and the election shall be according to the Standing Order relating to elections to Departmental Offices. (See Standing Order 38.)

N.B.—In the case of the Welsh-speaking Districts, the Pastoral Session of the Welsh Assembly is authorised to nominate to the Conference such Brethren as it considers should be appointed to the Chair of these Districts. (Summary, p. 393.)

22. Election of Secretaries of the District Synods.—The title "Financial Secretary" is discontinued, and the "Secretary of the District Synod" shall be elected year by year by the Conference on the nomination of the Chairman of the District; and he shall be ex-officio the Secretary of both the September and the May Synods. (Summary, p. 337.)

23. The Pastoral Session and Press Reporting.—The Conference instructs the Conference Arrangements Committee to appoint some competent Minister to report the proceedings of the Pastoral Session and furnish a daily report to the Press, such Minister to be personally responsible for the information given, as is the case with the other ministerial newspaper Reporters in the Conference. The Conference Arrangements Committee is to be entirely responsible for the remuneration and the conditions of the appointment.

It is understood that these arrangements shall not prevent the publication in the Press of such additional descriptive articles by Ministers as may be arranged between newspapers and members of the Pastoral Session. (Summary, p. 409.)

24. Chairman of Memorials Committee.—The Ex-President, year by year, shall be the ex-officio Chairman of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions. (Summary, p. 410.)

25. Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—(1) Secretaries of District Synods are directed to forward copies of the Obituaries of Deceased Ministers to the Convener of the Committee on Obituaries, immediately after the Annual Meeting of the Synod.

(2) The Obituaries of deceased Ministers received by the District Synods shall be revised by a Special Committee, to be appointed at the preceding Conference.

(3) The Obituaries thus revised shall be printed for the use of the Conference, under the direction of the Special Committee.

(4) The Obituaries of Ministers who have died since the May District Synods shall be revised by the Special Committee, and, if possible, be printed and presented to the Conference at the same time as those which have been submitted to the District Synods. (Summary, p. 328.)

26. Memorial Service for Deceased Ministers.—(1) The official reading of Obituaries in the Conference shall be discontinued; and the List of the names of deceased Ministers shall be read by the Secretary of the Conference.

(2) The consideration of Obituaries shall be regarded and observed as a strictly religious service; and, whilst this solemn business is being transacted, no Committees of the Conference shall meet.

(3) The Conference shall, as a rule, hold the Memorial Service on the Tuesday of the third week of its Sessions. (Summary, p. 328.)

27. Signing of Journal of Irish Conference.—To avoid the difficulty that might arise in the signing of the Journal of the Irish Conference, in the event of the death of the Vice-President of the Irish Conference and the absence of all the Delegates from the British Conference, the name of the surviving Ex-Vice-President shall be added to the other names in the delegation. (Summary, p. 392.)

28. New Legislation in Relation to the Foreign Stations.—Foreign Districts shall be informed of all new legislation adopted by Conference, but such legislation shall only become operative in those Districts where the Synods themselves desire, unless in any instance Conference shall itself otherwise determine. (Summary, p. 363.)

2. THE STATIONING COMMITTEE.

29. Election of Representative to Stationing Committee in District Synod.—The Minister who shall be the Representative of any District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen at the September Synod by the united votes of the Ministers in Full Connexion and Lay Members of the District Synod. (Summary, p. 419.)

30. Preparations for the Stationing Committee.—(1) The Secretary of the Conference shall, early in October of each year, supply every Representative of a District with a Schedule on which he shall be required to enter the names of all Ministers in the District removing at the ensuing Conference, and for whom no provisional arrangement has been made; also the Circuits in which there is any vacancy not provisionally supplied. The Secretary of the Conference shall then forward to every Representative a complete list compiled from the information received.

N.B.—(1) This List shall be supplied also to any Minister or Circuit Steward concerned who may apply for same (enclosing 6*d.* for Printing and Postage). (2) If necessary, an additional List shall be prepared in February.

(2) Not later than the first week in May, each Representative shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Conference with a List of all Ministers for whom arrangements have not been made, and of all Circuits in like case; the information necessary to compile this List being sent by the Representative to the Secretary of the Conference not later than April 20; such Lists to contain complete information, and to be regarded as private and confidential.

(3) The Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than June 1 in each year, upon a prepared Schedule, complete Lists of:

(a) The invitations accepted by Ministers in his District;

(b) The arrangements provisionally made for the appointment of Ministers to Circuits in his District;

(c) All Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made; and (d) All Ministers for whom an extended appointment is requested.

(4) A List of all Ministers to be transferred from the Foreign to the Home Stations shall, at the same time, be furnished by the Missionary Secretaries to the Secretary of the Conference.

(5) From these Lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, a Preliminary Draft of Stations embodying all arrangements thus provisionally made; and also a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made ; and a copy of these shall be furnished to each member of the Stationing Committee, in London, on the Monday before the meeting of that Committee. (Summary, pp. 420–1.)

31. Regulations Concerning the Stationing Committee.

(1) The Stationing Committee shall, from year to year, hold its first Session in London.

(2) The appointments made shall not be printed day by day.

(3) The Stations shall be printed in the Conference Town.

(4) The First Draft of Stations shall be an absolutely confidential document until the Representatives' copies are ready for the post.

(5) Should any Minister be officially reported as under discipline and suspended until the Conference, his name shall not appear on the First Draft of Stations.

(6) Probationers on the List of Reserve, and Students leaving the Institution, who are eligible for appointment, shall be entitled to a copy of the First and of the Final Draft of Stations.

(7) Each Representative shall send to the Secretary of the "Conference Arrangements Committee" two sets of addressed wrappers for the First Draft and the Final Draft respectively, for the Ministers and Circuit Stewards in his District, and for six other Laymen—members of the District Synod ; the cost of which shall be refunded by the "Conference Arrangements Committee." (Summary, p. 422.)

32. The President and Secretary and the Stationing Committee.—(1) As the President and Secretary of the Conference for the time being are ex officio members of the Stationing Committee, they shall in future attend it only in their public and official character as persons especially charged with the general interests of the whole Connexion ; and neither of them shall be considered eligible to be sent by any particular District as its local Representative.

(2) The President and Secretary of the preceding Conference, having attended the earlier meetings of the Stationing Committee, shall continue to be official Members of it during the whole of its sittings for that year ; even when it may be necessary for the completion of its business, that it should occasionally assemble after the election of the new President or Secretary shall have taken place. (Summary, pp. 419–20.)

33. Names of Ministers Appointed to Districts on First Draft of Stations.—The Conference resolves that the names of Ministers who are appointed to Districts and not to Circuits shall appear on the First Draft of Stations thus: "A.B., whose name is submitted to the Conference for re-appointment as Chairman of the District." (Summary, p. 422.)

34. Ministers for whom no Circuit can be found by the Stationing Committee.—The name of any Minister for whom no Circuit can be found by the Stationing Committee shall be omitted from the First Draft of Stations, a report being presented by the Stationing

Committee to the Conference, as to the reasons for such action. The Conference shall in all such cases, on the first day of the Pastoral Session, appoint a Special Committee to consider and report to the Conference. Notification of the action of the Stationing Committee shall be given to the Minister for whom no Circuit can be found, and the regulation of the Conference relating to the right of appeal in such cases shall be observed. (Summary, pp. 422–3.)

35. Extra Sitting of the Stationing Committee.—After the first reading of the Stations, the Committee shall, when it is deemed expedient, retire for the further consideration of the Stations. (Summary, p. 422.)

36. Reading of Stations in the Conference.—(1) The Stations shall be presented twice in the Conference, for a First and a Final Reading.

(2) In the First Reading of the Stations, the names of the Ministers shall not be read out one by one, but the Secretary shall call the names of the Circuits, and any member of the Conference shall be at liberty to question, or raise a discussion upon, any proposed appointment. In the Final Reading, the usage shall be observed of making changes only when all parties are agreed. (Summary, pp. 426–7.)

3. DEPARTMENTS.

37. Appointments to New Departments.—In future no Minister shall be set apart for the work of a new Department without the question of such an appointment having been referred to the Synods for their judgment. (Summary, p. 314.)

38. New Appointments to Departmental Offices.—In any new appointment to a Departmental Office, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be taken on the first two—or, if necessary, the first three names on the list which have the largest number of votes. (Summary, p. 315.)

39. Nomination of Ministers for Designation or Appointment to Departmental Offices.—(1) Twelve months before the end of any term of Departmental Office, the Committee in charge of the Department shall submit to the Representative Session of the Conference the name or names of one or more Ministers, not exceeding three, in nomination for that office, of whom the Officer for the time being may, or may not, be one.

(2) On any vacancy or vacancies arising in any Departmental Offices by death, retirement, expiration of term, or otherwise, the General Committee of the Department shall prepare a report concerning such vacancy or vacancies. This report shall contain a reasoned statement as to the particular features of the appointment which has to be made.

(3) The Committee may also submit the name of one or more Ministers, not exceeding three, whom it deems suitable for the vacancy.

(4) The Committee of any Department in which a vacancy occurs shall, prior to making any report or suggestion, appoint a Sub-Committee, which shall carefully consider the whole matter and advise the General Committee respecting it. In the case of the Theological Institution, the Local Committee may report and recommend names to the General Institution Committee as they do at present.

(5) On the presentation of the names by the Committee of the Department for designation or appointment, the Conference, in its Representative Session, shall retain the right to add other names, and shall in that case take at least one ballot, and then if an absolute majority has been secured, and the Conference thinks fit, it may by open vote pass on the result of the first ballot to the Pastoral Session, it being necessary that three names should be sent forward to that Session.

(6) The above was modified by the Conference of 1913:

(a) After the first vote has been taken it shall be open to any member of the Representative Session to move that the Standing Order which requires three names to be submitted to the Pastoral Session for designation or appointment to Departmental Offices be suspended in a particular case.

(b) Should the motion for suspension of the Standing Order be carried in full Conference by a two-thirds majority, the Representative Session may submit either one name or two as may be deemed expedient. In all such cases the Pastoral Session shall have the right to nominate an additional name, or if need be, two additional names to bring the number up to three, before proceeding to the ballot.

(c) The Nominee or Nominees of the Representative Session must always be included in the three on which the final ballot is taken, should the Pastoral Session decide in any given case to increase the number of Nominees.

(7) This was further modified by the Conference of 1915:

When only one name is nominated in the Representative Session, it shall be unnecessary to vote by ballot, but the nomination may by open vote be passed on to the Pastoral Session. (Summary, pp. 315–16.)

40. Re-appointments to Departments.—(1) Appointments to Departmental Offices shall be in the first instance, as now, for a period not exceeding six years, but all re-appointments shall be for three years only, and when any re-appointment is made, the number of votes cast in each case shall be reported.

(2) In all cases in which a Minister has served a term in a Connexional Office, if he be proposed for re-election, special reasons shall be assigned to the Conference as in the case of a Minister whom it is desired to retain in a Circuit beyond a period of three years.

(3) The Conference resolves that every Minister elected to service in our Departmental Offices or Colleges shall return to circuit work at the end of six years, unless the Conference sees fit, under special circumstances, to re-elect to such office by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast.

Further, in order to bring the procedure of both Sessions of the Conference into harmony, the Pastoral Session respectfully asks the Representative Session of the next Conference favourably to consider the same rules when making nominations for re-election.

(4) Subject to the foregoing Regulations, the Conference is at liberty to renew the re-appointment to Departmental Offices as often as it shall deem necessary. (Summary, pp. 316–17.)

41. Postponement of Nomination to Departments.—If any question seriously affecting Ministerial character or fidelity should be raised upon a proposed name in the Representative Session of the Conference, the nominations for designation for appointment to the office in question shall be postponed without discussion to the Representative Session of the following Conference, when the nominations shall be made under the Regulations affecting nominations in cases of emergency for immediate appointment. By this arrangement the objection would be considered and decided by the Pastoral Session of the Conference in the Representative Session of which it has been raised. (Summary, p. 317.)

42. Emergency Appointments to Departments.—(1) In any case of emergency which arises during the Representative Session involving immediate appointment, the Conference shall determine its own method of procedure, but in each case three names shall be sent forward to the Pastoral Session.

(2) In any case of emergency which arises after the close of the Representative Session, the Pastoral Session shall have the right to appoint without a previous nomination. (Summary, p. 317.)

43. Ministers appointed to Act under the Direction of a Departmental Committee.—Ministers appointed to act under the direction of a Departmental Committee shall, if re-appointment be desired by the Committee, be annually invited by that Committee and dealt with by the Conference as in the case of Ministers in Circuits and Missions. (Summary, p. 317.)

44. Schedules from Departments.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several Departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Sessions, should be furnished with all necessary statistical information on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up. (Summary, p. 251.)

45. Army and Navy Reports and Returns to District Synods.—(1) All Ministers working for the benefit of Soldiers and Sailors in Stations where Methodist Homes already exist, or shall be established, shall include in their quarterly Reports an account of the work done in the Homes; and at the May Synods the financial condition of such Homes shall be reported, as in the case of other Trust properties.

(2) The following information shall be presented from each of our Military and Naval Stations to the May Synods; together with a Report of the work done for the benefit of our Soldiers and Sailors.

(i) The number of declared Methodists in the Army, Royal Navy (including the Coastguard), and Air Force, taken for December 31 of each year.

(ii) The number of Members of Society in the Army, Royal Navy, and Air Force, including the wives and children of Soldiers, Seamen, and Airmen.

(iii) The average attendance at Divine Service during the year.

(iv) The amount of capitation and other official payments for the year.

In the case of Home Stations, these Reports and Returns shall be submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall present them, with needful remarks thereupon, to the Synod. (Summary, pp. 286–7.)

46. Army and Navy Ministers in relation to Circuit Work.—Ministers who are appointed to Army and Navy Work are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit in which they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made with the Royal Navy, Army, and Air Force Board. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may give such help to the Circuit as they can, but only by arrangement in writing between the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Army and Navy Board. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognisance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Synod, subject to the before-mentioned conditions. (Summary, p. 287.)

47. Army and Navy Capitation Payments and Pastoral Duties.—Wherever capitation payments are received on behalf of our Methodist Soldiers, Seamen, and Airmen, the Pastoral duties which are entailed thereby shall be strictly fulfilled, and every facility and encouragement given to the men, their wives and families, to become attached to the services of the chapels in which, by these payments, they are now seatholders. (Summary, pp. 287–8.)

48. Army and Navy Garrison and Naval Ports in Foreign Districts.—The Chairmen and Superintendents of our Foreign Mission Districts and Stations where there are Garrison and Naval Ports are instructed to make arrangements with the Naval and Military Authorities as may be necessary for the benefit of Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, in concert with the Royal Navy, Army, and Air Force Board. (Summary, p. 286.)

49. Army and Navy Board and Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes.—In addition to the Connexional sanction already required by our rules before any property can be acquired for Methodist purposes, Ministers or other persons connected with our Societies contemplating the erection or acquisition of a Soldiers' or Sailors' Home shall communicate with the Royal Navy, Army, and Air Force Board; and no binding arrangements shall be entered into until the written consent of the Home Mission Committee and of the Foreign Missionary Committee respectively shall have been received. (Summary, p. 287.)

4. MINISTERS, STUDENTS, AND CANDIDATES.

50. Conditions regarding Ministers becoming Supernumeraries.—(1) The Conference records its judgment that, since the accuracy of the forecast made by the Committee of the Auxiliary Fund depends on the assumption that the average duration of Active Service and of Supernumeraryship remain as at present (thirty-eight years in the one case and eleven years in the other), no claim for grant should ordinarily arise until thirty-four years after ordination, unless the claimant is medically certified as unable to continue to discharge his work efficiently, or unless the Conference shall in any particular case otherwise direct. The number of years each Minister has travelled when he applies to become a Supernumerary shall be presented in the Conference Agenda.

(2) When any Minister who has not rendered forty years' service applies to become a Supernumerary, he shall present a medical certificate of unfitness for the Full Work of the Ministry. (Summary, p. 320.)

51. Temporary Supernumeraryship in Relation to the Legal Conference.—In the case of a member of the Legal Conference who has been permitted to retire for one or for two years, he shall not thereby cease to be a member of the Legal Conference provided he then (that is to say, at the end of the first or second year) returns to the full work; and he shall remain a member of the Legal Conference for two years after becoming a Supernumerary permanently. (Summary, p. 384.)

52. Junior Ministers becoming Supernumeraries for One Year.—(1) Ministers who have travelled not more than twenty-one years and have lost their health, may be allowed to retire for one year, and may, if in necessitous circumstances, receive in addition to the Allowances payable from the Annuitant Society and the Connexional Funds, a sum not exceeding £80; of which one-half shall be provided by the Connexional Fund, the other half being paid by the Auxiliary Fund.

(2) Each case shall be considered by a Mixed Committee of seven members, who shall be appointed by the Conference; namely, the Ex-President, three Ministers, and three Laymen.

(3) Should the Conference deem it indispensable, a second year's Grant may be allowed. (Summary, p. 321.)

53. Compulsory Supernumeraryship: Financial Arrangements.—(1) When the Conference has decided that a Minister shall not be appointed to a Circuit for any reason other than physical incompetence, his case shall be considered by a Special Committee, to be appointed by the Conference in its Representative Session. This Committee shall determine whether any, and if any what, annual allowances shall be paid to him; or whether any, and if any what, sums shall be offered to him on condition of his retirement from the Ministry. The Committee shall further advise the Conference as to the sources whence such payments shall be made in each case.

(2) Representatives of the following Funds shall be among the persons appointed on the Committee: The Auxiliary Fund, Connexional Fund, and Children's Fund.

(3) The Members of the Annuitant Society shall be asked to treat Ministers who may retire from the Ministry under these arrangements, in the matter of compensation, as though they had resigned. (Summary, pp. 321–2.)

54. Compulsory Supernumeraryship in Relation to the District Synod.—In the case of any Minister who has been made a Supernumerary on the ground of either (a) discipline or (b) difficulty in finding him a Circuit, no District Synod shall recommend his reappointment unless some Circuit in that District is willing to receive him, or he shall have received an invitation to a Circuit in another District; and no such Minister shall be re-appointed to a Circuit unless recommended by the District Synod to which he belongs. (Summary, p. 322.)

55. Supernumeraries or other Ministers Resident Abroad.—(1) No Minister is allowed to be absent from the country during a great part of the year without the consent of the Yearly Conference, or, in case of emergency, of the President, who shall report the case to the ensuing Conference.

(2) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall have such permission annually renewed.

(3) If any Minister remain abroad for more than one year, he shall be required either to make arrangements with the officers of our Connexional Funds, with a view to retiring from the English Work, or to furnish the Conference annually with a satisfactory

Report from some other Methodist Conference in recognised relation with this Conference.

(4) If, during his residence abroad, any Minister shall enter into business, or shall accept office or emolument of any kind, he is required, without delay, to notify the fact to the Chairman of the District where his name appears on the Stations.

(5) In all such cases, the existing Rule which requires the presence of a Minister at the Annual District Synod shall be held to be binding unless his absence has been expressly sanctioned in accordance with the foregoing Resolutions; and even in that case he is required to furnish a statement in due time containing an answer to the question in the Order and Form of Business in District Synods as to his continued belief in our doctrines.

(6) Supernumerary Ministers connected with the British Conference, residing in Ireland, shall report to the Irish Synod to which the Circuit in which they reside belongs; and Supernumerary Ministers connected with the Irish Conference, residing in England, shall report to the English Synod to which the Circuit in which they reside belongs.

(7) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall furnish a Report as to his ministerial conduct from the proper authority, as defined in the above, or in the letter from the President giving the required permission.

(8) A list of all such Ministers shall be annually printed in the Minutes of Conference at the end of the Stations. (Summary, pp. 325–6.)

56. Supernumeraries returning to the Full Work.—The Conference resolves that in all cases where it is recommended that Supernumerary Ministers shall return to the Full Work, inquiry and report shall be made by the Committee appointed at Conference to examine the cases of those Ministers who have had Supplies during the year. (Summary, p. 326.) See Standing Order 76.

57. Supernumeraries and Business.—The Conference re-affirms that the Regulation respecting Supernumeraries entering into business be suspended for the time being. (Summary, p. 325.)

58. Ministers without Pastoral Charge.—(1) Any Minister wishing to maintain his ministerial status whilst holding no definite appointment to a Circuit or a Department, and without becoming a Supernumerary, shall apply for permission through the District Synod to the Conference, which shall decide the case after full consideration by a Special Committee.

(2) Such Minister shall continue to be in every way subject to our discipline, including the usual inquiries as to character and doctrine.

(3) No such Minister shall receive any payment from any of our Connexional Funds during, or on account of, the years in which he shall occupy the position herein described.

(4) The name of every such Minister shall stand upon the Minutes in connection with some Circuit, and following his name shall be these words: "resides in this Circuit without Pastoral Charge." Nevertheless, he shall not, as a Minister, be a member of the Quarterly Meeting or of any Leaders' Meeting in the Circuit.

(5) In the case of a member of the Legal Conference having been entered on the Minutes as without Pastoral Charge in conformity with the Resolutions of the Conference of 1888, the Conference resolves that, at the expiration of two years from the commencement of such an arrangement, he shall cease to be a member of the Legal Conference.

(6) The following question shall be inserted in the Order and Form of Business of the Pastoral Session of the Annual District Synod:

> Is there any Minister without Pastoral Charge residing in this District, and, if so, does the Synod recommend that the present arrangement be continued? (Summary, pp. 318–19.)

59. Inquiry into the Character of Ministers and Preachers on Trial.—(1) In response to the Inquiry in the Conference, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" the names of the Districts only shall be called, the Chairman of each District then giving the required information. The right to challenge any name, or bring a charge against any Minister, shall not be affected by this Regulation. (Summary, p. 279.)

(2) The Conference re-affirms its decision that subjects discussed in Conference in answer to the question, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" are to be regarded as strictly private and confidential. (Summary, p. 279.)

60. Ministerial Resignations.—In the event of any Brother determining to withdraw from the Ministry, he shall be expected in the first instance to intimate his resignation to the President. (Summary, p. 279.)

61. Ministers who have ceased to be Recognised by the Conference.—No Preacher excluded for immorality, or who resigns his connection with the Conference while under charges which affect his moral character, shall at any subsequent period be allowed to be a Local Preacher, Class Leader, or even a private Member of Society, without the consent of the Conference, previously obtained. (Summary, pp. 18–19.)

62. Committee on Appeals regarding Character and Other Cases.—(1) At the beginning of the Pastoral Session of each Conference a Committee of twenty-one members shall be appointed, to whom shall be referred without discussion:

(i) All cases needing further inquiry, touching the Character of Ministers or Probationers, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Synods thereupon;
(ii) Any Notice of Charge or Appeal relating thereto; or
(iii) Any other matter which the Conference may so refer.

(2) Any complainant or appellant, or any person under inquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and some other member of the Conference shall then be appointed to act instead of the member so objected to.

(3) Special cases may, if the Conference so decide, be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee.

(4) No Appeal shall be received after the completion of the year following the Conference immediately succeeding the act of discipline, except by special decision of the Conference. (Summary, p. 281.)

63. Missionaries and Disciplinary Inquiries.—(1) Ministers or Preachers on Trial appointed to any Missionary Station where there is no Annual Synod shall be answerable as to Doctrine and Discipline to the Synod of the First London District.

(2) In cases of Discipline, the Chairman of the Synod shall hold the necessary inquiry by means of the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society instead of the usual Minor District Synod.

(3) If in the case of a Minister stationed under a Foreign Synod, disciplinary inquiry is called for in regard to conduct alleged to have occurred in Great Britain or Ireland, the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society shall be empowered to institute such inquiry and report to the Conference. (Summary, p. 362.)

64. Doctrinal Committee of Appeal.—(1) The usual method of referring a charge to a Committee of Appeal sitting during the Pastoral Session of the Conference not affording sufficient opportunity for consideration in the case of a charge respecting doctrine, the Conference shall annually appoint a Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, consisting of the President, Ex-President, and Secretary of the Conference, together with twelve Ministers, four of whom shall retire annually in rotation, and shall not be eligible for immediate re-election. The function of this Committee shall be to consider all charges concerning doctrine arising during the year; its power and procedure shall conform to that of the ordinary Conference Committee of Appeal.

(2) If, and when there is a case to be investigated, the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal shall meet on a date earlier than the Conference, to be fixed by the President.

(3) All charges in respect of doctrine should be preferred as heretofore, either before or at the May Synod. A copy of any such charge, together with the findings of the Synod thereupon, shall be sent to the Convener of the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, who shall forward particulars of the charge to the members of the Committee as early as possible.

(4) Should the occasion for a new charge arise subsequently to the

May Synod, the appellant shall send a written statement of the charge to the President of the Conference as well as to the brother charged, and to the Chairman of the District in which he is stationed. The President shall send a copy of the charge to the Convener of the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, who shall then act as stated in paragraph 3.

Nothing in these Regulations shall interfere with the right of the accused to demand a Minor Synod, or with the discretion of the Chairman in respect thereto.

(5) In the event of any matter arising at Conference which could not have been dealt with under the foregoing provisions, it shall be remitted to the Doctrinal Committee of Appeal, which shall sit either during the Conference and report forthwith, or in exceptional circumstances, if the Conference so determines, during the ensuing year. In cases in which the Committee shall judge immediate disciplinary action shall be taken, the Committee shall report the fact to the Chairman of the District.

(6) In any case involving doctrinal beliefs or statements, the Minister concerned shall himself be heard by the Committee, and the findings of the Committee shall be immediately communicated to him. (Summary, pp. 282–3.)

65. Re-appointment of Ministers to Former Circuits.—(1) The term during which a Minister must be absent from a Circuit in England or Wales, before he can be re-appointed, shall be three years. He may then return, provided that the invitation of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting is substantially unanimous.

N.B—In relation to Scotland, a similar resolution was adopted in 1866. (Summary, p. 424.)

(2) In cases where the 1893 Regulation for extended appointments has been acted upon, the above Standing Order touching re-appointment shall be suspended. (Daily Record, 1924, p. 73.)

66. Changes of Ministerial Appointments during the Intervals of Conference.—Whenever any change of Preachers which it may be necessary to make in the interval of Conference takes place, such Preacher or Preachers shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Synod into which he or they may be thus removed. (Summary, p. 343.)

67. Extended Appointments.—(1) The Conference attaches to any extension of the term beyond three years the following safeguards:

(i) That the proposals shall be much more carefully scrutinised and that only in exceptional cases can extended appointments be considered.

(ii) That the invitation be given, as our polity requires, from year to year.

(iii) That in no case shall such an extension be made where there is not practical unanimity in regard to it in the Quarterly Meeting, or in the Committee to which the power of invitation belongs.

(2) In respect of Procedure, the Conference resolves:

(i) That whilst in no way interfering with the usual official invitation given in March, Circuit Stewards shall in future notify after the September Quarterly Meeting their intention to give an invitation for an extended term, and shall be requested to forward any such proposal, with a record of the reasons for it, in writing to their Representative on the Stationing Committee. The number of votes cast in each case shall be recorded and shall be reported in the following order—"For, Against, Neutral."

(ii) That the Stationing Committee be required to meet in the month of October to examine each application and to make a recommendation in an advisory capacity to the Circuits and Ministers concerned.

(iii) That the vote of the March Quarterly Meeting, or of any Committee acting under the authority of the Conference, shall be reported to the Stationing Committee in July, and by the Stationing Committee shall be reported to the Conference, with a recommendation upon it.

(3) Ministers appointed to act under the direction of a Departmental Committee shall, if re-appointment be desired by the Committee, be annually invited by that Committee, and dealt with by the Conference as in the case of Ministers in Circuits and Missions. (Summary, pp. 424–5; Minutes, 1925, p. 281.)

68. University Degrees.—(1) For the future, no Minister shall be entitled to have his Degree printed in the Minutes until the approval of the Probationers' Oversight and Examination Committee has been obtained; and Superintendents of Circuits are directed to observe that no Degree be printed on Circuit Plans other than those printed in the Minutes of Conference.

(2) In the case of every Degree printed in the Minutes, the source of the Degree shall be stated, except in the case of that of Doctor in Divinity received before the Conference of 1895.

(3) Degrees obtained from a Foreign University, by means of Examinations conducted in this country, shall not be printed in the Minutes.

(4) In future, degrees, honorary and otherwise, shall only be recognised if they proceed from Corporations which have a full University status. For Great Britain and the Dominions that shall mean Corporations recognised by the Universities' Bureau of the British Empire; and for America, the Institutions approved by the Association of American Universities. This regulation, however, shall not be retrospective.

(5) In addition to the statement of the source of Degrees, the affix (Hon.) shall be added to all British and Foreign Degrees if they be honorary; of other academic distinctions, only F.R.S. shall be printed in the Minutes.

(6) In view of the extension of University facilities for ad eundem degrees, such degrees shall not in future be printed in the Minutes. (Summary, p. 426; Minutes, 1925, p. 311; Pastoral Agenda, 1926, p. 68.)

69. Ministers under Affiliated Conferences.—(1) British Ministers who have elected to remain in Full Connexion with the Yearly Conference whilst continuing to be employed under an Affiliated Conference must be held to be absolutely subject to the Affiliated Conference in all matters connected with the work and within the limits of that Conference; but the question of their continued connection with the Yearly Conference can be determined only by the vote of the Yearly Conference.

(2) Any British Minister who has elected to enter into Full Connexion with an Affiliated Conference, or who may hereafter so enter, must be regarded as having thereby resigned his connection with the Yearly Conference; and the fact of such resignation shall be entered on the Journal of the Yearly Conference.

(3) Ministers who were not sent out from England, but were taken into the Ministry in the countries now belonging to Affiliated Conferences, and also Native Ministers, are absolutely subject to the jurisdiction of their respective Affiliated Conferences, and have ceased to be in connection with the Yearly Conference.

(4) On the death of any Minister of an Affiliated Conference who had a right of return to this country, an Obituary shall be inserted in the Minutes of the Yearly Conference. (Summary, p. 311.)

70. Native Ministers and Ministers accepted for Service in a Specified Country.—(1) Wherever such Ministers are employed, or are proposed to be employed, the Synod concerned shall submit to the Missionary Committee a scheme for their Allowances, etc., covering not only stipend and provision of House, but also furlough and retiring Allowances.

(2) The Conference declares that, except in the case of Ministers sent out from this Country and duly authorised to return, the admission of Brethren abroad into Full Connexion with the Conference does not carry with it any right to a Circuit in Great Britain. Nor shall such Ministers have the right to attend the Sessions of the British Conference, unless they are selected by the General Committee of the Missionary Society as its Representatives.

(3) Inasmuch as it has been and is the purpose and practice of the Conference to establish on its various Mission Fields, as soon as may be, self-supporting and self-controlling Churches, and as the progress of Mission Churches renders it expedient from time to time to develop their organisation in agreement with this purpose, and gradually to entrust them with powers of general administration and of discipline in particular, as preparing the way for the constitution of Affiliated Conferences:

In order, therefore, to define both the relation to the Yearly Conference of Ministers employed in these Missions, and also the disciplinary powers which may be entrusted to them, the Conference resolves as follows:

That in place of the Question, "Who are now admitted into Full Connexion with the Conference?" and its Answer as heretofore, the entry in the Journals and in the Minutes shall be in the form following, viz.:

Q. Who are now admitted into Full Connexion with the Conference?

A. (1) In Great Britain:

(2) In our Foreign Missions:

a. Ministers sent out from this Country.

b. Ministers admitted for Service in the Countries specified, viz.:

(3) In Ireland:

Under Section (2, a) of this Answer shall be entered the names of all Ministers who have been sent out by the Missionary Committee, and have a claim, on their return, to enter the Home Work.

Under Section (2, b) shall be entered the names of all Ministers, whether Native or otherwise, who have been called into the work on Foreign Stations. These have no claim to any appointment in this Country, or to any payments from Home Funds.

N.B.—If any Minister who has been admitted into Full Connexion with the Conference for service in a specified Country shall be appointed to service in another Country, his Full Connexion with the Conference shall not be disturbed thereby. (Summary, pp. 308–9.)

71. Status of Ministers admitted for Service in a Specified Country in Relation to the British Conference.—(1) Ministers wishing to be transferred to the work at Home shall submit their application to the Committee appointed by the Conference to consider Applications from Ministers of other Churches, and shall submit themselves to such examination as that Committee may determine.

(2) The Conference, while not prepared to recognise the claim for Full Status of men who have been received for work in specified countries, nor on the other hand seeking to exclude their applications, deems it undesirable to lay down any general principles in regard to such applications, but recommends that the existing usage of the Conference should be continued and each case considered on its merits.

(3) The following shall be the financial arrangements:

(i) MINISTERS RECEIVED FOR WORK IN INDIA.—Inasmuch as each of these brethren has paid the £180 for the privilege of entering upon a House on returning to this country, it is resolved:

That in the event of such Minister not claiming a house in the Home Work (through death, not returning to this country, or from any other cause), the £180 be returned to him or to his heirs and administrators; and that meanwhile interest at the rate of 2½ per cent. be paid to him annually so long as the £180 is in the hands of the Missionary Society, less any amount which the Society will be charged by any of the Home Funds in excess of what has been received from the Minister in question for that Fund.

(ii) MINISTERS RECEIVED FOR WORK IN WEST INDIES,

To the Home Mission Fund .. £180.
To the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children, for each child under 18 years of age .. .. £40.

(The above payments shall be made when the Minister actually returns to a Home Circuit. Whenever his return has been approved by the Committee appointed for this purpose, the money shall be placed in the hands of the Foreign Missionary Society before the case is dealt with by the Pastoral Session of the Conference.)

To the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund, £9 for each year counted upon admission by the Conference.

(This payment to be made by the Foreign Missionary Committee on behalf of the Minister concerned.)

(4) The Conference further resolves that whenever it is recommended that an Applicant shall receive Full Status the Conference shall adhere to its rule that the Financial Payments shall be paid through the Missionary Committee when the Full Status is granted, and not delayed until the Minister makes application to return to the Home Work.

N.B.—The Conference further resolves that so far as the payments to the Children's Fund are concerned, the Ministers in India and the West Indies shall be placed, if possible, on an equal footing, and that this question shall be referred to the Pastoral Committee already in existence. (Summary, pp. 309–11.)

72. Courts of Superior Jurisdiction in Foreign Mission Field.—(1) Courts of Superior Jurisdiction shall be constituted in such manner and for such Districts or Groups of Districts as the Conference may from time to time direct.

(2) These Courts shall hear all Appeals from the decisions of the District Synods concerning Discipline.

(3) These Courts shall investigate and decide all questions of fact, and the certified Records of the Courts shall be taken as conclusive evidence of what the facts are: subject always to the right of the Conference, if new and material evidence is produced, to direct a new trial.

(4) The decisions of these Courts as to penalty shall be final except that:

(i) On questions of judicial procedure, of the interpretation of law, or the definition of Doctrine, an appeal shall lie to the Conference.

(ii) In the case of an ordained Minister a sentence of expulsion, or loss of one or more years in Ministerial standing, shall be liable to revision by the Conference.

(iii) Any similar sentence in the case of a Preacher on Trial sent out from England shall be liable to revision by the Conference, but only as affecting his relation to the Home Work.

(5) Provided always:

(i) That no Appeal shall be allowed to the Conference, unless the case has first been presented to the Superior Court.

(ii) That in every case in which there is an Appeal to the Conference from the decision of the Superior Court or any request for revision by the Conference, it shall be sent to the Secretary of the Conference; but notice thereof shall be given to the Chairman of the Superior Court, and a copy of the appeal or request placed in his hands within six weeks after the decision of the Court. The said copy shall be forthwith forwarded by the Chairman to the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society for the consideration of the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society, and that Committee shall thereon report to the next Conference.

(6) Provided further that every Minister or Preacher on Trial shall be subject to the Provincial and District Synods within the area of whose jurisdiction he is for the time being appointed to labour. (Summary, pp. 363–4.)

COURTS OF SUPERIOR JURISDICTION FOR THE CEYLON AND BURMA, SOUTH INDIA, AND NORTH INDIA PROVINCIAL AREAS shall be constituted as follows:

(1) The North India Provincial Synod shall include the Bengal, Lucknow and Benares, and Bombay and Punjab Districts; the South India Provincial Synod shall include the Madras, Trichinopoly, Haidarabad, and Mysore Districts; and the Ceylon and Burma Provincial Synod shall include the South Ceylon, North Ceylon, and Burma Districts.

(2) Each Court shall consist of twenty members, of whom ten shall be Missionaries from England, including Chairmen of Districts ex officio, and ten Ministers accepted for service in Ceylon or India respectively. The members (exclusive of Chairmen of Districts) shall be elected by the several District Synods; and the numbers to be elected by each Synod shall be determined from time to time by the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society.

(3) All elections shall be by the united votes of the European and other Ministers.

(4) Probationers shall not be eligible as Representatives.

(5) Each Court of Superior Jurisdiction shall elect its own Chairman and Secretary. (Summary, pp. 364–5.)

PROVINCIAL SYNODS.—That, on account of the distances which divide the North India Districts from one another, the wide diversities of the work in the different Districts, and the expense involved in holding the Provincial Synod as at present constituted, the Conference approves of the following alterations in the representation of the Districts:

(a) The Provincial Synod shall consist of the four Chairmen, with four Ministers from England and four accepted for service in India.

(b) When sitting as a Court of Superior Jurisdiction (Discipline) the said Synod shall consist of the four Chairmen, four elected Ministers, and two Ministers—one European and one Indian—to be nominated by the Chairman of the Provincial Synod. (Summary, p. 365.)

(c) The representation of Burma in the Ceylon and Burma Provincial Synod shall be the Chairman and two Ministers, one of whom may be a Burmese Minister; together with one Lay Representative in the Representative Session. When sitting as a Court of Superior Jurisdiction, the representation of Burma shall be the Chairman and one Minister. (Daily Record, 1924, pp. 6, 23.)

73. Missionary Council.—The Missionary Council shall be constituted as follows:

(a) The members of the Missionary Committee.

(b) One minister and one layman nominated by the Missionary Committee of each District in Great Britain.

(c) Thirty persons to be summoned at the discretion of the General Committee to any meeting of the Council. (Minutes, 1924, pp. 6–7).

74. Transfers of Ministers from Welsh to English Work.—(1) No transfer of a Minister from the Welsh to the English Districts shall be made until the Home Mission Committee has had the opportunity of considering the case in its financial bearings and has approved the same.

(2) In special cases of application for such transfer the Conference requires: (i) The opinion of the Welsh District Synod concerned and of the Welsh Assembly as to the advisability of the transfer, both upon the ground of personal fitness and also in view of the needs of Welsh Methodism. (ii) The recommendation of the Designation Committee after a personal interview with the applicant for transfer, and also after examination and test of preaching in English. (Summary, p. 230.)

75. Methodist Episcopal Students from European Nations.—The Conference gives general authority to the Executive Committee of the Theological Institution to consider requests for the admission of Methodist Episcopal Students from European Nations to Richmond College, and, if there be vacancies, to admit such men under proper conditions. (Minutes, 1925, p. 316.)

76. Supplies for Ministers.—(1) Any Minister needing a Supply is directed to communicate with the Chairman of the District before applying to the President; and the Chairman is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal inquiry, that an efficient local Supply cannot be obtained.

(2) Any Minister on whose behalf a Supply has been appointed shall retain the Supply for one month after he has given notice to the President that his services will no longer be required—unless the President has employment for him sooner. And such Minister when he gives notice to the President that, after a given date, the services of the Supply will be no longer required, shall, at the same time, notify the fact to the Chairman of the District.

(3) The Ex-President shall furnish to the Conference, at the commencement of the Pastoral Session, a list of all Ministers who have had Supplies during any part of the preceding year, with the dates in each case on which the Supply was sent and withdrawn. And on receiving this list, the Conference shall appoint a Committee to inquire whether these Ministers are physically competent to take Circuits. (Summary, p. 227.)

77. Payment of Supplies for Ministers.—(1) Every Probationer sent by the President as a Supply shall be paid at the rate of Thirty Guineas a year for the time he is in the Circuit; this allowance being in addition to Board and Lodging.

N.B.—To this payment is added a bonus at the rate of £20 10*s.* a year.

(2) In regard to Travelling Expenses, a Probationer sent to a Circuit as a Supply is dealt with on the same principle as one who is appointed by the Conference to his first Circuit. Once arrived in a Circuit as a Supply, he receives his travelling expenses from that Circuit to another when removed by the President during the year, or by the Conference at the end of the year.

(3) In respect of payment, the year of a trained man on the President's List of Reserve, appointed in connection with, or immediately after, the Conference, shall reckon from the first day of September to the last day of August. (Summary, pp. 227–8.)

78. A "Supply" in relation to a Third Year Appointment.—A Probationer sent by the President as a Supply is not thereby disqualified for appointment for a third year to the Circuit where he served as a Supply. (Summary, p. 425.)

79. List of Reserve.—(1) Except in special cases, the President's List of Reserve shall consist of men who have been trained in the Theological Institution.

(2) The retiring President shall furnish to the Designation Committee a Report as to the health and fitness for our Work of those Probationers who have been, during the year, on his List of Reserve; the Committee to report to the Conference.

(3) At the beginning of the Pastoral Session of each Conference the retiring President shall furnish a List of the names and addresses of the Preachers on his List of Reserve, with particulars of their employment during the year. The List shall contain (1) the names of those sent out as Supplies by the President, with the date of appointment; (2) the names of those employed under private arrangement.

(4) All applications for the services of Probationers on the List of Reserve shall be forwarded to the President of the Conference not later than July 1 in each year; and a Committee to classify the cases shall meet, when necessary, during the Sessions of each Conference. (Summary, p. 228.)

80. Special Discipline Committee of Theological Institution.—The work and fitness of every Student shall be fully reported upon year by year by a Special Committee of each Branch of the Institution, consisting of the Tutors of that Branch, four other Ministers, and eight Laymen, who shall be chosen by the Local Executive Committee, but shall report to the General Discipline Committee. (Summary, p. 221.)

81. Students and Probationers.—(1) (a) The interval between the acceptance of a Candidate and his reception into Full Connexion shall normally be Seven Years. This period shall be spent by him partly as a Student at some branch of the Theological Institution (usually for three or four years) and the remainder of the period as a Probationer in Circuit or other Connexional work.

(b) Where practicable, all Preachers shall have had experience of Circuit work before being received into Full Connexion with the Conference. The Conference recognises that there are special cases in which exception must be made.

(c) The Probation is not to be considered as completed until the Probationer is received into Full Connexion with the Conference, and no Preacher on Trial is to marry during his Probation.

(d) The Probationary period of a Candidate accepted for Home or Foreign "Immediate" shall be four years.

(e) Candidates for the Ministry who at the beginning of the Connexional year following their acceptance have obtained a Degree at a University in Great Britain or Ireland, or have passed an equivalent examination, shall have the interval of Seven Years reduced to five, provided that the Committee for the Oversight and Examination of Probationers judges that their previous course of study justifies the reduction.

N.B.—(i) Candidates for the Ministry who shall obtain a University Degree or its equivalent by the end of their first year in College, shall under the same conditions have the interval of seven years reduced to six years.

(ii) Accepted Candidates for the Ministry who are permitted to continue their studies for a University Degree before entering a Branch of the Institution shall be considered as beginning the interval when their University course is completed. The length of the interval shall then be determined upon the basis of the above paragraphs. (Mins., 1924, p. 335.)

(iii) These Regulations shall apply to Candidates accepted from the Welsh Districts. (Minutes, 1925, p. 318.)

(f) All the above Regulations are subject to satisfactory yearly Reports both in College (Summary, p. 220) and in the Probationary years in Circuit or other Connexional work (Summary, p. 241).

(2) The Representative of each branch of the Institution to the Stationing Committee shall advise as to the appointment to Circuits of Students who have completed their term in the College he represents, and especially as to the appointment of any Student of the first or second year, should it be found necessary to make such an appointment.

(3) (a) Before calling out any Student to supply, the President shall consult with the Staff of the College in which the Student resides.

(b) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and were not called out during their third year by the President, and have not received appointments at the Conference, shall be placed on the President's List of Reserve.

(c) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, but were called out during the previous year by the President, yet have not received appointments at the Conference, are under the care and at the cost of the Home Mission Committee.

(d) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and have been sent by the President as supplies, shall, when their services are no longer required, be placed by the President under the direction of the Home Mission Committee, which shall be responsible for their maintenance; the Committee shall, however, be entitled to a week's notice from the President before such Student receives another appointment. (Summary, pp. 231–3.)

82. Probationers and Reports concerning General Fitness.—The District Synods shall be required to declare their judgment, year by year, as to the general fitness for our work in all its details, of the Preachers on Trial resident in the several Districts. This judgment shall be furnished to the Committee for the Oversight and Examination of Probationers. (Summary, p. 241.)

83. Probationers to be Received into Full Connexion.—(1) Before a Probationer is recommended to be received into Full Connexion, the several reports on his case from his acceptance as a Candidate (or a summary of them) shall be presented to the Synod, together with the judgment upon them of the Committee for the Oversight and Examination of Probationers. This Committee shall have power to recommend to the Synod, either that a Probationer's reception into Full Connexion be deferred, or made conditional upon his satisfying further tests.

(2) Before any Preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful oral examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament.

This Oral Examination may be omitted when the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works is satisfactory.

(3) Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves our Discipline.

(4) The Welsh Assembly has power to arrest the Ordination of any Candidate for Ordination in the Welsh Districts, but not to proceed to Ordination in cases where the Welsh Synods decline to recommend. (Summary, pp. 241–2.)

84. Probationers' Reading and Book Lists.—(1) The Probationers' Oversight Committee is instructed to prepare, and, at the beginning of the Connexional Year, to send to each Probationer, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the Scriptural Doctrine of the Church. The General Secretaries shall send to each Probationer, early in April, a classified Form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year.

(2) This Form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. When the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairman shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list.

N.B.—The Synod may appoint a Committee to examine the Book Lists in detail and to report to the Synod. (Summary, pp. 240–1.)

85. Probationers and Wesley's Works.—Those Preachers on Trial who do not already possess Wesley's Works are required to procure them during the period of their Probation, and shall be allowed to pay for them to our Book Steward by such instalments as may best suit their convenience. (Summary, p. 234.)

86. Probationers and Preaching during the Synods.—Whenever practicable, Preachers on Trial shall preach during the District Synods. (Summary, p. 234.)

87. Probationers on the Foreign Field.—The Conference directs that the Pastoral Committee of the Missionary Society shall transmit to the Committee on the Oversight of Probationers its report and recommendation on any Probationer stationed abroad in the last year of his Probation, or earlier if he returns to the Home Work, and that the Oversight Committee shall in each case make its own recommendation to the Conference. (Minutes, 1924, p. 293.)

88. Probationers returning from the Mission Field.—If a Preacher on Trial enter upon the Home Work after spending part of his probation on the Foreign Field, the Missionary Secretaries shall furnish the Chairman of the District to which he is appointed with a Report upon each year of the Probation which has been spent abroad. This Report shall be laid by the Chairman before the District Synod in May. (Summary, pp. 234–5.)

89. Probationers and their First Circuit.—(1) The Conference recommends the Chairmen of District Synods, whenever a Probationer receives his first appointment within their respective Districts, to arrange, as early as possible in the Connexional Year, and at a suitable place, a Dedicatory Service, in which the Chairman shall affectionately welcome the Probationer to his sphere of work, commend him to the prayers of the assembled Church and congregation, and speak to him such words of counsel and encouragement as he shall deem fitting, and the service shall be followed by the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

(2) A copy of the "Resolutions on Pastoral Work" shall be presented by the Book Steward, under the direction of the Chairman of each District, to every Probationer on his first appointment to a Circuit. (Summary, p. 233.)

90. Administration of the Sacraments by Probationers.—(1) The Conference directs the Stationing Committee, year by year, to prepare a List of appointments in which permission should be granted to Probationers to administer the Sacraments. In cases of special emergency, application for a dispensation shall be made to the President of the Conference through the Chairman of the District. (Summary, pp. 38.)

(2) A "Form of Dispensation" signed by the President shall be supplied year by year to each Probationer to whom a Dispensation is given. (Minutes, 1925, p. 282.)

91. Ministers and Probationers and the Annuitant Society.—The Conference directs that, in future, each Minister and Probationer shall be required to become a Member of the Annuitant Society, and that every Candidate for the Ministry, if accepted, shall state his willingness to conform to this Rule. (Summary, pp. 233–4.)

92. Candidates for the Ministry.—(1) Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the Character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his Colleague or Colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary Station, the Character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District. (Summary, p. 196.)

It is required that in the written character of Candidates for the Ministry the Superintendent shall give information as to whether the Candidate has had "fruit" to his preaching. (Summary, p. 196.)

No Candidate shall be nominated until he has been heard by the Superintendent and by his Colleagues. Full opportunity should also be given to the members of the Quarterly Meeting to hear the Candidate before the nomination is made. (Summary, p. 190.)

In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the District Synod. (Summary, p. 196.)

Where Candidates are in temporary residence in any Circuit for the purpose of special theological training, they shall be recommended as Candidates by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit in which they have resided and worked as Local Preachers, and not by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit in which they are temporarily residing. (Summary, pp. 196–7.)

(2) Whilst, as a general rule, Candidates should be fully accredited Local Preachers, yet the door should be left open for exceptional cases. (Summary, p. 191.)

(3) Every Candidate shall, at or before the time of the May District Synod, preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidate is proposed; and a special Report of the Sermon shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates. (Summary, p. 194.)

(4) Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synod for the hearing of each Candidate by three Ministers of the District, other than those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; and such Ministers shall suggest a mark, and immediately forward their Report to the Rev. W. PERCY HUTTON, B.A., Wesley Manse, New Road, Willenhall, Staffs. (Summary, p. 195.)

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript to the Secretaries of the Special Examination Committee. (Summary, p. 198.)

(5) In valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 shall be adopted; number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest.

The seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very Good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very Poor. The marks 1, 2, 3, shall denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair). (Summary, pp. 193–4.)

(6) The Summary of Methodist Law and Discipline takes the place of the Large Minutes, and Candidates are required to read the Abridgment of the Summary. (Summary, p. 191.)

(7) Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the General Work. (Summary, p. 195.)

In the case of Candidates from the Welsh Districts, the offer "General" is to be interpreted as meaning "Home, Foreign, or Welsh." (Minutes, 1924, p. 339.)

(8) Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution. (Summary, p. 216.)

93. Candidates for the Ministry: Procedure in Conference.—(1) When Candidates are under consideration the Secretary of the Committee shall propose for acceptance en bloc those Candidates (A) unanimously recommended by the July Committee.

(2) Similarly the Secretary of the Committee shall propose for rejection en bloc those Candidates (D) unanimously not recommended, thus saving valuable time for the consideration of any critical cases.

(3) Candidates concerning whom there was division of opinion in the July Committee (B & C) shall be considered individually by the Conference.

(4) Any proposal to reverse the recommendation of the July

Committee should be notified to the Secretaries of the Committee on the first day of the Pastoral Conference, so that full records may be at hand when such cases come before Conference.

(5) To carry any proposal to reverse the recommendation of the Committee in the case of Candidates of the " D " Class, a two-thirds majority shall be necessary.

94. Candidates on the List of Reserve.—(1) Every accepted Candidate on the List of Reserve who is not appointed by the President shall be placed under the care of the Superintendent of the Circuit in which he resides, who shall be responsible for furnishing to the Designation Committee the required report concerning the said Candidate.

(2) Candidates on the List of Reserve who receive an appointment shall be required to take a course of Reading to be prescribed by the Probationers' Oversight Committee, varying according to the date of appointment. This Committee shall satisfy itself that its requirements have been observed, and shall report to the Designation Committee.

(3) As proper time for study is essential to the work of our Probationers, the Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits and Missions to arrange accordingly. The Conference directs the Secretary of the Examination Committee to report to the Designation Committee those cases in which, in consequence of pressure of special work, there has been comparative failure in the Courses of Study for two successive years. (Summary, pp. 228–9.)

95. Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Churches.—(1) The Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and the Candidates from other Conferences and Churches shall apply in all particulars to married men who are accepted in the ordinary way as Candidates for the Ministry; and the payments required therein shall be made, and the privileges described therein shall begin to be enjoyed, in both cases, at the time of their admission into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Summary, pp. 197–8.)

(2) The following is the revised scale of payments to be made to the Connexional Funds by Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches, and married men received as Candidates:

1. To the Home Mission Fund ..	£180.
2. To the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children	£88 8 0 for each child (of which £42 is reckoned as being on Maintenance Account).

3. To the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund .. £9 for each year counted, upon admission by the Conference.

N.B.—(1) In view of the fact that, ordinarily, claims upon the Maintenance Section of the Children's Fund do not arise during the first five years of a Minister's term of service; and seeing that the Memorandum of Agreement does not contemplate the case of married men being received into the Wesleyan Methodist Church who may have children born during their Probation, the scale of payments is revised so as to meet the equity of such cases, viz. that for each year of probation in which no claim arises one-fifth of the amount charged for maintenance shall be remitted.

(2) The amount charged shall be fully paid up before such Probationer is received into full Connexion, and before his child is admitted as a claimant upon the Fund.

(3) A written acknowledgment of every such arrangement shall be signed by the father of the child, and be preserved by the General Secretary.

96. Provincial Synods and Candidates for the Ministry.—In those areas of the Mission field in which Provincial Synods have been established, the recommendation of the Provincial Synod shall be required: (1) Before a Candidate for the Ministry from a District within the Provincial area is received on trial by the Conference; (2) Before a Candidate for admission into Full Connexion from a District within the Provincial area is received into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Summary, p. 365.)

II. THE DISTRICT.

1. SYNODS.

97. District Synods, 1928.—The Annual Meetings of the several District Synods shall be held between May 13 and 20, with the exception of those of the First North Wales, Second North Wales, South Wales, Lincoln, Hull, Isle of Man, and Scotland Districts.

98. Attendance of Ministers at Annual District Synods.—(1) The attendance of all the Ministers at their respective Synods (unless they are excused by dispensation of the Synod) is required by the Conference. No Minister shall be permitted subsequently to answering questions affecting Character to absent himself from any of the Sessions of the Synod without the permission of the Chairman. The above Regulation shall be printed in the form summoning the Ministers to the Meetings of the Synod. (Summary, p. 343.)

99. Supernumeraries and District Synods.—(1) Supernumerary Ministers, with the exception of those who have received permission to reside abroad, shall be considered to belong to the Districts in which their names appear in the Minutes of the Conference. They shall attend the annual Synods of their own Districts, unless they receive a Dispensation allowing them to be absent. They shall be subject to their own Synods in all matters of Discipline. In case of unavoidable absence from the Annual Synod, they shall send to the Chairman, in due time, a statement concerning their continued belief in our Doctrines.

(2) A Supernumerary who removes into another District after the publication of the Minutes of the Conference may, by arrangement with his own Chairman, attend the Synod of the District in which he resides. In that case he must give notice to the Chairman of the District in which he is resident, of his intention to be present at the Synod. Such attendance, however, shall not, in any degree, remove him from the jurisdiction of his own Synod, to which he is responsible in all matters of Doctrine and Discipline.

(3) Since all Supernumeraries are required to attend the May Synod, their expenses shall be paid by the Secretary of the District Synod, and be included in the Synod Assessment on the Circuits for District Expenses. (Summary, pp. 320–1.)

100. Conversation on the Work of God.—The Conversation on the Work of God in the Pastoral Session of the Synod provides a valuable opportunity, which should be fully used, for consultation on the supreme business of the Churches. The Conversation may be introduced by an appropriate address from the Chairman of the District, by the use of the Responsive Service of Praise and Prayer, or by the reading of the Liverpool Minutes. (Minutes, 1927, p. 293.)

101. Expenses of Interchanges of Ministers.—The expense of interchanges between Ministers residing in various Circuits appointed by the Conference shall in no case fall upon the Ministers themselves, but shall be provided by the Circuits concerned, under the direction of the District Synods. (Summary, p. 135.)

102. Additional or Fewer Ministers.—All applications for additional Ministers, or for the reduction of the number of Ministers in any Circuit, shall be considered by the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall report thereon to the May Synod. (Summary, pp. 453-4.)

103. Election of Ministers to attend the Conference.—(1) The election of Ministers to attend the Conference in its Representative Session shall be made by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who may express desire to attend the Conference.

(2) The Ministers so elected shall have permission to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session.

(3) The Ministers necessary to complete the number permitted to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session shall then be elected.

(4) In the event of any Minister elected to attend the Conference in its Representative Session offering "to provide for himself," his election shall not thereby be rendered void. (Summary, p. 340.)

104. Election of Lay Representatives to the Conference.—(1) No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected by the Conference, or by the May Meeting of the Synod, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his nomination in the District Synod, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a member of a District Synod. Any Layman nominated in a District Synod must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District.

(2) Duly qualified and elected women are eligible as Lay Representatives to the Conference.

(3) The election of Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Meeting of the District Synods; such nomination to be by the Lay members only.

(4) The Conference recommends the Synods to re-elect annually, when practicable, one-third of the total number of Lay Representatives from among such of the Lay Representatives elected at the previous May Synod as shall be eligible and shall offer themselves for re-election. (Summary, pp. 395-6.)

105. Substitutes for Representatives to Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Ministers or Laymen elected by the Synod to attend the Conference in its Representative Session being unable to fulfil their appointments, they shall inform the Chairman of the District before the beginning of the Conference, and their place or places shall then be taken by the person or persons who received the highest number of votes next to those elected. (Summary, p. 340.)

106. Re-election on Synod Committees.—In harmony with the legislation with reference to re-election on Connexional Committees [S.O. 2 (3)], the Regulations in regard to the election of Members of Synod Committees shall read: one Lay member shall retire annually, but shall be eligible for re-election on the vote of two-thirds of the Synod. (Summary, p. 337.)

107. District Home Mission and Chapel Committee.—(1) The District Home Mission and Chapel Committee consists of ten Ministers and ten Lay members, to be chosen at the September Synod.

The ministerial section of the Committee shall include the Chairman of the District and the Secretary of the District Synod, who shall be members ex-officio, and two Secretaries of the Committee to be appointed by the September Synod, one of whom shall have special charge of all schedules and documents relating to Chapel affairs. The Lay members so appointed shall during their tenure of office be members of the Synod.

(2) Two Ministers and two Lay members shall retire annually by rotation, but shall be eligible for re-election on the vote of two-thirds of the Synod.

(3) The Synod shall also have power, if it be deemed desirable, to appoint as associated members of the Committee five Ministers and five Lay members, the latter of whom may be selected from members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in the District, whether members of the Synod or otherwise, but this election shall not constitute such persons members of the Synod.

(4) The Committee shall meet at stated intervals, to be determined in each case by the Synod, and at such other times as the Chairman shall see fit to summon it.

(5) The Committee shall discharge the duties heretofore assigned to the District Home Mission and District Chapel Committees respectively. Special consideration shall be given to all applications for Grants to dependent Circuits and Home Mission Stations, and to all requests for additional Ministers, or for the reduction in the number of Ministers, and the Committee shall prepare recommendations to the Synod on all such applications and requests.

(6) The Committee shall consider and advise the Synod respecting all proposals for the division or amalgamation of Circuits, or alteration of the boundaries of Circuits, and shall minutely inquire into the circumstances of our Churches, and of the population, and as to the number of effective Local Preachers, Class Leaders, and responsible Office-bearers, so as to avoid the creation of weak Circuits or of Circuits unable to deal with the needs of large and populous localities.

(7) The Committee shall either itself, or by its Sub-Committees, at least once in every year meet the Ministers, Circuit Stewards, and Lay Representatives in the Synod of each dependent Circuit and Home Mission Station in the District, and shall receive such statements of accounts and such other information as will enable them to give suitable advice respecting the finances and conditions of work in such Circuits.

(8) In any case in which the Conference shall empower the Synod to appoint a Committee for the management of any special Mission in the District, it shall be competent for the Synod, if it deem such a course desirable, to appoint the Home Mission and Chapel Committee of the Synod to act as such Committee of Management.

(9) The Committee may advise respecting the purchase of Sites, and the promotion of schemes for the extension of Methodism in both towns and villages.

(10) The Committee shall be empowered to institute inquiries as to the best methods of reviving and extending the work of God in those Circuits which are stationary or declining, or in which the growth of the population, or the boundaries of the Circuit, have made adequate efforts by the Circuit impossible.

(11) The Committee shall have power to appoint a Sub-Committee that can easily and promptly be called together to consider, in conjunction with the Chairman of the District, any ordinary applications intended for the Monthly Meetings of the Chapel Committee. All such applications, with the Resolutions adopted thereon, shall be reported at the next meeting of the Committee. Any case which shall be deemed by the Chairman specially important and critical shall be considered, in the first instance, by the full Committee.

(a) No sale of any Chapel for which a substitute is not to be provided, or respecting which there is a difference of opinion in the Circuit, shall be recommended without the sanction of the full Committee.

(b) The examination and report on the Annual Chapel Schedules shall be made at a Meeting of the full Committee to be held prior to the May Synod.

(12) The Committee may appoint one of its members as a Lay Treasurer for any Funds at the disposal of the Synod, and one of its members to be associated with the Ministerial Secretary, having special relation to Chapel affairs.

(13) Besides attending to the formal business of the Committee, it is hoped that all its members will take a personal interest in the Home Mission and Chapel schemes of the several Circuits, and will seek in every possible way to promote the interests of the General Funds in the District. (Summary, pp. 451–3.)

108. Home Missionary Ministers.—A special inquiry shall be made at the May District Synods whether the regulations for the employment of Home Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home Missionary Ministers are appointed; and a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference. (Summary, p. 285.)

Report in Synod on Open-air Work.—The Conference directs that, in order to answer the question relating to Open-air Work on the May Synod Agenda, an inquiry on this subject shall be sent to each circuit in the District by the District Home Mission Secretary, who shall present a report to the Synod. 145. Circuit Missionary Accounts.—In no Circuit shall the Missionary Accounts for the year be closed until they have been passed by the Local or Circuit Missionary Committee, and duly signed by the Superintendent of the Circuit. (Summary, pp. 305–6.)

1. QUARTERLY MEETING.

146. Ministers' Allowances: Method of Payment.—The Conference recommends that as far as possible there shall be throughout the Connexion a uniform method in the payment of Ministers' Allowances; viz. that at the September Quarterly Meeting a full Quarter's Allowance should be paid to each newly appointed Minister

The Conference directs that this recommendation be read in every September Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 158.)

147. Sanitary Condition of Ministers' Houses.—(1) Circuit Stewards are required to have an inspection of every Minister's House, at every change of Minister, by an independent sanitary expert (and wherever possible such inspection shall be by the Sanitary Inspector of the Local Authority), and to forward a Certificate of the good sanitary condition of the House to the Chairman of the District before August 21.

(2) The Conference directs that whenever a Minister is appointed to a Circuit or Department for more than three consecutive years, there shall be a sanitary inspection of the House in which he resides, and a Certificate of its satisfactory sanitary condition shall be presented, not only when the Minister is first appointed, but after every three years of his residence.

(3) Attention shall be called to these requirements at the May Synod, and Inquiry shall be made at the September Synod whether these requirements of the Conference have been carried out. (Summary, p. 138.)

(4) The following question shall be inserted in the Order and Form of Business of the September Synod: "Has any case of infectious disease occurred during the past year? If so, has the house been duly disinfected?" (Agenda, 1924, p. 17; Daily Record, p. 52.)

148. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the boundaries of Circuits, the Conference directs that, in future, the boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall be fully stated in the Minutes of the District Synod to which they belong, and the Secretary of the Synod shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and in such cases, copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned shall be coloured so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust Deeds of the Circuits. These arrangements shall be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits. (Summary, p. 133.)

149. Discontinuance of Public Services.—(1) Before Public Services are finally discontinued in any Chapel held on a Connexional Trust, at least three months' notice of such intention shall be given by the Superintendent Minister to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, and also to the General Secretary of the Home Mission Committee, in order that steps may be taken, if thought advisable, to avoid such a necessity.

(2) Before any place is taken off the Plan it is necessary to obtain the sanction of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 176.)

150. The Ballot in Quarterly Meetings.—(1) At the elections in Quarterly Meetings of the Representatives to the District Synods the usage of open voting may be departed from, and the elections decided by ballot, after nomination by the Lay members of the Meeting.

(2) In respect of all other elections made at Quarterly Meetings, the Conference re-affirms its declaration of 1884, namely: "The practice of voting by ballot in the administration of Methodism in our Circuits is contrary to long-established usage, and its adoption would in various ways be injurious to the interests of our Societies." (Summary, p. 148.)

151. Lay Representation of Circuits in the Synods.—(1) Each Circuit shall be represented in the Synod by its Circuit Stewards, or, in their unavoidable absence, by substitutes, in accordance with the existing Regulation on that subject.

(2) In addition to the Circuit Stewards, the March Quarterly Meeting of the Circuits may elect, as members of the Synod at its next meetings in May and September, Lay members, who are considered suitable on general grounds, in the following proportion; viz. (a) Circuits providing for one or two Ministers in Full Connexion shall elect one representative; (b) Circuits providing for more than two Ministers in Full Connexion may elect one additional Representative for each Minister in Full Connexion over the number of two. (Summary, p. 137.)

152. Circuit Stewards and the Synods.—Circuit Stewards, who are otherwise members of the District Synod, shall not be at liberty to decline to attend the District Synod as Stewards, and then claim the right to sit and vote by virtue of any other office. (Summary, p. 137.)

153. Substitutes for Lay Members of Synods.—(1) The Circuit Quarterly Meeting in March is entitled to elect, provisionally, a substitute for each of the Circuit Stewards, whether he shall, or shall not, have declared his ability and willingness to attend the Annual Synod in May; also a substitute for each of the Representatives, or for the Representative. Any Circuit Steward or Representative who shall find himself unable to attend the Synod shall inform the Superintendent, who shall thereupon invite the substitute to be present.

(2) Substitutes for Circuit Stewards duly elected at the March Quarterly Meeting shall be empowered, if need be, to attend the September as well as the May Synod. (Summary, pp. 137–8.)

154. Eligibility for Membership of the Synods.—No one is eligible for membership of a District Synod, or upon any Committee thereof, who is not a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. (Summary, p. 137.)

155. Quarterly Meeting Inquiry concerning Foreign Missions.—(1) In every Circuit Quarterly Meeting inquiry shall be made from the Chair as to the amount received on behalf of Foreign Missions during the quarter, and the payment thereof to the District Treasurer.

(2) At the March Quarterly Meeting the Annual Report and Audited Accounts are to be presented, and the Circuit Missionary Committees and Officers for the ensuing year are to be appointed.

(3) In the appointment of the Circuit Missionary Committee, due representation of the Women's Auxiliary should be provided.

(4) The above instructions [pars. (1) and (2)] apply also to the Women's Auxiliary. (Summary, pp. 304–7.)

156. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—(1) In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation is allowed: One-third of the sums received from Juvenile Associations to be paid to the Funds of the Foreign Missionary Society, it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years; one-third to the Home Mission Fund; one-third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting.

(2) A Return of the gross amount collected in the various Circuits by Juvenile Missionary Associations, with the proportions of that amount allocated to the various objects, shall be made yearly, at the May Meeting of the District Synods. (Summary, pp. 140–1.)

157. The Weekly Offertory.—The weekly, Offertory System shall not be adopted in any chapel without the consent of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 150.)

158. Grants towards Removal Expenses.—If any Minister be appointed to a Circuit, after an invitation sent by that Circuit to the Minister, every expense incurred by his removal, beyond what the Circuit he is leaving may provide, shall be borne by his new Circuit. (Summary, p. 158.)

159. Report of Connexional Funds at June Quarterly Meeting.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting affords a most valuable opportunity for bringing the Connexional principle before the leading officials of our Circuits; and the Conference recommends that at each June Quarterly Meeting this should be done, and a report made of the Circuit contributions to each Connexional Fund during the year. (Summary, p. 162.)

For list of Connexional Funds, see pp. 374–6; also Summary, pp. 163, 441–5.

160. Wesley Guild Circuit Returns.—The Circuit Guild Returns which are prepared for the District Synod shall be submitted to and considered by the March Quarterly Meeting in the same way as other Departmental Returns. (Summary, p. 129.)

161. Memorials to Conference.—(1) Should a majority of the June Quarterly Meeting, in any Circuit, be of opinion that it is desirable to address to the Conference a Memorial on any Connexional subject, and agree to do so, that Meeting itself, subject to the regulations which follow, shall have authority to adopt and transmit to the Conference such a Memorial. And at such Meeting any member thereof may propose, for consideration, the propriety of addressing a Memorial to the Conference.

(2) Any member of the Quarterly Meeting intending to propose a Resolution, and bring the same before the June Quarterly Meeting as the basis of a Memorial to the Conference, shall give notice, with a copy in writing, of the particular Motion or Resolution which he intends to propose, either at the March Quarterly Meeting, or to the Superintendent Minister not less than seven days preceding the date of the June Quarterly Meeting; and no proposal of which such notice has not been given shall be brought forward that year. But should the Quarterly Meeting adopt the substance or principle of a Resolution so brought forward, it may amend, as well as simply adopt or reject it.

(3) A Memorial, founded on such Motion or Resolution, if approved by a majority of the persons present, shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting; and he shall add a footnote stating the number of persons present, and also the number voting for and against the Memorial.

(4) The Quarterly Meeting has complete freedom to memorialise the Conference. Provided that the Regulations of this Standing Order are observed, it is not competent for the Chairman of a June Quarterly Meeting to rule any Memorial out of order. The Conference reserves to itself alone the right to determine whether a Memorial contains a proposal of a revolutionary character, or is subversive of the doctrine or discipline of Wesleyan Methodism.

(5) The Conference cannot sanction such Memorials as involve a direct interference on the part of one Circuit with the local affairs or proceedings of any other Circuit.

(6) No Memorial can be received from the Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit except in manuscript.

(7) Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings are to be forwarded by the Superintendents of Circuits to the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, the Rev. JAMES R. IRVING, Manse, Anchorage Road, Sutton Coldfield, Birmingham, not later than June 28. Any Memorial adopted by a Quarterly Meeting which is held too late for this to be done, shall be forwarded as soon as possible to the Convener, who shall, if necessary, present it to the Conference without its being printed.

(8) All Memorials thus received by the Conference shall be referred to a Committee of its members, who shall carefully classify and consider the whole, and present their report thereon to the Conference.

(9) The consideration and determination of all questions raised by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof, respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide. (Summary, pp. 144–5.)

162. Status of Wesley Deaconesses.—Inasmuch as Wesley Deaconesses are set apart to a Ministry of Women by the recognised authorities of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, after due training and examination, these Deaconesses when acting under the direction of the Warden and Committee of the Wesley Deaconess Institute and appointed by them to labour in our Circuits, with the approval of the Quarterly Meeting, shall be Members of the Leaders' Meetings of the Society and Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed. (Summary, p. 186.)

163. Circuit Lay Treasurer of Connexional Funds.—The Circuit Official appointed as Lay Treasurer and Secretary on behalf of Connexional Funds to relieve Superintendents of their Financial and Statistical burdens, being a member of Society, shall be an ex-officio member of the Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 253.)

164. Circuit Lay Treasurer of the Theological Institution Fund.—The Conference authorises the appointment of a Lay Treasurer in every Circuit where possible, in order to obtain increased subscriptions. (Summary, p. 216.)

165. Circuit Lay Secretary and Treasurer for Foreign Missions.—The Circuit Lay Secretary and the Circuit Treasurer for Foreign Missions are ex-officio members of the Quarterly Meeting, provided they are members of Society in that Circuit. (Summary, p. 305; Minutes, 1926, pp. 68, 324.)

166. Circuit Secretary of the Women's Auxiliary (now designated the Women's Department of the W.M.M.S.).—The Circuit Secretary of the Women's Auxiliary, being a Member of Society in that Circuit, and whose election is made or confirmed by the Quarterly Meeting, shall be ex-officio a member of that Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 307.)

167. Lay Secretary of Circuit Sunday School Council.—The Lay Secretary of the Circuit Sunday School Council, being a member of Society in the Circuit, and over twenty-one years of age, is ex-officio a member of the Quarterly Meeting. (Summary, p. 105.)

168. Annual Circuit Meeting of Class Leaders.—An annual Meeting of Class Leaders shall be established wherever possible in every Circuit. The Meeting shall consist of all the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to the Circuit, and all the Class Leaders and Assistant Leaders in the Circuit. All Leaders of Junior Society Classes shall be entitled to attend the Meeting, but only those can vote who have reached the age of twenty-one years. The Meeting shall be held annually at a time to be fixed by the September, or, where desirable, by the June, Quarterly Meeting. The Quarterly Meeting shall also appoint a Circuit Secretary. The Superintendent Minister is authorised to call Special Meetings when necessary. (Summary, p. 58.)

169. Central Mission Quarterly Meetings and Non-resident Trustees.—The direction that the Quarterly Meeting of the Manchester Mission (Oldham Street Circuit) shall include the Trustees of all Chapels and Mission Halls, who are members of Society, whether such Trustees are resident in the Circuit or not, shall apply to all the Central Missions whose Committees are appointed by the Conference. (Summary, p. 147.)

2. SUPERINTENDENTS.

170. Probationers and the Lord's Supper.—Superintendents are required to make the necessary arrangements in their Circuit Plans for securing to their Junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of the Lord's Supper. (Summary, p. 235.)

171. Reading of the Pastoral Address.—Superintendents are directed to appoint at each principal Chapel in their Circuits a Special Society Meeting, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read to the Society, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations. (Summary, p. 41.)

172. The Covenant Service in Villages.—As many of the Members of our Church in Village Societies cannot take part in the annual Covenant Service when held only in our principal Chapels, the Conference directs Superintendents to arrange, when necessary, for additional Covenant Services for the smaller Societies, to be conducted by Ministers on the week-nights at the commencement of the New Year; and that, in connection with these Services, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be administered. (Summary, p. 42.)

173. Administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on Weekdays.—The Conference is impressed with the advisability of arranging for the more frequent administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on week-days in those Places where it is difficult to arrange for its administration on Sundays. The Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits to pay special attention to this important matter. (Summary, p. 39.)

174. Minute Books in Discipline Cases.—In all our Circuits separate Minute Books shall be kept for cases of Discipline in Leaders' Meetings, and for such cases in Local Preachers' Meetings as seriously affect the moral character of Local Preachers; and that such Minute Books shall be under the care of the Superintendent Minister of the Circuit for the time being, who shall be responsible for their safe custody. (Summary, p. 52.)

175. Names and Addresses of Trustees.—The Superintendent shall annually revise the Names, Addresses, and Occupations of the Trustees of all our Trust Properties, as entered in the Circuit Book. (Summary, p. 79.)

176. Expulsion of Members.—Inasmuch as a Superintendent is directed to bring before the Weekly Meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit every case of proposed expulsion of a Member, in order that he may have the advantage of hearing the opinions and advice of his colleagues and co-pastors, before he shall finally decide on the course he ought to adopt, the Conference directs that when the Superintendent has not a Colleague, and cannot therefore consult a Weekly Meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit, he shall, in every case of the proposed expulsion of a Member of Society, take counsel with the Chairman of the District. (Summary, p. 33.)

177. Names and Addresses of Circuit Stewards.—The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman and the Secretary of the District Synod with names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting; and, immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting, with the name and address of any person elected to attend the May Synod in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such Synod; and also the names and addresses of those persons, in addition to the Circuit Stewards, who have been elected as Representatives to the Synod. (Summary, pp. 138, 160.)

178. Prison Chaplains.—Superintendent Ministers of Circuits in which County or Borough Prisons are situate are required to furnish each year in September to the Ministerial Secretary of the Home Missions' Prisons Sub-Committee the name and address of a Minister in the Circuit for recognition by the Governor of such jail as authorised to visit any Wesleyan prisoners. (Summary, pp. 274–5.)

179. Pastoral Oversight of Wesleyans in County Asylums.—The Pastoral oversight of Wesleyans in County Asylums shall be regarded as part of the duty of the Ministers in those Circuits in which County Asylums are situated. (Summary, p. 275.)

3. LOCAL PREACHERS.

180. Regulations regarding Local Preachers.—(1) Before any Candidate comes upon the Plan on Trial, he shall be examined by the Superintendent, or under his direction, in the Summary of Christian Doctrine and Bible History [The Catechisms of the Wesleyan Methodists, No. II], and, when necessary, in the elements of English Grammar. (Summary, pp. 174–5.)

(2) No Candidate shall be fully admitted as a Local Preacher until he has read the first four volumes of John Wesley's Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament; and until he has passed a satisfactory examination in the definitions and Scripture proofs of the leading Doctrines of Christianity, as there explained. (Summary, p. 173.)

(3) Before any Candidate is fully admitted as a Local Preacher he shall have been twelve months on probation. The Local Preachers' Meeting shall have power to extend the period of probation in individual cases if such a measure be deemed advisable. (Summary, p. 173.)

(4) All Local Preachers shall meet in class. (Summary, p. 172.)

(5) Wherever practicable, Local Preachers, after being received on Full Plan, shall be recognised at a Public Religious Service. (Summary, p. 174.)

In furtherance of the aim for the worthier admission of Local Preachers to Full Plan, a suitable Letter, signed by the President of the Conference, shall be given to each Local Preacher so received, such Letter to be handed to him either on his acceptance on Full Plan or at a Public Recognition Service. (Summary, p. 174.)

(6) A Local Preacher who shall be adjudged a bankrupt, or who shall make a composition with the general body of his creditors, shall thereby be suspended from his office as a Local Preacher until the Local Preachers' Meeting shall have decided whether the circumstances of the case are such as to justify his continuance on the Plan.

N.B.—This Regulation applies also to a Local Preacher who is a Director of a Company which is in similar financial circumstances. (Summary, p. 170.)

(7) Every duly accredited Local Preacher is entitled to be placed, without renewed trial or examination, upon the Plan of any Circuit to which he may remove; provided he present his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan, and has become a member of Society in that Circuit. This, of course, does not apply to Local Preachers on Trial.

The position of a Local Preacher on the Plan of the Circuit to which he may remove shall be decided by the Local Preachers' Meeting concerned. (Summary, pp. 172–3.)

(8) Before a Local Preacher from another branch of the Methodist Church is put on the Circuit Plan he shall satisfy the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting that he holds our Doctrines, approves our Discipline, and has competent abilities for the work. (Summary, p. 167.)

(9) The necessities of our work require that suitable persons should be employed in the capacity of Exhorters; such persons having the approbation of the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting. (Summary, p. 175.)

181. Local Preachers: Scheme of Study.—(1) All Local Preachers on Trial are urged to take a Special Course of study arranged by the Local Preachers' Committee through its Union for Biblical and Homiletic Study; the course to include Theology, Bible Study, Homiletics, and English Literature.

(2) In every Circuit an endeavour shall be made by the Local Preachers' Meeting to form a Local Preachers' Training Class, covering the subjects of the above-named Special Course and giving particular attention to preaching.

(3) An Annual Connexional Examination for Local Preachers, based upon the same Special Course and divided into two grades, (a) elementary, (b) advanced, shall be arranged by the Committee, and all Local Preachers on Trial are strongly advised to take the Elementary Paper during their probation, and the Advanced Paper the following year; the Committee to provide a suitable Certificate to be presented at the Circuit Local Preachers' Meeting, or at a special Recognition Meeting, to each successful candidate. (Minutes, 1926, pp. 146–7.)

182. Women Local Preachers.—The Conference declares that women are eligible to become fully accredited Local Preachers on the same conditions and shall hereafter enjoy the same rights and privileges as men who are Local Preachers. (Summary, p. 169.)

183. Wesley Deaconesses and Women Preachers.—The Conference grants permission to Local Preachers' Meetings, in the case of Wesley Deaconesses and other women who have already been preaching under the sanction of the Regulations of the Conference of 1910, to receive them upon Full Plan without further examination. (Summary, p. 169.)

184. Reading of Local Preachers on Trial.—(1) In every Local Preachers' Meeting the Superintendent shall inquire quarter by quarter as to the reading of Local Preachers on Trial, and especially as to their reading of Wesley's Sermons and Notes on the New Testament. (Summary, p. 174.)

(2) The Conference directs that the following question be added to the Order of Business for Local Preachers' Meetings:

> "Have the brethren on trial received information concerning the 'Union for Biblical and Homiletic Study,' and have they been advised to join?"

N.B.—The names of any willing to join are to be sent to the Lay Secretary of the Connexional Local Preachers' Committee. (Summary, pp. 176–7.)

185. Secretary of Local Preachers' Meeting and Connexional Committee.—The Secretary of the Local Preachers' Quarterly Meeting shall forward annually to the Connexional Local Preachers' Secretary the Circuit Plan for the March Quarter, and also send the name and address of any person received "on trial" as a Local Preacher or becoming a fully accredited Local Preacher in the Circuit. (Summary, p. 177.)

IV. THE SOCIETY.

186. Orthodoxy of Office-bearers.—No person shall, on any account, be permitted to retain any official situation in our Societies who holds opinions contrary to the total depravity of human nature, the divinity and atonement of Christ, the influence and witness of the Holy Spirit, and Christian holiness, as believed by the Methodists. (Summary, p. 44.)

187. The Society Meeting.—(1) The whole Society in each place shall, wherever possible, be called together, by appointment on the Circuit Plan, at least once a quarter, for purposes of general fellowship amongst its members, for testimony concerning Christian experience, and for pastoral guidance and common counsel in the things of the Kingdom of God, both as touching personal religion and the work of God in the congregation and neighbourhood.

(2) At the Society Meeting new members, after being reported to the Leaders' Meeting, shall be introduced by their Leaders to receive the right hand of fellowship. Members transferred from other Societies, or other Churches, shall be introduced. Baptisms that have taken place since the preceding meeting, and losses suffered through death or through the removal of any members of the Church, shall be reported. New appointments, and retirements of Class Leaders and Stewards, shall be announced. At the first meeting in the New Year the Roll of Membership, containing the names of all fully accredited members on the Class-books, as reported to the Leaders' Meeting, may be read in the Society, and each member shall be expected to answer to his name. It is recommended that once in the year, if not more frequently, the Society Meeting shall conclude with the observance of the Lord's Supper.

(3) None but members of our Church, with those on trial for membership, shall be admitted to the Meeting of the Society. It is desirable that the Quarterly Ticket of membership should be brought to the Meeting, and shown at the door on entrance. (Summary, p. 14.)

188. Recognition of New Members.—The public and formal Recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage new members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility.

Such recognition should be associated, wherever practicable, with the Public Service of the Lord's Day, morning or evening, and be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. In some places it might be found more expedient to recognise New Members at a Society Meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes; or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week-evening service.

The Conference therefore directs that, at least two or three times a year, if practicable, meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held in every Circuit, the frequency and exact nature of such meetings being left to the discretion of the Superintendent. (See "Form of Service," Minutes, 1894, pp. 448–54.)

If any have not previously received Christian Baptism, that Sacrament should be administered either before or in connection with the Recognition Service. (Summary, p. 19.)

1. LEADERS' MEETING.

189. Representation of Members in the Leaders' Meeting.—(1) The representation of our members in Local Church Management shall be secured by the enlargement of the Leaders' Meeting.

(2) The elected members of the Leaders' Meeting shall be in the proportion of one in fifty, or fraction of fifty, members of Society in connexion with that Leaders' Meeting up to four hundred, thus providing for a maximum of eight elected members.

(3) Persons thus elected to the Leaders' Meeting shall thereby become members of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

(4) Persons eligible for election to the Leaders' Meeting shall be not less than twenty-one years of age, and shall have been in continuous full membership for at least three years.

(5) Persons eligible to take part in the election of representatives to the Leaders' Meeting shall have been full members for at least twelve months, and shall be not less than twenty-one years of age. This shall not exclude from voting those persons who are already members of the Quarterly Meeting.

(6) Representatives to the Leaders' Meetings shall be chosen after nomination, either by open voting or by ballot, as the Meeting of Members may determine. The nomination shall be made in the Meeting by any member who is eligible to take part in the election. The election in each case shall be for one year, provided the membership be maintained.

(7) The election of Representatives shall take place annually at an aggregate Devotional Meeting of the Members of each Society to be held as early in the year as conveniently possible, and shall be presided over by the Superintendent Minister or one of his Colleagues; the Members to be admitted to the Meeting by showing their Ticket of membership for the previous Quarter.

(8) If a vacancy in the number of the elected Representatives should through any cause occur during the year, the place may be filled at a Society Meeting duly called and constituted, as in the case of the Meeting described in the preceding paragraph. (Summary, pp. 41–2.)

190. Disciplinary Functions.—The disciplinary functions of the enlarged Leaders' Meeting shall be the same as those exercised by the Leaders' Meeting as heretofore constituted. (Summary, p. 52.)

191. Chief or General Sunday School Superintendent.—The chief or general Superintendent of each Sunday School shall be ex-officio a member of the Leaders' Meeting of that Society with which the Sunday School is connected, he being a member of Society and not a member of any other Leaders' Meeting. (Summary, p. 52.)

192. Admission of Members.—(1) The Leaders' Meeting shall have a right to declare any person on Trial improper to be received into the Society; and, after such declaration, the Superintendent shall not admit such person into the Society.

(2) It never was intended that the names of all those who are on Trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on Trial, such objection may be stated by him, and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to the person so objected to at that Quarterly Visitation. (Summary, p. 18.)

193. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation. (Summary, p. 29.)

194. Trial of Members who are also Trustees.—(1) No Trustee, however accused or defective in conformity to the Rules of the Society, shall be removed from the Society unless his crime or breach of Rule be proved in the presence of the Trustees and Leaders, namely, the Leaders' Meeting of the particular Society of which he is a Member, together with the Trustees of the Chapel with which that Society is connected, such Trustees being themselves Members of the Methodist Society.

(2) When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purpose of the investigation. If the accused person is a Trustee, then there shall also be associated with the Leaders' Meeting, as above constituted, the Trustees of the Chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or, if there is no such chapel, then the Trustees of the Chapel in connection with the principal Society in the Circuit town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated unless he is himself a Member of the Society in the same Circuit. (Summary, pp. 31–2.)

195. Appeal to the Leaders' Meeting.—No Appeal to a Leaders' Meeting shall be received against an act of Discipline by a Minister, in withholding a Ticket of Membership, after the completion of twelve months from the time when the member has been informed by the Minister of such act of Discipline. (Summary, p. 35.)

196. Assistant Class Leaders.—Where a Society Class is large, a Leader infirm, or it appears otherwise expedient, an Assistant Leader may be appointed by the Leaders' Meeting on the nomination of the Superintendent, and such Assistant shall be a member of the Leaders' Meeting. The number of Assistant Leaders who shall be members of the Leaders' Meeting shall not exceed one Assistant for one class. Assistant Leaders shall be members of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. The appointment of Assistant Leaders shall be an annual instead of a permanent one. (Summary, p. 50.)

197. Junior Society Classes.—In connection with our Societies, Classes shall be generally established which shall directly provide for the religious instruction of young people. They shall have as their object the early conversion of children to God, their instruction and training in Christian doctrines and morality, and the development of Christian experience and character. For these purposes

Holy Scripture shall be largely used. As a rule, these Classes shall be met week by week. (Summary, p. 24.)

198. Leaders of Junior Society Classes and the Leaders' Meeting.—Leaders of Junior Society Classes shall be members of the Leaders' Meeting and the Circuit Quarterly Meeting, provided they have reached the age of twenty-one years. (Summary, p. 26.)

199. Quarterly Returns of Membership.—Where practicable, the numbers of each Society shall be read in the Leaders' Meeting immediately before each Quarter Day. (Summary, pp. 22, 54.)

200. Local Foreign Missionary Committee.—Where a Local Foreign Missionary Committee is not otherwise appointed, the Leaders' Meeting shall act in that capacity, and have power, for the transaction of Missionary Business, to co-opt other members. (Summary, p. 54.)

201. Combined Meetings in the Society.—For the purpose of representing, when necessary, the general interests of the Society in regard to any special purpose or object that needs to be dealt with, combined meetings of the Leaders' Meeting with the Trustees, the Local Sunday-school Council, or any other local body connected with the Society, may be held occasionally. (Summary, p. 52.)

2. TRUSTEES.

202. Political Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Trust Premises.—Having regard to the fact that a desire has been expressed in some places to use our Trust Property for the purpose of Political Meetings, the Conference declares that such uses are not contemplated by the provisions of any of our Trust Deeds; and it reminds Superintendents and Trustees that our Trust Properties can only be lawfully used for the purposes provided for in the Trust Deeds. The Conference further expresses the conviction that any such use of the Premises as that suggested would be detrimental to the best interests of our Societies by endangering their peace and unity. (Summary, p. 63.)

In regard to allowing the use of Wesleyan Methodist Trust Property for meetings of Parish Councils, see Summary, p. 63.

203. Entertainments on Trust Premises.—The Conference directs that the previous Standing Order upon this subject be re-stated as follows:

The Conference has reason to believe that in certain localities entertainments have been allowed which are, to say the least, highly inexpedient, and that in a few cases the practice obtains of holding entertainments which are altogether inconsistent with the purposes for which our property is held in Trust. The Conference therefore directs that the greatest possible care must be taken not to allow premises set apart for religious purposes to be used for entertainments which would bring a reproach upon the Church, or constitute a ground of offence to our people generally.

The Conference re-affirms its declaration that dancing, card playing, games of chance, theatrical entertainments, and amusements of a frivolous or vulgar type, are contrary to the general rules and usage of the people called Methodists as affecting the use of our Trust Property, and cannot be allowed.

The Conference is as strongly opposed as ever to our premises being used for such purposes, and earnestly deprecates any movement which would result in the general introduction of entertainments which require a dramatic licence. The Conference recognises, however, that there are entertainments of an innocent and helpful character for which a licence is required by the Public Authorities, primarily as a condition of public safety. It may therefore at times be necessary to apply for such a licence. In that case the Conference relies upon the loyalty of Trustees and Superintendents, and urges upon them the necessity of wise discrimination and careful oversight. It should always be remembered that our premises are held for religious worship, and no entertainment should be allowed which conflicts with the Trusts under which our property is held. Subject to the aforesaid statement, the Conference lays down the following conditions precedent to any application for a dramatic licence:

(1) No attempt shall be made to include entertainments of an undesirable character under cover of a dramatic licence.

(2) No entertainment which requires a dramatic licence shall be given on our premises without the programme being submitted to and approved by the Superintendent Minister or one of his colleagues.

(3) On all occasions when a dramatic licence is sought, it shall in each case be after the express vote of the Trustees, and the application shall be made on their behalf by some person duly authorised by the Trustees, subject to the consent of the Superintendent Minister.

(4) No application shall be made for a building to be regularly licensed for dramatic entertainments. (Agenda, 1924, p. 345; Minutes, 1924, p. 105.)

N.B.—1. The Conference suggests that entertainments which are not allowed on Trust Premises should not be allowed elsewhere in the name of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. (Daily Record, 1927, pp. 32, 72.)

2. For Raffles on Church Premises, see Summary, p. 508.

204. Masonic Services upon Methodist Premises.—The Conference is of opinion that the holding of Masonic Services upon Methodist premises is highly inexpedient, but directs that whenever requests are received for permission to hold such services the following safeguards must be complied with:

(i) The consent of the Superintendent who must be responsible for the Programme of Service, which must be submitted to him.

(ii) Such Service must be of a truly Christian character, must not be used for the advocacy of Freemasonry, and in Prayers and Hymns there must not be, by deletion or otherwise, a denial of the name of Christ as Saviour and Lord. (Minutes, 1927, pp. 291–2.)

205. Trust Premises and other Religious Societies.—The Conference resolves that our Trust premises shall not be let for any public religious meeting unless the Superintendent of the Circuit concerned be able to accept general responsibility for the teaching which shall be given. (Summary, p. 64.)

206. Friendly Societies and Meetings on Trust Premises.—Friendly Societies and Approved Societies under the National Insurance Act may be encouraged to hold their Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Schools or Vestries, especially where there is no other public building available for the purpose; care being taken to avoid any action which would render the Trust Property liable to rates. (Summary, p. 63.)

207. Voting in our Chapels on Municipal and other Matters.—It is not within the province of any person occupying our pulpits to submit Resolutions and take votes on municipal and semi-political matters, nor to ask the congregation to vote thereon at the close of the service in our chapels on the Lord's Day. (Summary, p. 64.)

208. Trusts and Connexional Funds.—The Conference of 1921 resolved as follows:

(1) In every place of worship throughout our Church, both in Circuits and in Missions, the Connexional Collections shall be duly announced, and the object of them explained to our people.

(2) In the case of Missions, bearing in mind that the cost of the upkeep of the property and all ordinary expenditure depend upon the Offertory, at least one-half of the collections taken on a given Sunday shall be paid to each of the Connexional Funds.

(3) Where the Envelope System is in use, an average of collections for the past three years shall be paid to each Connexional Fund, it being understood that this shall be budgeted for in the amounts required year by year by each Church. Special gifts should be encouraged at each anniversary, and private donations solicited. Whenever there is a surplus on the year's working of the system, the Connexional Funds should benefit pro rata with the local church fund.

(4) Circuits which do not adopt the Envelope System shall be directed to conform to Conference Regulations, and devote a whole Sunday's collections to each Connexional Fund.

(5) The Conference recognises that in this matter the case of Scotland is exceptional, and recommends that the present arrangements there for helping the Connexional Funds shall be continued. There are difficulties in altering existing arrangements in Scotland, but the Conference is hopeful that in the near future the Envelope System will be generally adopted, which it believes will help to solve the difficulties. (Summary, pp. 444–5.)

3: SUNDAY AND PRIMARY SCHOOLS.

209. Sunday School Official Meetings.*—The Superintendent Minister of the Circuit shall preside at the Annual Meeting of the Committee and Subscribers; also at all meetings of the Committee and at all meetings of the Teachers. If at any one of the said meetings the Superintendent Minister be not present, one of the other Ministers of the Circuit shall preside. If either at an Annual Meeting or at a meeting of the Committee no Minister is present, the meeting shall appoint one of the Officers of the institution to act as Chairman. If at any Teachers' Meeting no Minister is present, one of the Superintendents of the School shall preside. (Summary, p. 117.)

210. Representation of Sunday Schools in Circuit Quarterly Meetings.—(1) No one who is not a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of at least three years' continuous standing shall be ex-officio, or eligible to be elected as, a Representative from a Sunday School to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. No person shall be deemed eligible to represent a Sunday School at the Quarterly Meeting of any Circuit in which he is not at the time a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

(2) The chief or general Superintendent of every Sunday School shall be a member, ex-officio, of the Quarterly Meeting.

(3) In Schools with an average attendance of one hundred to three hundred scholars, in addition to the ex-officio Representative, a special representative shall be chosen from the teachers and officers of the School at the Annual Meeting of the Local Council.

(4) In Schools with an average attendance of three hundred scholars and upwards, a second special representative shall be elected in like manner. The special representative or representatives shall be elected annually, the same persons being eligible for re-election. Only members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church shall vote for representatives.

(5) Where there are two Sessions, the average attendance shall be that for the larger session, as given in the official returns for the year preceding that in which the election is made.

* This Standing Order applies to the old Regulations still in force in some Schools.

(6) Should any School Superintendent not be a member of the Church, the teachers and officers of the school may, at the Annual Meeting of the Local Council, elect from among their own number as a representative, some other person who is duly qualified in respect of his membership.

(7) The time and place of the meeting when representatives are elected shall be fixed in consultation with the Superintendent Minister, either he or one of his colleagues being in the chair; and in the event of a Circuit Minister not being present the chairman shall be elected by the meeting, such Chairman being a member of the Church. (Summary, p. 116.)

211. Correct Returns from Sunday and Primary Schools.—(1) The Local Sunday School Council shall consider, at a Meeting to be held not later than January 31 of each year, the School Returns for the year ending December 31 previous, and immediately forward the Schedule to the Circuit Secretary.

(2) The Report of each School is to be submitted by the School Secretary to the officers of the School, and countersigned by the School Superintendent before being sent to the Local Council.

(3) The Circuit Sunday School Council shall consider the Sunday School Schedules and report thereon to the Circuit March Quarterly Meeting.

(4) The Statistics of the Primary and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the Circuit March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the Circuit June Quarterly Meeting.

(5) The Sunday School and Education [Primary School] Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendent to the District Sunday School Secretary not later than April 3 in each year. (Summary, p. 111.)

212. Local Temperance Officials.—The Conference directs that the Local Secretary of the Abstainers' League be ex-officio a member of the Local Sunday School Council, and that one of the Circuit Temperance and Social Welfare Secretaries be ex-officio a member of the Circuit Sunday School Council. (Summary, p. 122.)

213. Orthodoxy of Sunday School Officers and Teachers.—The Chapel Model Deed provides that in any School held in a building settled on the Trusts of the Chapel Model Deed the teaching is always subject to the Clause in the Deed respecting Doctrine; and the Conference has specifically directed that no person shall be continued as an Officer or Teacher who shall at any time be declared by the Local Sunday School Council or the Leaders' Meeting unfit in respect of general character or of religious opinions for the Office

214. Our Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.—The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our Catechisms in our Sunday Schools. (Summary, p. 112.)

215. Scholars' Removal Notes.—With a view to preventing, as far as possible, the loss of scholars by removal, "Scholars' Removal Notes" should be used in all our Schools. The Conference requests the Connexional Sunday School Council to supply, free of cost, in the first instance, a Specimen Book of Removal Notes to the officers, and to intimate the willingness of the Department to assist in any case of difficulty. (Summary, p. 113.)

216. Young People's Day.—The Conference directs that the Third Sunday in October be observed as a day of special prayer on behalf of our Young People, and that our Ministers and Local Preachers be asked to co-operate with the Sunday School Authorities in bringing before the young the necessity of immediate decision. (Summary, p. 114.)

217. Erection of Sunday School Premises.—All Trustees who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises intended for Sunday School work shall communicate with the Connexional Sunday School Department before the plans are finally accepted and before they are submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings, and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted. (Summary, p. 115.)

218. Boy Scouts and Girl Guides.—Each Circuit Sunday School Secretary shall send to the Connexional Sunday School Secretary, not later than March, a report of the working of the Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs, the Girl Guides and Brownies, and that, should any local difficulty arise, the help of the Sunday School Department should be sought. (Summary, p. 114.)

MEMORIALS AND SUGGESTIONS REFERRED TO DEPARTMENTAL COMMITTEES.

Home Mission Committee.

Closing of Village Chapels.—Where it is proposed by any Circuit in any District bordering on another Circuit in another District to close or sell a village chapel a Committee composed of representatives of each Circuit and District concerned shall be elected by the contiguous Circuits at their Quarterly Meetings to consider whether it is possible to supply the pulpit of the village chapel by the aid of the contiguous Circuits and that at least two active Local Preachers of the Circuits concerned shall be on the Committee so appointed. (Third London District.)

District Boundary.—This Synod is of opinion that the needs of Methodism in Lincolnshire, with its changing affinities of Circuits and with modern methods of transport, make it desirable that the boundaries of the District should correspond with the boundaries of the County. It, therefore, requests the Conference to conduct an inquiry as to the best methods of bringing this into operation. (Lincoln District.)

Amalgamated Circuits.—In large amalgamated Circuits where sectional Quarterly Meetings are held, this Quarterly Meeting respectfully urges the Conference to take steps whereby the March Meetings of such sections shall be legalised; and that in all such Circuits the Sectional Stewards should be ex-officio members of the District Synod. (Oxford Circuit.)

Home Mission and Foreign Mission Committees.

Blake System.—This Synod considers that the time has arrived for the Blake system of collection for Missions to be reconsidered, and asks the Conference to take steps towards this end. (Birmingham and Shrewsbury District.)

Temperance and Social Welfare Committee.

Sunday Trading.—This Synod greatly deplores the increase of Sunday trading in all parts of the country. It considers such trading has a baneful influence upon the minds of children and young people, tends to the secularisation of the Lord's Day, is an unfair restriction of the liberty and leisure of shop assistants and is inequitable to the general body of traders. The Synod urges the Conference to ask the Government to include in their legislation on shop hours a clause having for its object the restriction of Sunday trading. (Lincoln District.)

METHODIST PRESS BUREAU.

Publicity Organisation.—This Synod requests the Conference to consider and to adopt a scheme for ensuring adequate publicity for Methodist news, by which the daily and weekly press may be supplied with photographs and full reports of Methodist events, and effective steps may be taken to have this important matter properly looked after in every Circuit. (Oxford District.)

Conference Report.—That the necessary steps be taken to secure that the principal items of Conference news of each day be broadcasted by wireless the same evening. (Zetland District.)

CONNEXIONAL FUND.

Grants for Circuit Travelling.—In view of the change in the methods of transport in country Circuits, this Synod recommends Conference to reduce the ministerial age-limit when grants for travelling may be claimed to 25 years. (Hull District.)

THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

Ministers and Sunday Schools.—Whilst recognising that the responsibility for the work of the Sunday School should rest upon the entire Church, this Synod thinks that the Christian training and education of the young is so vital that no effort to further this end is too great. The Sunday School is capable of being made the most effective instrument the Church possesses for this purpose; therefore, to strengthen, in the coming years, the efficiency of the forces available, this Synod petitions Conference to consider the practicability of including in the training of ministers such subjects (e.g. Child Psychology) and methods as shall best fit the student for becoming the trained guide of the staffs and co-worker with them in endeavouring to win the ear and allegiance of the youth of our Church. (York District.)

Work among Young People.—In view of the tremendous importance of our work among young people and the increasing responsibility of the Church for their spiritual well-being, this Quarterly Meeting earnestly memorialises Conference to give further consideration to the whole question. We recognise the value of the work done in our Theological Colleges, and respectfully submit that men gifted for this work should receive further special training, in order that in all our larger Districts it may be possible to set apart a minister for this work. (Oldham : Manchester Street Circuit.)

BOOK ROOM COMMITTEE.

Lectionary.—This Synod is of opinion that the Lectionary now provided, whilst excellent for one year, is too restricted in its range for profitable use if repeated year after year. The Synod therefore recommends that a Lectionary be prepared on a wider basis, as aforetime, covering a period of not less than three years. (Cardiff and Swansea District.)

CLASS LEADERS' COMMITTEE.

Rules of Membership.—This Quarterly Meeting respectfully submits to the Conference that the existing statements regarding the basis of Church Membership are inadequate and confusing to many of our people. The Meeting urges that a declaration of the obligations of membership, simply worded, in language more in touch with the needs of to-day, should be drawn up, and should be signed by every person desiring to become a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. (Accrington Circuit.)

The Shareholders' interest is limited to 5 per cent. on the amount paid up on their shares and absorbs less than £100 per annum of the Company's profits. The chief beneficiary under the Articles of Association is the Worn-Out Ministers' Fund, to which grants have been made amounting to £115,900. The grant to this Fund in 1927 was £7,500. SECTION VI.

ANNUAL ADDRESSES.

The Address

OF

TO THE

METHODIST SOCIETIES.

DEAR BRETHREN,—

Humanity is ever on the march, but it does not always move at the same pace. In some past ages it has crept; to-day it runs. Some would say that it runs so fast that it is sadly out of breath. The men of to-day see, or think they see, a fair future before them, and they hurry restlessly to grasp it. In the realms of industry and art, invention and science, politics and economics—in all human life, in short, men strain towards the future. Religion is no exception. The earnest Christian of to-day is a man of vision. He knows that he ought to destroy intemperance, to end war, to "christianise" commerce—in brief, to set up the Kingdom of God upon earth. We are all busy trying to do these things, and they are all right things. To-day in a large measure we know what we ought to do, and we strain towards it. Yet often we do no more than strain. Why is this?

It is not because our tools are poor, for our organisation grows more and more perfect, our service increasingly efficient. Consider, for example, our Graded Sunday Schools, our weekly Preparation Classes for Teachers, our Temperance and Social Welfare Department with its keen mind turned on every problem of our social life, and our Foreign Missionary Society planning its complex response to calls from High Caste and Outcaste, Student and Coolie, Industrialist and Villager, in every part of the world. What we lack most is not vision, nor organisation, but power. We cannot do our obvious duty, or rather, we have reached a point at which we must definitely choose between two convictions. Either we are not called to the high endeavours of our vision, or we have reserves of power that we are not using. Which is the Christian conviction? Even psychology will answer. It tells us that men live below their maximum of energy, that they have an equipment which rarely functions at its fullest. A Christian, however, remembers rather that " power " is one of the great words of the New Testament, and that the Holy Ghost is strong.

Will not our " heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him " ? We believe that He will. But few among us " ask " in the urgent New Testament sense. The present need of our Church is to wait upon God. Inward devotion and outward service are not indeed to be set in antithesis, but the second is only effective when it is the fruit of the first. Is not our sense of powerlessness due, at least in part, to our forgetfulness of the very God whom we serve ? We say that without Him we " can do nothing," yet we attempt many things alone. May not our very worship tend to centre in ourselves rather than in Him ? A preacher may be thinking so much of his hearers, and a congregation so much of the preacher, that both overlook God. Even prayer easily sinks into inert meditation. And there begin to be those among us who think that if they work for the good of men, it does not matter whether they worship God. Yet in every true act of worship, whether public or private, the Christian lays hold of omnipotence. We are unequal to our task because we do not pray as we ought.

Our horizon may be broader than that of our forefathers and our organisation more efficient, but the giants among them had power to achieve, for they were intimate with God. Their sense of God's presence was so vivid and real that they could communicate to others their experience of His holiness and love. If we are to answer the challenge of our modern life, we must not only see the need for service but listen to the voice of God. In Church, in home, in personal life, God, as He has shown Himself to us in His Son, as He seeks fellowship with us through His Spirit, must come first. It is true that we cannot lay down precise rules of devotion for each other—that for some the old ways are still the best, while others choose new ways—but every Christian needs to follow some rule. For instance, if the stress of life precludes family prayer in many a modern home, then another way must be found whereby the parents may pass on to their children, as ours did to us, the sense of God that is the secret of power. To know Him, as a man knows his friend, is the one indispensable thing.

We do not mean, of course, that on every hand within our Church there is spiritual weakness. On the contrary, we are thankful for the many instances in which the year just past has shown that we still have power with God. We bless Him for the steadfastness of our persecuted brethren in China, for the sacrificial response which so many in our ranks made to the Missionary challenge, for the fineness of the spirit which is leading our youth to attempt to capture our land for Temperance in this generation, for the loyalty hidden in many a country Circuit and " inner belt " Church, for the spirit of aggressive evangelism displayed in the open air, for the intensity of the spirit of service in the Women's Work of our Church, for the devoted and instructed teaching of our Sunday Schools, and for many successful attempts to turn men to God. These are all proofs of the power of the Holy Spirit in our midst. But we plead with our whole Church definitely to set out on quest for a deeper spiritual experience, to look upward more frequently from her manifold activities, and to centre her thoughts on God. Is it a fanciful or impossible suggestion that every member should set aside at least some minutes in every twenty-four hours, not only or chiefly for speaking to God, but for listening to Him? Such quiet "waiting upon the Lord" is the old secret of power.

We believe that in this way every Church and every Christian among us that has been a kind of invalid may "put on strength." With this greater dynamic we shall be able to "do all things"—not merely achieving all that we already see we ought to achieve, but more. We have said that to-day we know to a great degree what our task is, but this is only part of the truth. There are many complex problems to which we do not yet know the full answer—problems connected with the Christian Sunday, our Industrial Order, Gambling, Housing, Disarmament, and so on. "Who is sufficient" either to discover the solutions of these problems, or to apply the solutions when discovered? Only God, and those to whom He gives the Spirit of His Son. He is the Source of all Goodness and Beauty, all Truth and Love, all Insight and Power. Let us betake ourselves to Him.

THE ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1927 TO THE BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1927.

HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Assembled in our Annual Conference, we joyfully send you our cordial and affectionate greeting. We greatly value the bond that unites our hearts with yours, and wish to assure you of our interest in all that pertains to your well-being.

We have received, with deep respect, our honoured President. We appreciate his signal services to the Church of Christ, especially in the moulding of youthful minds, the training of workers for God's harvest field, and his fresh and helpful interpretations of Truth.

He has proved himself a wise and genial administrator in the Presidential Chair, while his pulpit ministrations have inspired and warmed our hearts.

We have welcomed, with great pleasure, the gifted and distinguished companions of the President. Dr. Ritson, we feel, belongs to all the Churches, but, in a special sense, we are proud to claim him as our own. In the realm of education and literature, as well as in Biblical research and Church affairs, Rev. W. Bardsley Brash, B.D., B.Litt., and Rev. J. A. Findlay, M.A., occupy practically a unique place. Your Lay Representative, Mr. Stephen R. Dodds, M.A., LL.D., has worthily represented the English laymen to us, and helped us by his public utterances.

The year just past has been one of political tranquillity in our land, as well as peace and blessing in our own Church. Once again we are grateful to report an increase in our membership, both senior and junior. The harvest fields are being reaped, and earnest labourers are also seeking to glean in places more difficult. Our open-air preachers and colporteurs are sowing the good seed of the Kingdom beside all waters. The word of God is finding an entrance into the hearts of our countrymen and bringing to them the blessing of light.

During the year two new churches have been opened in Belfast, and already many are finding in them a real spiritual home. The Central Mission premises are nearing completion, and soon will be dedicated to the Service of God and humanity. You have graciously helped us in our Forward Movement efforts. Gratefully we acknowledge and appreciate your generous gifts.

The removal, by death, of our beloved Vice-President, Rev. R. M. Ker, plunged our whole Church in grief. He was a great gift of God to our Church in Ireland. He possessed pre-eminent qualities of head and heart, and was universally beloved by all churches and classes, especially in the city of Belfast. It was one of the great ideals of his life to erect a hall worthy of our Church and the work it was designed to accomplish. The day fixed for the laying of its foundation stone proved to be, in the mysterious providence of God, the day when all that was mortal of himself was laid to rest. Not only did we lose by death our President, but eleven other brethren were also called to the service of the Church triumphant—the Revs. John Good, James Bradshaw, William Crawford, M.A., Henry McMahon, Hugh Moore, Thomas Moran, Thomas Walmsley, Pierce Martin, William J. Young, Charles A. Cronhelm, B.A., and W. S. Carey. They were all men of God, and grandly served the present age. We report, with gratitude, the acceptance of eleven young men as Candidates for the work of our Ministry. We pray that the mantle of the departed brethren may rest upon them, and that they may worthily maintain the great succession ing days we shall prayerfully remember your great Assembly, and trust that Grace, Wisdom, Faith, and Hope may make all one.

We have appointed as our delegate to your Conference, Rev. W. H. Smyth, M.A. You have previously welcomed him in the same capacity. He is greatly beloved and honoured amongst us. As his companions we have chosen Revs. T. J. Irwin, D.Lit., Principal of Wesley College, Dublin, and W. Johnstone Hunter, Superintendent of the North Belfast Mission, and as our Lay Representative, Mr. William Robinson, J.P., a man who gives his services unstintedly to the civic and religious affairs of our country.

We pray that your Conference may be rich in spiritual blessing, and that your great Church may continue the work of our venerable Founder in " Spreading Scriptural Holiness throughout the land."

THE REPLY OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE TO THE ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE.

BELOVED AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

Once more we acknowledge and most cordially reciprocate the affectionate greetings you have sent us. Already we have taken heart from the reports which our Ex-President and his colleagues have brought back from your own Conference, of the great work which you are steadily and quietly accomplishing ; they were obviously moved and gratified by the generous and open-hearted welcome they received among you.

Our Conference listened with unfeigned admiration and delight to your brilliant deputation, the Rev. William Smyth, your President for the second time, and his colleague, Mr. William Robinson. We could not but receive new inspiration for our own work from the story they told of the way in which you are carrying through town and village and hamlet the message of Christ, caring for tiny scattered communities as well as for large urban populations. We are well aware of the exceptional difficulties which confront you just now, and admire beyond measure the high courage and undaunted spirit which has nerved your people alike to steadfastness and to high spiritual adventure. You have indeed given us cause to remember without ceasing " your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and Our Father."

We have learned with especial interest of the increasing measure of peace and tranquillity which has come to your beloved land through the splendid work of the two Parliaments and the loyal co-operation of men of goodwill throughout the country: but not least among the regenerative and reintegrating forces in your national life is the work which you yourselves are doing. Remembering what the Methodist Revival was to England during one of the most critical periods of our history, we cannot forbear the hope that the same Evangelical message may be a great and potent factor in the making of a new Ireland. No people in Europe have higher or more beautiful traditions than are yours: they belong to the creative spirit of a people, and of those traditions you are true heirs. May it be yours to open another chapter in the story of Irish Christianity as adventurous, as broad in its humanity, and as undimmed by the spirit of the world as that which, in a darker age, made Ireland the glory of the Christian world. May the Open Door which, with the passing of old prejudices and antagonisms, God has given you to the heart of the Irish people open yet wider and wider, and may the Ireland that both you and we love be once again a shining light in the brotherhood of nations.

Nor can we pass by, without a word of appreciation, your President's discerning tribute to the temper and spirit of both majority and minority in our discussions of Methodist Union. We are confident that great and permanent good will result from our consultations during this Conference. We believe that, in the words of a great Irishman, "when any great change in human affairs is imminent, the minds of men will be fitted to it, the general trend of men's minds and feelings will draw that way." We look, under God's guidance, for a blending, not merely of constitutions, but of all our hearts in the bond of His Spirit.

The Conference heard with intense sympathy the exposition of your own proposals for the now necessary changes in the terms of your Constitution. We are proud of your loyalty to the fraternal relationship which has been maintained between us since Wesley's time. After all, the bonds which unite us are not legal; they are spiritual and tenderly human.

Last of all, we have learned with sorrow of the many gaps made in your ranks this year by death. Especially do we mourn the passing of one whom we ourselves knew and loved so well, the Rev. Robert M. Ker. The memory of that lofty spirit will be cherished by very many who will succeed to his labours. Your new hall in Belfast, with its great possibilities of wider influence and service, will be a fitting memorial to a life dedicated to such high ends. God buries His workmen, but carries on his work. "Let Thy work appear unto Thy servants and Thy Glory unto their children."

ADDRESS OF THE FRENCH CONFERENCE OF 1927 TO THE BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1927.

Beloved and Honoured Brethren,—

We send you our warm greetings from Paris, where our Conference meets in the newly renovated Church of Rue Roquepine, under the presidency of the Rev. W. H. Guiton.

We have welcomed with joy your delegates: Revs. C. W. Andrews and George Whelpton. We are much indebted to these brethren, who have great sympathy with our work, understand its difficulties, and have always pleaded our cause with success.

We follow with deep interest the movement which will lead the three principal branches of British Methodism to form one body; we pray God that your United Churches may become a greater force for the Kingdom of Jesus Christ in your country and abroad.

We also admire the renewed efforts of your churches to meet the increasing needs of the Mission Field, and we are all the more grateful for your faithful interest in our own work.

Our country has also suffered from unemployment and some of our churches have had difficulty in meeting their circuit claims. However, in all our sections there has been a progressive financial increase which amounts to 27,000 francs.

You may think that we do very little for French West Africa, but we also help financially the "Société des Missions Evangéliques de Paris." There is, nevertheless, an increasing interest for mission work in French Colonies: young men and young women have heard the call of the Ivory Coast, and are preparing themselves for this field. Two of our ministers have responded to the call for workers; so if financial help is small, we are trying to provide missionaries and teachers for West Africa.

We have had the great joy to receive into full connexion two of our young probationers and to admit into our Theological College three new students.

Our Mission in Brittany continues to encourage our workers. Wherever the Roman Church is powerful it is difficult to form the basis of a solid Church, but our missionaries have no difficulty in gathering large congregations, and many hearers are seeking the truth. We believe that an abundant harvest will follow the years of patient toil and sowing.

We are convinced that our Methodist Church has a mission to fulfil in France, and if we do not always gather the fruits of our work, if other Churches often have the benefits of our labours, souls are being added to the Church who are being saved.

It is evident that our action is limited because our means are limited. We have the conviction that we could do more effective work in our large towns if we had attractive and well-organised Mission Halls, such as you have in your cities. Other Churches which have sufficient means are already working in that direction, and they are exerting a real and increasing influence upon the young people and among the working classes.

We cannot but suffer when we see the masses indifferent to all religious appeal, making of the Sabbath the Continental Sunday as you know it. Our hearts ache when we see the victims of drink and debauchery. To strive against all forms of evil, to adapt ourselves to new circumstances, to protect young men and young women in the midst of temptation, and to educate our people for all this manifold service, we are badly equipped!

On the other hand, the Roman Catholic Church is marvellously organised. In all their city parishes they have created numerous branches of social and philanthropic work, with large halls to which they attract the young people and their families.

France is a country visited by thousands of people from all parts of the world; thousands of students of all nationalities gather in our universities. We realise our great responsibilities, and say with Saint Paul, "Who is sufficient for these things?"

Brethren, pray for us that we may receive an abundant baptism of the Holy Spirit. We consecrated a whole afternoon of our Conference to the subject: "How can we prepare the Revivial in our Churches?" We incessantly ask God to pour down His power upon us so that His work may prosper in our hands.

Signed on behalf of the French Conference,

L. PARKER, Secretary.

THE REPLY OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE TO THE ADDRESS OF THE FRENCH CONFERENCE.

DEAR BRETHREN,—

We have received with great appreciation the warm-hearted greetings from your Conference in Paris, and we both value and reciprocate your confidence and affection more than words can express. The work you are carrying on in your own country with such self-denying zeal and fidelity against the forces of evil and the unceasing opposition of the Roman Catholic Church, lies very near our heart, and we pray earnestly that you may continue to have the necessary spiritual equipment for the conflict that awaits you in the immediate future. We were delighted to welcome your President, the Rev. W. H. Guiton, and we are not likely to forget his soul-stirring words. He spoke to us in English with an ease and ability that won our admiration, but we were even more impressed by his evangelical fervour. His impassioned plea for the warmed heart, which John Wesley always stressed, and his convincing testimony also to the devoted life and work of your people, in what he described as " tiny little Churches," moved us all.

We thank God for the good news that has reached us during the year, and which your Address now confirms, of the living contribution of French Methodism to the missionary work of our Church in French West Africa, and we are glad to know other volunteers are preparing themselves for service in this fruitful field. We rejoice also to read in your Address, and to hear from your President, of the extension of your work in Brittany, and we anticipate with you " that an abundant harvest will follow the years of patient toil and sowing."

Your President told us also of your work in regions which are wholly Romanist, as well as of what you are doing in other parts of France where there are Protestant families and congregations. Whilst it is of the utmost importance you should conserve in health and vigour what God has already given you as the reward of your toil, we earnestly desire that by friendly arrangement and co-operation with other Evangelical Churches you may find it possible to undertake a yet greater amount of truly missionary work in the non-Protestant parts of France. Your leaven is of such excellent quality that we should like it to leaven still more of your lovely land. We are glad to know that this enterprise is also in your minds, and we prayerfully await further developments in this direction.

The fact that Roman Catholicism is working so strenuously in Great Britain to capture the imagination and win the allegiance of many, and particularly of the young, among all classes of society, makes us yet more sympathetic with you in the still keener struggle in which you are engaged. But be not dismayed, for the battle is not yours but God's. Only continue to dwell constantly in thought and prayer on your resources in Christ Jesus, and you will not fail to find, as the great Apostle of the Gentiles did, that " He Who is for you is more than they who are against you." Mutual prayer, yours for us and ours for you, will surely be answered by the God of Love, and if we claim the gracious gift of His Holy Spirit, He will lead us on from victory to victory. The God of peace be with you.

THE ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH OF SOUTH AFRICA TO THE YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1927.

DEAR AND HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Assembled in our Forty-fifth Annual Conference at Bloemfontein, the capital of the Province of the Orange Free State, it is our privilege and pleasure to send you affectionate greetings.

We thank you for your reply to our Address of last year, with its alert, intimate knowledge of our work, and its expressions of fervent and enthusiastic goodwill.

We are still mindful of the great charge we undertook when you handed over to us the work of evangelising this vast sub-continent; and now, entering fully into our great inheritance by your generosity in sanctioning the introduction of our Enabling Bill, by which we secure full autonomy, we desire to emphasise in the amplest form our continued loyalty and goodwill to the Mother Church.

We thank you for your endorsement of our nomination of the Rev. Theo. R. Curnick, B.D., to the Chair of the Conference. In his inaugural address emphasis was laid upon the rapidly increasing importance of matters religious, social, educational, and economic affecting the Native People.

Mr. Curnick has conducted the business of the Conference with a graciousness which could not be excelled.

We regret that, on the eve of Conference, the Secretary, Rev. Alfred A. Stile, was laid aside by serious illness, and his resignation as Secretary was placed in our hands. The Rev. William H. P. Clulow, a former Secretary, has filled the position for the year.

We are thankful for all tokens of God's favour with us during the year. There is a total membership of 224,096: being English, 17,330; Native, Coloured, and Indian, 198,403. This shows a net increase of 4,945. There are seven European and nine native Candidates for the Ministry. One European and five Native probationers presented themselves and received ordination.

The work of the active Ministry suffers the loss, by retirement, of four ex-presidents of the Conference—Revs. John W. Househam, an outstanding pioneer missionary; William Pescod, who has fulfilled a ministry of forty-three years in Kimberley Coloured Circuit; James Pendlebury, B.A., a leader in ministerial education, and Frederick Holmes. In addition the Revs. J. Flesher Rumfitt, and T. D. Rogers have also retired.

We greatly regret, and record with a deep sense of loss, the deaths of the Revs. John Allsopp, George Golightly, Walter Hewitt, and, among Native brethren, Charles Mahlutshana, Jonathan Jabava, Warner Yako, Robert Mahlutshana, S. H. Jozi, and Stephen Masuabi.

We rejoice that as a result of opposition to the Roos Liquor Bill, many of its most objectionable features were eliminated and the whole Bill greatly improved. Unhappily our endeavour to secure the inclusion of Local Option, as part of the Bill, was definitely rejected.

An appeal was made to the Prime Minister to convene an interracial Conference on the Native Question. A Conference was held, the churches were represented, and a deputation was appointed to give evidence before the Select Committee on Native Bills.

Conference received the report of the East Africa Mission, and there is considerable gratification at the growing success of this far-flung mission of our Church. Interest attaches to the statement that the admission of Germany to the League of Nations has had a considerable influence upon the movements of German missionaries in the mandated territory of Tanganyika. An official deputation from this Conference is to meet representatives of the Beleiveldt Society in East Africa, to discuss the matter of areas of operation.

We have nominated as our President of the Conference of 1928, the Rev. William Flint, D.D., an able and devoted minister, who has rendered valued service to the Church for many years, especially at the Cape.

We have appointed the Revs. W. Hindes and A. J. O. Killick, with Messrs. T. Rowland Owen and G. Arthur Payne, to represent us at the next Conference, to be held at Bradford.

May the Divine blessing be with you and upon all your labours.

Signed on behalf of the Conference,
WILLIAM H. P. CLULOW, Secretary.

THE REPLY OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE TO THE ADDRESS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE.

BELOVED AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

We have received with much pleasure the Address of your Conference, which was presented to the Yearly Conference at our meeting in the City of Bradford, and we welcomed with affection the brethren appointed to represent you, the Revs. W. Hindes and A. J. O. Killick, with Messrs. T. Rowland Owen and G. Arthur Payne.

Your figures of membership give us, as they give you, cause for deep thankfulness to God. The increase of 4,945 is a tribute to the continued faithful service of your ministers and people, and we note with interest that your total membership of 224,096 is more than 30,000 above the full membership on all our mission stations. We thank God when we see the daughter Churches of Methodism increasing in numbers and in devotion.

It is clear from your returns that you are giving much attention to the work amongst the African and Indian populations. Methodism in South Africa has always been the friend of both indigenous and immigrant peoples, and it continues to hold that noble place. Your missionary life is strong and progressive, and we trust that there may continue to be added to you from year to year many thousands of them that are being saved.

The Gospel of Christ has the only solution for your many and complicated problems. We watch with deep sympathy your efforts to bring the whole of South Africa into one fellowship of brotherhood, realising with you that such a fellowship can only be established by the acceptance amongst all races and classes of the Spirit of Christ. You have a great warfare of love to wage before this is accomplished, but ultimately Christ must reign, and it is your privilege and ours to accept His sovereignty and fight under His leadership.

In other matters the Church marches on. We have had before us the project for the union of the Transvaal District of our Church with your Conference, and have heard with great satisfaction of the meeting of the newly appointed Committees for the discussion of this question. It is clear to us that Methodism in the Union must be able to speak with one voice, and that such a fusion will bring many advantages and greater power for service. We shall be glad to receive, in due course, the proposals by which the union is to be effected, and you will not find us backward in agreeing to a scheme that is so manifestly for the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ in South Africa.

We share your sorrow at the passing of ministers who have so faithfully served their generation according to the will of God. Their work abides, and it is for us who remain to see that the army of the living God marches forward.

We share your regret at the serious illness of the Rev. A. A. Stile, the Secretary of your Conference, and pray for his recovery. In the meantime, the Rev. W. H. P. Clulow returns to a position he has already filled with much acceptance.

The Conference heartily confirms the nomination of the Rev. William Flint, D.D., as your President for 1928, and prays that he may be sustained in the duties of his office, and that under his presidency the Church may go forward to great triumphs.

At your request, the Conference has also confirmed the provisional legislation in reference to your Women's Auxiliary. Since the Enabling Bill has now received the assent of the Governor-General, this is probably the last official act of confirmation which the Yearly Conference will be required to do. We take the opportunity of wishing for you, under the new conditions, a future even more glorious than the past.

We commend you to God, and to the Word of His Grace, which is able to build you up.

Signed on behalf of the Conference,
THOMAS KIRKUP, Secretary.

The numbers to be elected by the several Synods shall be in accordance with the allocation made by the preceding Conference. And any adjustment that may be necessary in order that the Conference may consist of ministers and laymen in equal numbers shall be secured thereby.

In case of the death of any minister or layman elected by the Conference for the term of three years, a substitute shall be elected at the next Conference who shall serve for the remainder of the term.

(3) President.—The President of the Conference shall be a Minister of the Methodist Church, and shall be elected by ballot vote and by a clear majority of the votes cast. Should the Ex-President be incapable of acting through illness or through any other cause, the President in the year immediately preceding shall fill the vacancy. In case of the death or inability to act of the President-Designate, the Conference shall proceed in the usual way to make an appointment as its first act.

(d) To administer the Fund for the Poor.

(e) To consider and devise plans for promoting the prosperity of the work of God in that Society.

(f) To appoint for the ensuing year the Society Stewards and the Stewards of the Poor Fund.

It shall be within the power of any member of the Leaders' Meeting to nominate a Society Steward or Steward of the Poor Fund. Notice in writing of any intended nomination must, however, be given to the Minister at least fourteen days prior to the December Leaders' Meeting.

(g) To appoint the Class Leaders.

(h) To recommend candidates for the Local Preachers' Plan to the notice of the Local Preachers' Meeting.

(i) To appoint a Secretary for the Leaders' Meeting, who must be a member of the meeting.

The Local Preachers' Meeting.

Membership.—The following shall be members of the Local Preachers' Meeting: The Ministers and Ministers on trial, Supernumerary Ministers, and the duly accredited Local Preachers who are members of Society in that Circuit.

Local Preachers on trial are expected to attend the Local Preachers' Meeting, but are not entitled to vote.

The Superintendent shall regularly meet the Local Preachers once a quarter.

Powers and Duties.—(a) To consider the state of the work of God in the Circuit so far as the work of the Local Preachers has relation thereto.

(b) To examine and decide as to the acceptance of candidates for the Local Preachers' plan.

(c) To consider the character, fidelity to doctrine, and fitness of the Local Preachers for the work of the Circuit. In order to ensure the continuous fidelity of the Local Preachers to the doctrines of Methodism, the following question shall be asked in the Local Preachers' Meeting: Is there any charge against any Local Preacher in the Circuit? The Superintendent of the Circuit shall inquire as to whether due notice in writing of any such charge has been given to the Local Preacher before allowing the charge to be heard.

Before any Local Preacher is accepted on full plan, he shall be approved by the Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

The Society Meeting.

Membership, Powers, and Duties.—A meeting, consisting of all the members of Society, shall be held at least once a year in each church for religious fellowship and the appointment of representatives to the Leaders' Meeting, and for any other purpose that shall be hereafter determined by the Conference.

BASIS OF MEMBERSHIP.

(1) All persons are welcomed into membership who sincerely desire to be saved from their sins through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and evidence the same in life and conduct, and who seek to have fellowship with Christ Himself and His people by taking up the duties and privileges of the Methodist Church.

(2) The Methodist Church recognises two Sacraments, namely, Baptism and the Lord's Supper, as "of Divine appointment and of perpetual obligation," * of which it is the privilege and duty of its members to avail themselves. As membership in the Church also involves fellowship, it is the duty of all members in the Church to seek to cultivate this in every possible way. The weekly Class Meeting has from the beginning proved to be the most effective means of maintaining among Methodists true fellowship in Christian experience. All members shall have their names entered on a Class Book, shall be placed under the pastoral care of a Class Leader, and shall receive a Quarterly ticket of membership.

According to Methodist usage, the Sacrament of Baptism is administered to infants, and regular oversight should be given by the local Church and its Minister to all who have been dedicated to God by this sign. If any have not received Christian Baptism, that Sacrament should be administered either before or in connection with the Recognition Service.

(3) After a probation of not less than three months, those approved shall be admitted to full membership by the Leaders' Meeting, and be publicly recognised at a service conducted by the Minister in the presence of the Church at the earliest opportunity, which shall be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper.

(4) Any member who, without sufficient reason, persistently absents himself from the Lord's Supper, and from the meetings for Christian fellowship, shall be visited by both his Leader and his Minister. The names of any who by such prolonged absence sever themselves from Church membership, shall be removed by the Leaders' Meeting.

(5) In connection with our Societies, Classes shall be generally established which shall directly provide for the religious instruction of young people. The object of these Classes shall be to secure the decision of children for Christ, their instruction and training in Christian doctrine, and ethics, and the development in Christian experience and character. The Holy Scriptures shall be the basis of instruction and these Classes shall be met wherever possible weekly.

DOCTRINE.

(1) The Methodist Church claims and cherishes its place in the holy Catholic Church, which is the Body of Christ. It rejoices in the inheritance of the Apostolic faith, and loyally accepts the fundamental principles of the historic creeds and of the Protestant Reformation. It ever remembers that in the Providence of God Methodism was raised up to spread Scriptural Holiness through the land by the proclamation of the Evangelical Faith, and declares its unfaltering resolve to be true to its Divinely appointed mission.

The Doctrines of the Evangelical Faith, which Methodism has held from the beginning, and still holds, are based upon the Divine revelation recorded in the Holy Scriptures. The Methodist Church acknowledges this revelation as the supreme rule of faith and practice. These Evangelical Doctrines to which the preachers of the Methodist Church, Ministerial and Lay, are pledged are contained in Wesley's Notes on the New Testament and the first four volumes of his Sermons.

The Notes on the New Testament and the forty-four Sermons are not intended to impose a system of formal or speculative theology on Methodist Preachers, but to set up standards of preaching and belief which should secure loyalty to the fundamental truths of the Gospel of Redemption and ensure the continued witness of the Church to the realities of the Christian experience of salvation.

(2) The Conference shall be the final authority within the Church with regard to all questions concerning the interpretation of its doctrines. In any necessary Act of Parliament provision shall be made to secure the recognition of this power.

(3) "Christ's ministers in the Church are stewards in the household of God, and shepherds of His flock. Some are called and ordained to this sole occupation, and have a principal and directing part in these great duties; but they hold no priesthood differing in kind from that which is common to the Lord's people, and they have no exclusive title to the preaching of the gospel or the care of souls. These ministries are shared with them by others, to whom also the Spirit divides His gifts severally as He wills." *

(4) It is the universal conviction of the Methodist people that the office of the Christian Ministry depends upon the call of God, Who bestows the gifts of the Spirit, the grace, and the fruit which indicate those whom He has chosen.

(5) Those whom the Church recognises as called of God, and therefore receives into its Ministry, shall be ordained by the imposition of hands, as expressive of the Church's recognition of the Minister's personal call.

(6) The Methodist Church holds the doctrine of the priesthood of all believers and consequently believes that no priesthood exists which belongs exclusively to a particular order or class of men.

But in the exercise of its corporate life and worship special qualifications for the discharge of special duties are required and thus the principle of representative selection is recognised.

The preachers, itinerant and lay, are examined, tested, and approved before they are authorised to minister in holy things. For the sake of Church order, and not because of any priestly virtue inherent in the office, the Ministers of the Church are set apart by ordination to the Ministry of the Word and Sacraments.

The general usage of the three uniting Churches whereby the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is administered by Ministers shall continue to be observed.

* Statement concerning Church Membership adopted by the Wesleyan Methodist Conference, 1908, to accompany the "Rules of the Society of the People called Methodists."

There will necessarily be a transitional period during which the Circuits are being gradually amalgamated. During this period in areas in which local unions have not been consummated, it will be natural on account of variations from the general usage for each Circuit to continue the practice of the Church to which it originally belonged.

When local unions take place, the general usage of administration by Ministers, as stated above, will continue. Where, however, it can be shown that any Church is deprived of a reasonably frequent and regular administration through lack of Ministers, the Circuit concerned may apply to Conference for the authorisation of persons other than Ministers to administer the Sacrament. All nominations of such persons shall be made annually by the June Quarterly Meeting. The authorisation shall be made from year to year by Conference in its Representative Session, and shall be duly certified by the President and the Secretary on behalf of the Conference.

DISCIPLINE.

Members.

Charges against members of the Church in writing must first be heard by the Leaders' Meeting. Before any personal charge is considered by a Leaders' Meeting, the Superintendent shall satisfy himself that the complainant has acted in harmony with the teaching of the New Testament, which enjoins that he shall first privately see the person of whom he complains before telling the matter to the Church.

The Leaders' Meeting has power to expel a member or pass any minor sentence and its judgment shall take effect after a week's notice. In case of an appeal, the Leaders' Meeting after sentence has power to suspend the member until the appeal is heard.

Where the membership of the Leaders' Meeting is less than six, the charge shall be heard by the Leaders' Meeting in conjunction with the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Church of the Circuit.

The member concerned has the right of appeal to a Committee of the District and to the Conference.

The Disciplinary Committee shall consist of:

The Chairman of the District, who shall preside.

Three ministers and three laymen appointed by the Synod.

One minister and one layman appointed by the one person against whom the charge is made.

One minister and one layman appointed by the one who brings the charge.

A report shall be presented to the following Synod or to the Conference if the Disciplinary Committee should have occasion to meet between the time of the session of the District Synod and the assembling of the Conference.

The member against whom the charge is made shall have the right of appeal to the Conference. The Conference shall remit the case, without discussion, to a Committee consisting of an equal number of ministers and laymen, which shall report to the Conference, whose decision shall be final.

Bankruptcy and Insolvency.

A member who becomes a bankrupt or compounds with his creditors, is thereby suspended from any office he may hold in the Church, until his case has been dealt with by the Leaders' Meeting.

Ministers.

It is the duty of the Chairman of a District to exercise an oversight of the character and fidelity of the Ministers in his District. When charges against any Minister are laid in writing by any member of the Church before the Chairman of the District, it shall be his duty to investigate them, and, if necessary, to summon a special Disciplinary Committee, which shall have power to suspend the Minister concerned until the meeting of the Synod or of the Conference.

The Disciplinary Committee shall consist of:

The Chairman of the District, who shall preside.
Two Ministers selected by the Chairman of the District.
Two Ministers selected by the person against whom the charge is made.
Two Ministers selected by the one who brings the charge.

Its proceedings shall be reported to the Ministerial Session of the Synod or of the Conference, if it meets before the Synod, which shall pass its judgment upon them, confirming, or otherwise, the suspension.

It shall report to the Ministerial Session of the Conference, whose decision shall be final.

Charges against a Chairman of a District.

The Disciplinary Committee shall consist of:

The President of the Conference, who shall preside.
Two Ministers selected by the President of the Conference.
Two Ministers selected by the Chairman of the District against whom the charge is made.
Two Ministers selected by the one who brings the charge.

Its proceedings shall be reported to the Ministerial Session of the Synod, which shall pass its judgment upon them, confirming or otherwise the suspension.

It shall report to the Ministerial Session of the Conference, whose decision shall be final.

Powers under Wesley's Deed Poll.

The powers which are provided for under John Wesley's Deed Poll will be exercised by the newly-constituted Conference as follows:

(1) Ministers will be accepted into Full Connexion by the Representative Session of the Conference. Ministerial discipline will be exercised by the Ministerial Session.

(2) The power of appointment will be exercised by the Conference in accordance with the arrangements for the Stationing of Ministers set forth in the Constitution.

(3) The principle of the Itinerancy shall be maintained by yearly appointment of Ministers. No Minister shall be appointed to the same circuit for more than three successive years unless the Circuit Quarterly Meeting shall request by a vote of a majority of at least three-fourths of its members present and voting that the appointment may be renewed for a fourth, fifth, sixth, or seventh year. After the seventh year no appointment shall be renewed except by special resolution of the Conference.

TRUST DEEDS.

It is not proposed, excepting as provided in this Scheme, to alter the existing Trusts of the properties of the several Churches; though it is desirable that ultimately all shall be settled on one Model Deed, there is no intention to make this compulsory.

It is desirable that all Church properties acquired after the date of Union shall be settled upon a new Model Deed, the draft of which shall be submitted for approval to the Committee and subsequently to the Conferences of the three Churches.

Further, the Committee recommends that a clause be inserted in the Act of Parliament giving power to the Trustees of the existing Trust Properties to adopt the provisions of the proposed new Model Deed.

Regulations of the Conferences.

All existing regulations on the Minutes of the several Conferences relating to the use of Trust Properties and other questions shall be operative until superseded by the regulations of the new Conference.

Foreign Missionary Stations.

The Conference reserves to itself the power to determine how far the provisions of this Scheme for Union shall apply to the Foreign Missionary Stations.

APPENDIX II.

THE APPOINTMENT OF CHAIRMEN OF DISTRICTS WITHOUT OTHER PASTORAL CHARGE.

1. Method of Appointment, etc.—A Chairman of District without other pastoral charge may be appointed to any District whose Synod requests such an appointment and complies with the financial and other conditions contained in the scheme; or to which on Connexional grounds the Conference considers such an appointment necessary.

A Synod desiring to avail itself of this provision should appoint (preferably at its September meeting) a committee to confer with a sub-committee of the Home Mission Committee as to ways and means and, if thought well, as to the Minister or Ministers to be nominated for the office. The recommendations of this joint committee should be laid before the May Synod, which, if it resolves to proceed with the proposals, may submit to Conference the name of one or more Ministers (not exceeding three) for appointment to the office. The Home Mission Committee at its July meeting shall also consider the Synod's resolutions and report to Conference its judgment thereupon. If Conference decide to make an appointment, its procedure shall conform to that followed in respect of appointments to Departments.

The appointment shall be for a period of three years, with power of renewal for further periods of three years, and subject to annual renomination.

2. Duties.—i. The Chairman of the District shall exercise the powers and discharge the duties of administration and discipline accorded to him in existing legislation.

ii. He shall endeavour in every way to promote the spiritual prosperity of the Circuits of the District, to foster the spirit of evangelism, and to strengthen the Connexional sentiment of the Churches. In particular it shall be his duty:

(a) To give special attention to those parts of the District in which Methodism is weak or declining, or in which the increase of population calls for the establishment of new causes or the employment of additional agency; suggesting and helping to promote schemes for the better working of the Circuits or the alteration of Circuit boundaries.

(b) To have special oversight of the Probationers in his District, ensuring that the Conference Regulations on their behalf are observed, helping them in their special difficulties, and wherever practicable arranging for their instruction in pastoral duty.

(c) To foster the work of God among the young, particularly those on trial or in Junior Society Classes.

(d) To see that the instructions and recommendations of Conference affecting administration or the life of the Churches are duly communicated and as far as possible carried into effect.

(e) To make the utmost use of the regular District Committees.

3. Finance.—The Chairman of the District should receive his allowances from Connexional sources. If desired, the Home Mission Committee will administer the Fund.

Any Synod requesting the services of a Chairman under this scheme is expected to provide the furniture for his residence and to make an annual contribution of at least one-half of the cost of his maintenance.

The defrayal of the expenses of the official visits to be arranged with the Connexional Fund.

The Home Mission Committee to be responsible for the remaining amount required for the usual ministerial allowances, etc., and for the upkeep of the residence.

APPENDIX III.

LAY WORKERS' COLLEGE.

CLIFF College accepts the twentieth century challenge to its Gospel. The challenge is clamant, confident, and comprehensive. It comes from both the Church and the world. It is delivered in many kinds of voices, and every voice represents a problem. We ignore none of them, for no voice is without signification, and we are not dismayed by any or all of them. Our report is that there is no problem of the modern world that is not met in the Unchanging Christ and the Everlasting Gospel. That is our witness, and the work of the year confirms it. It would be idle to deny the fact of the New Age, and foolish to ignore the new problems that have come with new conditions. The changes are too obvious to be denied, and too revolutionary to be ignored. The world we are sent to evangelise is a very different world from that which John Wesley claimed for his parish. The romance of science has brought a new world consciousness, a new sense of democratic power, a new standard of values, and a new right of inheritance. The new democracy claims the world. There is a new social order, a new economic conscience, and a new conception of religion. The old order is passing, the earth is changing, mountains are prancing, and what were regarded as "everlasting hills" are being hurled into the depths of the sea. World-problems abound, and the problem-consciousness has taken possession of the modern mind. The watchmen upon the walls report a shaking and an overturning, not of the earth only, but of the heavens also.

A shaking world cannot be saved by things that totter. The security of the changing world is in the stability of its unchanging order, and the salvation of the world is in the eternal verities of the spiritual kingdom. God is eternal, Christ is unchanging, the Gospel is everlasting. Eternity is the answer to time. The Gospel we preach is timeless, dateless, changeless, and it is therefore always timely, never out of date, and under all conditions it is the power of God unto salvation. The demands of the new are met in the resources of the old.

The challenge of the world does not disturb us, but the attitude of the Church is disquieting. There is no great enthusiasm for evangelism among the Churches. Many of them have given up all concern for the multitudes who neither regard the Lord's Day nor respect the ordinances of the Sanctuary. Aggressive evangelism has no place in their programme. Evangelism is impossible without spiritual passion, and it is given up in many Churches because they cannot do the things they did and do the things they do. We bring no railing accusations against any. We report; and the report is our witness, that evangelism discovers the same needs, works the same miracles, and secures the same results in this age as in any other, without respect of class or rank, time or place.

We train evangelists for Twentieth Century Evangelism. The work of the College is based upon the Word of God and the doctrines of grace. We have no quarrel with knowledge, new or old, scientific or historical, philosophical or psychological, but we believe in the Holy Ghost who spake by the prophets. We teach the Bible intelligently, systematically, and reverently. Nothing we teach ever needs to be unlearned, and no Cliff College evangelist despairs of any sinner this side the grave. The College stands frankly for Full Salvation, as interpreted in Methodist doctrine. The efficiency of the evangelist is in the equipment of Pentecost. The Gospel saves, and Full Salvation works. Our faith is scriptural, supernatural, and rational. The experience of grace is as psychologically sound as it is scripturally true. The work of the College is proved in the adventure of faith that goes unafraid to challenge the world.

Many of the evangelists trained in the College work in areas allotted by the Home Mission Committee. Others are sent to desperate areas and depleted causes. Those who have special aptitude for it conduct special missions in which hundreds are converted. The Gospel reaches all classes and people of all grades and ages. In the same mission, criminals and outcasts kneel in penitence side by side with scholars and people respected for their character and social position. Some of our evangelists have worked during the year in rural areas, where the membership of the Church has been reduced to two or three aged saints who waited and prayed for revival. Their task is incredibly difficult, and the triumph has been equally incredibly glorious. It is proposed to extend this kind of rural evangelism during next year.

We pioneer in evangelism. These missions are developing. Last summer we had three bands of Evangelistic Friars. This year we have seven. The work is a venture of faith. Each group carries its own outfit for sleeping and cooking. They take no collections, ask no favours, beg neither food nor money. They beg nothing neither do they refuse anything. Their needs are met, and to a penny all expenses are provided. As they go they preach, crowds are gathered, souls are saved. In one place a family of well-to-do people knelt in the ring in the open-air, and were gloriously saved. These Cliff College Friars have had campaigns at Blackpool, Southport, Leeds, Bristol, and Warrington with wonderful results. These Treks are experimental and preparatory. God has sent us £500 towards the organisation of an order of evangelists who will be Knights of the Cross, seeking to win for Christ the multitudes outside the Churches.

The work of the College has been maintained with enthusiasm. The Class-meetings, the weekly barometer, have never been better. Study and evangelism have been equally keen. There have been 109 students in residence during the year, making a total of 1,464 since 1904. The College is a training-camp, full of hope, abounding in joy, and always ready for the fight.

APPENDIX IV.

GENERAL SUSTENTATION FUND.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE, 1926–27.

In reviewing the work of the year, the Committee is gratified to report that the recommendations of the Conference upon Ministerial Allowances have again been fulfilled. So far as has been ascertained, no Minister or Probationer has received less than the Minimum Stipend. The supplementary Grant for Children's Maintenance, to realise an Allowance of 12 guineas per child where not more than the Minimum Stipend was received, has been made in all cases reported. Young married Ministers in Probationers' appointments through shortage of houses have continued to receive the benefit of the Fund as in previous years. Many Ministers in the Welsh districts, where the standard of Allowances is lower than in the English districts, have received substantial help, and here and there special cases of hardship and necessity have been relieved. All these things have represented a beneficent ministry of sympathetic and timely help which has contributed to the relief of anxiety in the Manse and indirectly to the greater spiritual efficiency of those concerned.

The Committee respectfully reminds the Conference that the new economic conditions which prevail throughout the country, coupled with the inadequate resources of the weaker circuits, would have led inevitably to the withdrawal of Ministers from needy areas, but for the essential and valued help of this Fund. If it ceased to operate, not only would many Ministers and their families be financially embarrassed, but the continued appointment of Ministers in many places would only be possible by large additional grants from the Home Mission Fund. Happily that Fund has been spared these new claims upon its resources by the operations of the Sustentation Fund, which has secured the necessary adjustment of allowances for Ministers in these areas.

The total income of the Fund, including a balance of £98 8*s.* 10*d.* brought forward from the previous year, has been £12,793 11*s.* 1*d.*, and the total expenditure £12,252 1*s.*, leaving a credit balance in the hands of the Treasurers of £541 10*s.* 1*d.* To this must be added the sum of £1,500 on deposit to meet future liabilities, and as a provision against the necessity of bank overdraft during the months previous to the collections, the chief income of the year, being received.

The financial position of the Fund at the end of an anxious and difficult year yields deep satisfaction to the Committee. The list of subscriptions promised for a limited period at its inception seven years ago had expired, and the annual collections were made towards the close of the disastrous coal stoppage, when industrial and commercial conditions were at their worst. Once again, however, the collections have brought to our exchequer the noble contribution of £11,004 1s., a proof of the loyalty and liberality of the Methodist people which cannot be adequately acknowledged. A few subscriptions have also been received—amongst them an anonymous gift of £400—which have helped to keep the ship upon an even keel and have brought us to the harbour. By careful administration, the expenditure of the year in the way of grants has been less under nearly all heads, and by new office arrangements the working expenses of the Fund have been considerably reduced.

In all, 213 Circuits, representing 396 Ministers, have benefited during the past twelve months. Of the Circuits, 119 have received Grants for Stipend only (41 of them in the Welsh Districts), 51 for Stipend and Children's Maintenance, and 43 for Children only.

The present Minimum was recommended by the Conference of 1923 and has remained unchanged in the interval. In the judgment of the Committee, the Allowances are but a reasonable provision for present-day needs and there is no sufficient ground for their reduction. It is recommended, therefore, that the existing scale of Minimum payments be maintained for the next Connexional Year.

REVISION OF THE "LIVERPOOL MINUTES."

ALTERNATIVE SERVICE.

THIS Service is recommended by the Conference as an Introduction to the Conversation on the work of God. The Liverpool Minutes, written at a time of great spiritual stress and hallowed by long custom, are unique. No present-day service can be exactly what they have been. But in the following service a different approach to that Conversation is sought. It is designed in the belief that we ought to begin by Prayer for the grace of listening, and then to contemplate the Love and Glory of God, that this may move us to sincere penitence. Then should naturally follow Prayer for ourselves, and in a widening circle for others; and the Service should close, as it begins, with God, in an Act of Adoration.

¶ After the singing of a Hymn, the Chairman shall say:

BRETHREN, we are met in solemn assembly that we may confer with one another concerning the Work of God among us. To this end, we are called, both as a Church and as individuals, to renew our fellowship with our living Lord. We are bound to Him by many vows, especially by those which we publicly took upon ourselves at Ordination: but still more by the inexhaustible love and grace of Him from Whom we all derive our vocation, and our power to serve. Let us therefore turn now to Him, opening our hearts in frank and humble love. And because it is hard for us always to be mindful of His perpetual presence, let us for a short time be still together, and pray that His Holy Spirit may silence within us the voices of the world, and enable us to hear His Voice.

¶ Then shall follow Silence; after which the Chairman shall lead the following Meditation. It is suggested that the reading be slow, with a pause after each sentence.

And now let us lay aside every burden of responsibility or trouble or grief, and stir up our minds to remembrance of our God, that we may stay ourselves upon Him.

Let us meditate upon GOD THE FATHER.

One God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all.

He is a Spirit, and we worship by the Spirit of God.

He is Light, and in Him is no darkness at all.

He is Love, and He so loved the world that He gave His only-begotten Son.

Let us meditate upon GOD THE SON.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Who being in the form of God, counted it not a prize to be on an equality with God, but emptied Himself.

We have not a High Priest that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one that hath been in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

The light of the knowledge of the glory of God is in the face of Jesus Christ.

The Good Shepherd layeth down His life for the sheep.

He humbled Himself, becoming obedient unto death, yea, the death of the cross.

I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly.

Let us meditate upon GOD THE HOLY SPIRIT.

Who is the Lord and Giver of Life.

Who takes of the things of Christ and declares them to us.

Who dwells in us, striving till He cast out sin.

Who bears witness with our spirits that we are children of God.

Who makes intercession for us with groanings that cannot be uttered.

Let us meditate upon the ever blessed TRINITY.

The holy Church throughout all the world: doth acknowledge Thee;

The Father: of an infinite Majesty;

Thine honourable, true: and only Son;

Also the Holy Ghost; the Comforter.

¶ Then shall the Chairman say:

Brethren, we have remembered the glory and the love of God. But we have not been faithful servants nor loving children. Let us confess to God our failures and sins and pray for His forgiveness.

¶ To be said by all kneeling:

O Lord, hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto Thee: Forgive us, we beseech Thee.

Where we have darkened the light that was in us, taken the easy path, chosen our own way and will; where we have been content with unworthy motives; where we have wasted ourselves upon the fashion of this world; where we have loved the praise of men: Forgive us, we beseech Thee.

Where we have failed in courage, in purity, in sincerity, in unselfishness, in humility, in devotion, in love; where we have not loved and served Thee according to the vision of our youthful days : Forgive us, we beseech Thee.

Hear us as we pray for penitent and obedient hearts. May Thy Spirit convince us of those sins which we have never cared to acknowledge even to ourselves ; and may He bring home to us the assurance of Thy renewed forgiveness and eternal love ; for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Chairman say :

And now, in full assurance of hope, let us pray for those things that are in the gift of God, Who is always more ready to hear than we are to pray.

O God our Father, hear us as we pray—

That Thou wilt cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of Thy Holy Spirit ;

Grant this, O Lord.

That there may be nothing to prevent His working in us and through us ;

Grant this, O Lord.

That it may be given to us, as our souls can bear, to see ourselves as Thou seest us ; and that we may be delivered from insincerity, self-deception, and pretence ;

Grant this, O Lord.

O Lord Jesus Christ, hear us as we pray—

That we may so know Thee as to carry the peace of God in our hearts and in our intercourse with others :

Hear us, Lord Jesus.

That we may have courage to do and to speak the truth, and at all times to be loyal to Thee ;

Hear us, Lord Jesus.

That we may be men of humble heart, willing to learn of others and to be the servants of all ;

Hear us, Lord Jesus.

That we may be given victory over temptation to impurity in thought, word, or deed ;

Hear us, Lord Jesus.

That we may be unselfish in our home life, among our people, and towards our brethren of the Ministry ;

Hear us, Lord Jesus.

That we may be so filled with the Holy Spirit as to put Thy Kingdom first in all our ways, and continually to renew the sense of our call.

Hear us, Lord Jesus.

That we may above all receive the Spirit of love to be our Guide, and to direct and rule our hearts; so that by our love to Thee and to our fellows, men may see Thee in us;

Hear us, Lord Jesus.

O SPIRIT OF THE FATHER AND OF THE SON, hear us as we pray—

That we may daily walk with God;

Holy Spirit, hear us.

That we may handle aright the Word of truth.

Holy Spirit, hear us.

That we may have understanding of our people, and they of us: that we may so love and be loved by them as to be their friends, and sharers in their joys and sorrows;

Holy Spirit, hear us.

That we may equip ourselves to the uttermost for the work of ministering, and yet so truly depend upon Thee as to be channels of Thy Grace to men;

Holy Spirit, hear us.

That we may be enabled by many ways to lead people to Christ and into a personal experience of His love and power;

Holy Spirit, hear us.

That we may be saved from all unbelief—from formalism, indolence, and dullness of heart, and by Thine indwelling made sufficient for our high calling and for the needs and problems of our time;

Holy Spirit, hear us.

¶ After silence, the members of the Synod shall turn their thoughts to the needs of our people, the world-wide Church, and them that are without. The Chairman may name such causes as in his judgment should be prayed for, and may ask for brief extempore prayers. He shall then conclude as follows:

Fill our hearts, O Lord, with a passionate and unwavering love for our fellows. Help us to bring them to Thee. Make us willing to go forward whatever it may cost. Day by day guide us in our work: teach us the best methods. Encourage us with strength in our souls, and let our one aim be to glorify Thee, O Lord Jesus.

Amen.

¶ After brief silence, the Chairman shall say :

Brethren, let us stand and unite in thanksgiving and adoration to the Maker and Saviour of all.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up unto the Lord.

Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

It is meet and right so to do.

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify Thy glorious Name ; evermore praising Thee, and saying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts, heaven and earth are full of Thy glory : Glory be to Thee, O Lord most High.

Amen.

¶ Then shall the Chairman say :

Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly, above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus, unto all generations for ever and ever.

Amen.

¶ Then shall follow the singing of a Hymn and the Conversation on the Work of God.

3. The Lecturers and their Appointment.—The Lecturers (whether or not members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church) shall be chosen from persons who have attained a recognised position of authority in some field of social, industrial, economic, or international research or activity, and who are in agreement with the Christian point of view.

The Lecturers shall be appointed by the Board of Managing Trustees, the Conference not becoming thereby responsible for the opinions of the Lecturers.

4. The Disbursement of the Funds of the Lectureship.—The funds of the Lectureship shall be disbursed as follows:

(1) The Lecturers' honorarium shall be fifty pounds (£50), subject to the handing over, directly after the delivery of the Lecture, of a manuscript for publication containing not fewer than 15,000 words, the copyright of which shall be the property of the Board of Managing Trustees.

(2) The remaining income shall be used to further the circulation of the Lectures, to pay printing, advertising, and other necessary incidental expenses, and to cover loss incurred by the publication of any Lecture.

APPENDIX VII.

METHODIST BROTHERHOOD.

OVERSEAS BUREAU.

(Minutes of Conference, 1927, p. 82.)

THE Scheme for assisting Methodists who desire to emigrate by private nominations through the Methodist Churches of the Dominions is in operation. No direct financial assistance is given by the Committee towards passage money for the migrants, but all accepted under the nomination of the Methodist Church are assured of employment upon arrival, and granted the benefits of the assisted passage schemes available under the Empire Settlement Act of 1922.

REPORT OF THE ARRANGEMENTS WITH METHODIST CONFERENCES OVERSEAS.

AUSTRALIA.—Thirty-nine families for farm work (155 persons) and four teachers (nine persons) have been selected and sent out to NEW SOUTH WALES, making a total of fifty-nine families in eighteen months. The joint Immigration Committee formed by the Nonconformist Churches in NEW SOUTH WALES has rendered excellent service in spite of great difficulties. Since the inauguration of the Scheme new Government legislation has come into force (Workmen's Compensation; Minimum Wages, etc.), which immediately created a certain amount of unemployment in the State, and thus made it difficult to find openings, particularly for families with several children. In spite of these very serious difficulties situations have been obtained for all the people sent out under our organisation. One or two men have proved awkward to place, but the reports state that, on the whole, the families have settled well and are very grateful for the help they have received from the Methodist Church.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA has continued its policy of finding the situations first, and then making the nomination. By this method we know exactly the type of worker required, size of family which can be accommodated, etc., though sometimes when there are stipulations as to the family also consisting of certain types of workers it is not easy to fill the openings quickly. Ten families (fifty-two persons), two boys, and one domestic have been sent to the State, and only in one case has there been any difficulty about the man settling. All openings notified have been filled and we are awaiting new requisitions.

VICTORIA has not yet been able to accept families, though a special opening was found for one large family of nine children, three of whom proceeded under our nomination for boys and domestics, a situation being found for the parents and other children to follow within a few weeks. So far it has not been possible to fill the requisition from this State for five boys and five domestics each month, inasmuch as both these classes of migrants are amply provided for by the Government schemes and do not need special nomination, and particularly in the case of boys such organisations as the Big Brother Movement are working actively throughout the country to obtain boys of the right type. We know that many Methodist boys do migrate under this and the Dreadnought Scheme of the Government, under which the boys are given three or six months' training on a Government farm in Australia.

New Zealand.—Many inquiries are received from Methodists asking if we can help by nomination to this Dominion, no assisted passages being available except by private nomination. The Government has not yet sanctioned any scheme of group nomination by the Churches, but from conversations with the Rev. J. T. Pinfold, D.D., there is a possibility that he might be able to obtain private nominations for a few Methodists who were specially suitable. During his visit to this country Dr. Pinfold has promised to see officials of the N.Z. Government, and it is hoped that before long some scheme may be working for this Dominion.

Canada.—It was hoped that, as a result of the negotiations taking place last year and of the agreement entered into between the United Church of Canada and our Committee, schemes would have evolved enabling us to place Methodist applicants in situations in Canada. A few requisitions have been notified to us, but chiefly for experienced farm workers. The Rev. C. E. Manning, D.D., is at present in this country for the purpose of trying to complete some scheme which it is hoped will result in Methodists who desire to settle in Canada being placed in situations under the auspices of the United Church of Canada. The details of these schemes are not yet complete, but due notice will be given through the Methodist papers and in other ways.

Report re Methodists Assisted by Nomination, etc.

Through the work of the Committee it has been made possible for 278 Methodists who desired to emigrate to be assisted to Australia and four to Canada.

1,168 inquiries and 270 definite applications have been received. For every applicant references have been obtained and personal interviews arranged. The applicants who have sailed during the year are:

Teachers to N.S.W.—4 (9 persons).
Home Missionaries.—10 to Victoria; 6 to W. Australia; and 6 to Queensland.
Families.—39 (155 persons) to N.S.W., and 10 (52 persons) to S. Australia.

DOMESTICS.—9 to Victoria; and 1 to S. Australia.

BOYS AND SINGLE MEN.—7 to Victoria; 1 to S. Australia, and 3 to W. Australia.

OTHER GOVERNMENT SCHEMES.—22 persons who applied to us were found more suitable for Government schemes, or advised how to obtain personal nominations—many others helped in this way, but no definite report of result yet to hand.

HOME MISSIONARIES.—From reports received the young Local Preachers sent out are acquitting themselves well, and proving a help to the Methodist Church of Australia, and are assisting to meet the spiritual need of the settlers in newly developed areas. It is satisfactory to learn that the first four men sent to Victoria two years ago have recently been accepted as Candidates for the Ministry.

So far as possible all migrants selected under the nomination of the Committee sail in parties under the care of a Welfare Officer of the Y.M.C.A., with whom any Home Missionaries are instructed to co-operate for the welfare of all passengers on the boat. The migrants are seen on board ship at this end and met immediately upon arrival at the port of disembarkation by a Methodist representative. During the voyages the Home Missionaries have welcomed the opportunity of Christian service by co-operating with the Welfare Officer, conducting Services, Sunday Schools, etc., and on one boat we know that three young H.M.'s organised a Men's Bible Study Class on Sunday afternoons which had an average attendance of fifty.

The selection of applicants on this side presents many difficulties, many of the men who most earnestly desire to go have no experience which would fit them for life on a country farm. This has been particularly noticeable during the past year, owing to the industrial troubles in this country, but if there is any possible way by advice or inquiries of helping such people, everything is done to assist them.

Efforts are also made to see that the families leave this country well equipped for their new life, and only recently when it was discovered actually on the eve of sailing that a man and wife, with two children were, through unforeseen circumstances, unable to obtain a proper outfit, an appeal was made to a special fund, a grant obtained and clothing purchased and handed over to this family on the boat train as they left. All possible care is exercised that only families who appear suitable and likely to make good settlers are sent out, and advice, suggestions, or criticisms from our representatives on the other side are welcomed as being helpful in forming an opinion as to the conditions under which these migrants will be employed and the type who make the best settlers. The visit of several members of the Australian Methodist Immigration Committees to this country at the present time is proving of great assistance.

Removals Overseas.

During the year notifications of removal of 1,119 Methodists have been reported to the Department as follows:

Canada	277
Australia	581
New Zealand	159
South African and other Countries	102
Total	1,119

Of these 399 were notified as members of the Church, and in every case action was taken with a view to getting them linked with some Methodist Society at their destination. The proportion of these people who have returned the slip notifying that they have renewed their Church connection has been larger than in previous years. Whilst it is satisfactory to note that the number of removals reported to the Committee has been larger this year, the Committee are aware that this number represents only a small proportion of the Methodists who have emigrated. From the returns of the Wesleyan Methodist Church alone for the year ending March 31, 1927, it is noted that 881 Members were entered as having migrated, whilst the return given above includes a proportion of Primitive and United Methodist Members. In all correspondence with the Chaplains, whose duty it is to welcome Methodists upon arrival, we are urged to let them have notice of the removal as long time in advance as possible, as this renders their work more effective. The Committee desire to urge upon all Ministers the necessity of sending notices of removals abroad to the department as much in advance of the date of sailing as possible.

THE GENERAL ASSESSMENT.

For the year 1927–28 the sum of £55,825 is to be raised—to be distributed as follows:

To the Ministers' Children's Fund	£29,500
„ Auxiliary Fund	25,075
„ Theological Institution Fund	1,000
„ Connexional Fund	250

The amounts to be raised in each District are given in Schedule B on the next page.

The Ministers in Departments and those without Pastoral Charge are not included in the Numbers and Assessments given in Schedule B. The Assessment in these cases for the year 1927–28 is £34 per Minister for the Children's Fund, and £9 per Minister for the Auxiliary Fund.

In the event of a reduction in the amount of the General Assessment being made in any year of the Quinquennial Period (1926–31) the Special Finance Committee is empowered to make such adjustments from time to time as may be deemed desirable. (Minutes, 1925, p 73.)

In the case of the increase of the number of Ministers in any five-yearly period, the amount of the District Assessment shall be increased by the amount of the Assessment for each additional Minister called out; but there shall be no decrease in the amount of the District Assessment during such period. (Minutes, 1884, p. 272.)
